

THE
W H O L E B O O K
O F
P S A L M S :

Collected into English Metre,
by Thomas Sternhold, John Hopkins,
and others :

Set forth and allowed to be sung in all churches, of all the people together, before and after morning and evening prayer ; and also before and after sermons, and moreover in private houses for their godly solace and comfort : laying apart all ungodly songs and ballads, which tend only to the nourishing of vice, and corrupting of youth.

JAMES v.

5 If any be afflicted, let him pray : and if any be merry, let him sing psalms.

COLOS. 3.

5 Let the word of God dwell plentifully in you, in all wisdom, teaching and exhorting one another in psalms, hymns, and spirituall songs, singing unto the Lord with grace in your hearts.

THE PSALMS OF DAVID IN METRE.

Psal. I. T. S.

THe man is blest that hath not bent
to wicked read his ear :
Nor led his life as sinners do,
nor sat in scorners chair.
But in the law of God the Lord
doth set his whole delight :
And in that law doth exercise
himself both day and night.

3 He shall be like the tree that grows
by the rivers side; (fruit)
Which bringeth forth most pleasant
in her due time and tide.
Whose leaf shall never fade nor fall,
but flourish still and stand ;
Even fo all things shall prosper well
that this man takes in hand.

4 So shall not the ungodly men,
they shall be nothing so :
But as the dust which from the earth
the wnde driven to and fro.
5 Therefore shall not the wicked men
in judgement stand upright :
Nor yet the sinners with the just,
shall come in place or sight.

6 For why ? the way of godly men unto the Lord is known :
And eke the way of wicked men shall quite be overthrown.

Psal. II. T. S.
Why did the Gentiles tumults raise,
what rag was in their brain ?
Why did the Jewish people muse,
seeing all is but vain ?
2 The kings and rulers of the earth
conspire and are all bent, Against the Lord and Christ his Sons,
which he among us sent.

3 Shall we be bound to them ? say they ?
let all their bonds be broke :
And of their doctrine and their law,
let us reje&t the yoke.
4 But he that in the heaven dwells,
their doings will deride :
And make them all as mocking stocks,
throughout the world so wide.

5 For in his wrath the Lord will say
to them upon a day :
And in his fury trouble them,
and then the Lord will say,
6 I have anointed him my King
upon my holy hill :
I will therefore, Lord, preach thy law,
and eke declare thy will.

7 For in this wise the Lord himself
did say to me, I wot, Thou art my dear and only Son,
to day I thee begot.

8 All people I will give to thee,
as heirs at thy request :
The ends and coasts of all the earth
by thee shall be possest.

(verses)

9 Thou shalt them bruise even with a
as men under foot trod :
And as the porters herbs their break
them with an iron rod.
10 Now ye O kings, and rulers alle
be wise therefore and learn'da
By whom the matters of the world
be judged and discern'd.

11 See that ye serve the Lord above
in trembling and in fear :
See that with reverence ye rejoice
to him in like manner.
12 See that ye kisse, and eke embrace
his blessed Son, I say :
Left in his wrath ye suddenly perish in the mid-way.

13 If once his wrath never so small
shall kindle in his brest :
O then all they that trust in Christ,
shall happy be and blest.

Psal. III. T. S.
O Lord, how are my foes increast,
which vex me more and more ?
2 They kill my heart when as they says,
God can him not restore.
3 But thou (O Lord) art my defence,
when I am hard beset :
My worship and mine honour both,
and thou holdst up my head.

4 Then with my voice upon the Lord
I did both call and cry :
And he out of his holy hill
did hear me by and by.
5 I laid me down and quietly
I slept and rose again :
For why ? I know assuredly,
the Lord will me sustain.

6 If ten thousand had hem'd me in,
I could not be afraid :
For thou art still my Lord and Gods
my Saviour and mine aid.
Rise up therefore save me, my God,
for now to thee I call : (verse) 7 For thou hast broke the cheeks and of these wicked men all.

8 Salvation onely doth belong to thee, O Lord above : Thou dost bestow upon thy folk thy blessing and thy love.

Psal. IV. T. S.
O God that art my righteousness,
Lord, hear me when I call :
Thou hast set me at liberty,
when I was bound and thrall.

- 6 Have mercy Lord therefore on me,
and grant me my request:
For unto thee unceasantly,
to cry I will not rest.
- 7 O mortall men how long will ye
my glory thus despise?
Why wast ye in vanity,
and follow after lies?
- 8 Know ye that good and godly men,
the Lord doth take and chuse:
And when to him I make my plaints
he doth me not refuse.
- 9 Sin not but stand in awe therefore,
extasing well your heart:
And in your chamber quietly,
see you your selues convert.
- 10 Offer to God the sacrifice
of righteousness, I say:
And look that in the living Lord
you put your trust alway.
- (goods.)
- 11 The greater fort craye worldly
and riches to embrace:
But Lord, grant us thy countenance,
thy favour and thy grace. (heart.)
- 12 For thou thereby shalt make my more joyful and more glad,
Then they that of their corn and wine
full great increase have had.
- 13 In peace therefore lie down will I,
taking my rest and sleep:
For thou only wilt me, O Lord,
alone in safety keep.

Psalms VI. T. 3.

- 1 Nellie thine ears unto my words,
O Lord, my plaint consider:
2 And hear my voice, my King, my God,
to thee I make my prayer.
- 3 Hear me betime, Lord tarry not,
for I will have respect:
My prayer early in the morn
to thee for to direct.
- 4 And I will trust through patience,
in thee my God alone:
Thou art not pleased with wickednesse,
and ill with thee dwells none.
- 5 And in thy sight shall never stand
these furious foles, O Lord:
Vain workers of iniquity,
thou hast always abhor'd.
- 6 The haire and the flattery
that shall destroy them than:
And God will hate the blood-thirsty,
and the deceiptfull man.
- 7 Therefore will I come to thine house,
trampling upon thy grace:
And reverently will worship thee,
toward thine holy place.
- 8 Lord, lead me in thy righteousness,
for to confound my foes:
And shew the way that I shall walk
before my face disfete.
- 9 For in their mouths there is no truth,
their heart is foul and vain:
Their throat an open sepulchre,
their tongues do glaze and faine.
- 10 Destroy their false conspiracie,
that they may come to nought:

- Subvert them in their hope of sin,
which have rebellion wrought.
11 But those that put their trust in thee,
let them be glad alwayes:
And render thanks for the defence,
and give thy Name the praise.
- 12 For thou with favour wilt increas
the just and righteous still:
And with thy grace, as with a shield,
defend him from all ill.

Psalms VI. T. 3.

- 1 Ord, in thy wrath reprove me not:
I though I deserve thine ire:
Ne yet correct me in thy rage,
O Lord, I thee desire.
- 2 For I am weak, therefore O Lord,
of mercy me forbear,
And haue me, Lord, for why? thou know'st
my bones do quake for fear.
- 3 My soul is troubled very sore,
and vexed vchenemently:
But, Lord, how long wilt thou delay,
to cure my misery?
- 4 Lord, turn thee to thy wanted grace,
my fillye soule up take:
Offer me, not for my deserts,
but for thy mercies sake.
- 5 For why? no man among the dead
remembreth thee one whit:
Or who shall worship thee (O Lord)
in the infernall pit?
- 6 So grievous is my plaint and moan,
that I wax wondrous faint:
All the night long I walke my bed
with tears of my complaint.

- 7 My sight is dim, and waxeth old
with anguish of my heart:
For feare of those that be my foes,
and would my soul subvert.
- 8 But now away from me all ye
that work iniquity:
For why? the Lord hath heard the voice
of my complaint and cry.

- 9 He heard not onely the request
and prayer of my heart:
But it received at my hands,
and took it in good part.

- 10 And now my foes that vexed me,
the Lord will soon defame:
And suddenly confound them all,
to their rebute and shame.

Psalms VII. T. 3.

- 1 Ord, my God, I put my trust
and confidence in thee:
Say me from them that me pursue,
and ese deliver me.

- 2 I left like a lion he me tear,
and rend in pieces swalls
While there is none to succour me,
and bid me out of thrall.

- 3 O Lord my God, if I have done
the thing that is not right:
Or else if I be found in fault,
or guilty in thy sight:
- 4 Or to my friend rewarded ill,
or lett him in distrefte:
Which me pursued most cruelly,
and hated me crueltie:

3 This

6 Then let my foes pursue my soul,
and eke my life down thrust Unto the earth; and also by mine honour in the drift.
5 Start up, O Lord, now in thy wrath,
and put my foes to pain;
Perform the kingdom promised to me which wrong sustain. (then,

7 Then shall great nations come to
and know thee by this thing;
If thou declare for love of them,
thy self as Lord and King.
8 And as thou art of all men Judge,
O Lord, now judge thou me
According to my righteousness,
and mine integrity.

The second part.

6 Lord, cease the hate of wicked men,
and be the just man guide:
By whom the seekers of all hearts
are searched and deser'd.
13 I take my help to come of God
in all my pain and smart:
That doth preserve all those that be
of pure and perfect heart.

11 The just man and the wicked both
God judgeth by his power:
So that he feels his mighty hand
even every day and hour.
12 Except he change his mind, I die
for even as he should smite.
He whets his sword, his bow he bends,
aiming where he may hit.

23 And doth prepare his mortal darts,
his arrows keen and sharp,
For them that do me persecute,
whiles he doth mischievous warp.
14 But lo, though he intravell be
of his devilish forecast:
And of his mischief once concey'd,
yet brings forth nought at last.

25 He digs a ditch and delves it deep,
in hope to hurt his brother:
But he shall fall into the pit
that he dig'd up for other.
16 Thus wrong returneth to the hart
of him in whom it bred:
And all the mischief that he wroughts,
shall fall upon his head.
17 I will give thanks to God therefore,
that judgeth righteous:
And with my song will praise the Name,
of him that is most high.

Psal. VIII. T. 3.

O God our Lord, how wonderful
are thy works every where:
2 Whole firm' rumsours in dignitry,
above the heavens clear!
Even by the mouth of sucking babes
thou wilt confound thy foes:
For insofie babes thy might is seen,
thy graces they disclose.

3 And when I see the heavens high,
the works of thine own hand:
The sun, the moon and all the stars,
in order as they stand: (then,
4 What thing is man, Lord, think I
that thou dost him remember?

Or what is man's excellency,
that thou dost it consider?

5 For thou hast made him little less than angels in degree:
And thou hast crowned him also
with glory and dignify.

6 Thou hast prefer'd him to be lord
of all thy works of wonder:
And at his feet hast set strivings,
that he should keep them under.

7 As sheep, and neat, and all beasts else
that in the fields do feed:

8 Fox is of the air, fish in the seas,
and all that therein breed.

9 Therefore must I say once again,
O God that art our Lord:
How famous, and how wonderfull
are thy works through the world?

Psal. IX. T. 3.

W ith heart & mouth unto the Lord
will I sing laud and praise:
And speak of all thy wondrous works,
and them declare slaynes.

2 I will be glad and much rejoices
in thee, O God, most high:
And make my songs extoll thy Name

3 For that my foes are driven back,
and turned unto flight:
They fall down flat, and are destroide
by thy great power and might.
4 Thou hast revenged all my wrongs, I
my grief and alius grudge:
Thou doft with Justice hear my causes,
most like a righteous Judge.

5 Thou doft rebuke the heathen folks
and wicked so confound,
That afterward the memory
of them can not be found. (spatcys

6 My foes thou hast made good dr.
and all their towns destroide:
Thou hast their fame with them defac'd
through all the world so wide.

7 Know thou that he which is above
for evermore shall reign,
And in the fear of equity
true judgement will maintain.
8 With justice he will keep and guide
the world and every wight:
And so will yeild with equity
to every man his right.

9 He is protectour of the poor,
what time they be opprest:
He is in all adversity
their refuge and their rest.

10 All they that know thy holy Name
therefore shall trust in thee:
For thou forsakes not their suit
in their necessity.

The second part.

11 Sing psalms therefore unto the Lord
that dwells in Ston hill:
Publish among all nations,
his noble zcs and will.
12 For he is mindful of the blood
of those that be opprest:
Forgetting not th'afflicted heart
that seeks to him for rest.

Psalm xi. xii.

13 Have mercy, Lord, on me poor whose enemies full remain: (wrech)
Which from the gates of death art wont
to raise me up again.
14 In Sion that I might set forth
thy praise with heart and voice:
And that is the salvation, Lord,
my soul might still rejoice.

15 The heathen flick fast in the pit
that then themselves prepar'd:
And in the net that they did set,
their own feet fast are snar'd.
16 God shew's his judgments which were for every man to mark: (good) Where as ye see the wicked men lie snapt' in his own work.

17 The wicked and deceitfull men
go down to hell for ever:
And all the people of the world
that will not God remember.
18 But fare the Lord will not forget
the poor man's grief and pain:
The patient people never look for help at God in vain.

19 O Lord, arise, lest men prevail
that be of worldly might.
And let the heathen folk receive their judgement in thy sight.
20 Lord, strike such terror, fear and into the hearts of them: (dread)
That they may know astreely,
they be but mortall men.

Psal. X. T. 5.
WHAT is it cause thou O Lord,
art now so far from thine?
And keepest close thy countenance
from us this troublous time?
2 The poor do perish by the proud
and wicked mens desire:
Let them be taken in the craft
that they themselves coospire.

3 For in the lust of his own heart
th'ungodly doth delight:
So doth the wicked praise himself,
and doth the Lord despite:
4 He is so proud that right and wrong,
he setteth all apart:
Nay, nay, ther is no God, faith he,
for thus he thinks in heart.

5 Because his ways do prosper still
he doth thy laws negle&:
And with a blast doth puff against such as would him correct.
6 Tush-tush, faith he, I have no dread,
lest mine estate should change:
And why? for all adversity
to him is very strange.

7 His mouth is full of cursednesse,
of fraud, deceit and guile:
Under his tongue doth mischief sit,
and travell all the whiles.
8 He lieth hid in wayes and holes,
to slay the innocent:
Against the poor that passe him by,
his cruel eyes are beat.

9 And like a lion privily
lies lurking in his den

If he may snare them in his nets
to spoile poor simple men. 1 10 And for the nonce full craftily
he crancheth down, I say:
So are great heaps of poor men made
by his strong power his prey.

The second part.

11 Thus God forgettest this, faith he,
therefore I may be bold:
His countenance is cast aside,
he doth it not behold.
12 Arise, O Lord, O God, in whom the poor mans hope doth rest:
Lift up thy hand, forget not, Lord,
the poor that be opprest.

13 What blasphemy is this to thee,
Lord, doth thou not abhor it?
To hear the wicked in their heart
say, This thing can't not for it?
14 Eat thou meat all their wickednesse,
and well dost understand:
That friendlesse and poor fuberlesse
are left unto thy hand.

15 Of wicked and milicious men
then break the power for ever:
That they with their iniquity
may perish altogether.
16 The Lord first reigns for evermore,
is King and God alone:
And he will chafe the heathen folk
out of the land each one. (psalms)

17 Thou hear'st (O Lord) the poor mens their prayers and request:
Their hearts thou wilt consider, until thine ears to hear be prest:
18 To judge the poor and fatherlesse,
and help them to their right:
That they may be no more opprest
by men of worldly might.

Psal. XI. T. 5.
ITrust in God, how dire ye then!
say thus my soul until,
Fly hence as fast as any fowl,
and hide you in your hill?
2 Behold! the wicked bend their bowes,
and make their arrows prest
To shoot in secret, and to hurt
the sound and harmlesse breth. (psalms)

3 Of worldly hope all stayes were
and clairly brought to nougat:
Alas, the just and righteous man,
what evil hath he wrought?
4 But he that in his temple is,
most holy and most high,
And in the heavens hath his seat
of royll majestie,

The poor and simple mans estate
considereth in his minde:
And searcheth out full narrowly
the sinnes of mankind:
5 And with a cheerfull countenance
the righteous man will use:
But in his heart he doth abhor
all such as mischief muse.
6 And on the sinners casteth snares,
as thick as any rain: (thick)
Fire and brimstone, and whirlwades appointed for their pale.

5 We see then how a righteous God
doth righteousness embrace :
And to the just and upright men
sheweth his pleasant face.

Psal. XIIII. T. S.

H Elp Lord, for good and godly men
do perish and decay :
And faith and truth from worldly men
is parted clean away.

2 Who so doth with his neighbour talk,
his talk is all vain,
For every man bethinketh how to flatter, lies and fain.

3 But flattering and deceitfull lips,
and tongues that be stout, (brags,
To speak proud words and make great
the Lord soon cut them out.

4 For they say still, we wil prevail,
our tongues shall us extoll : (speak,
Our tongues are ours-we ought to what lord shall us controll ?

5 But for the great complaint and cry
of poor and men opprest :
A life will I now, faith the Lord,
and them restore to rest.

6 Gods word is like to silver pure,
that from the earth is tri'd:
And bath no lese then seven times
in fire been purif'd.

7 New fith thy promise is to help,
Lords, keep thy promise then :
And give us now and evermore
from this ill kinde of men.

8 For now this wicked world is full of mischief manifold :
When vanity with worldly men
so highly is extold.

Psal. XIII. T. S.

H owlong wilt thou forget me, Lord?
Shall I here be remembred ?
How long wilt thou thy visage hide,
as though thou wert offended ?

8 In heart and minde how long shall I
with care tormented be ?
How long eke shall my deadly foes
thus triumph over me ?

3 Behold me now, my Lord, my God,
and hear me sore opprest :
Lighten mine eyes, lest that I sleep
as one by death posset.

4 Lest that mine enemies say to me,
Behold, I do prevail :
Lest they also that hate my soul,
rejoyce to see me quail.

5 But from thy mercy and goodnessse,
my hope shall never slant :
In thy relief and saving helpe
right glad shall be my heart.

6 I will give thanks unto the Lord,
and praise to him sing :
Because he hath heard my request,
and granted my wishing.

Psal. XIII. T. S.

T here is no God, as foolish men
affirm in their mad mood :
Their drifts are all corrupt and vain,
not one of them doth good.

8 The Lord beheld from heaven high the'whole race of mankind's

And saw not one that fought indeed
the living God to finde.

(rups)

3 They went all wide and were cor-
and truly there was none

That in the world did any good,
I say, there was not one.

4 Is all their judgement so far losst,
that all work mischief still ?
Eating my people even as bread,
not one to seek Gods will ?

5 When they thus rage, then suddenly great fear on them shall fall :

For God doth love the righteous men,
and will maintain them ill.

6 Ye mock the doings of the poor,
to their reproach and shame :
Because they put their trust in God,
and call upon his name.

7 But who shall give thy people health ?
and when wilt thou fulfill

Thy promise made to Israel,
from out of Sion hill ?

8 Even when thou shalt restore again
such as were captive led :
Then Jacob shall therein rejoice,
and Israel shall be glad.

Psal. XV. T. S.

O Lord, within thy tabernacle
who shall inhabit still ?
Or whom wilt thou receive to dwell
in thy most holy hill ?

2 The man whose life is uncorrupt,
whose works are just and straight :
Whose heart doth think the very truth,
whose tongue speaks no deceit .

3 Nor to his neighbour doth none ill,
in body, goods or name :

Nor willingly doth move false tales,
which might empair the fame.

4 That in his heart regardeth not malicious wicked men :
But those that love and fear the Lord,
he maketh much of them.

5 His oath and all his promises
that keepeth faithfully :

Although he make his covenant so that he doth lose thereby.

6 That purgeth not to fury
his money and his coin :
He for to hurt the innocent,
doth bribe or else purloin.

7 Who so doth all things as you see,
that here is to be done,
Shall never perish in this world,
nor in the world to come.

Psal. XVI. T. S.

L ord, keep me, for I trust in thee,
and do confesse indeed

Thou art my God, and of my goods,
O Lord, thou hast no need.

2 I give my goods unto the saints
that in the world do dwell :
And namely to the faithful flock
in vertue that excell.

3 They shall heap sorrows on their
which run as they were mad,

(heads)

To offer to the idol gods,
sac, it is too bad.
4 As for their bloody sacrifice,
and offerings of that sort,
I will not touch; nor yet thereof
my lips shall make report.

5 For why? the Lord the portion is of mine inheritance:
And I thou art he that dost maintain
my rents by my chance.
6 The place wherein my lot did fall,
in beauty did excell:
Mine heritage affignd' to me,
dost please me wondrous well.

7 I thank the Lord that caused me
to understand the right:
For by his means my secret thoughts
do teach me every night.
8 I let the Lord stell in my nights
and trast him over all:
For he doth stand on my right hand,
therefore I shall not fail.

9 Wherefore my heart and tongue also do both rejoice together:
My flesh and body rest in hope,
when I this thing consider. (grave) 20 Thou wilt not leave my soul in for, Lord, thou lovest me:
Nor yet wilt give thy holy One,
corruption for to see.

11 But wilt me teach the way to life,
for all treasure and store
Of perfect joy are in thy face,
and power for evermore.

Psal. XVII. T. S.

O Lord, give ear to my just cause,
attend when I complain:
And hear the prayer that I put forth,
with lips that do not fain.
2 And let the judgement of my cause
proceed always from thee:
And let thine eyes behold and clear
this my simplicity.

3 Thou hast well tri'd me in the night,
and yet couldst nothing finde
That I have spoken with my tongue,
that was not in my minde.
4 As for the works of wicked men,
and paths perverse and ill,
For love of thy most holy Name,
I have refrained still.

5 Then in thy paths that be most pure,
stay me, Lord, and preserve:
That from the way wherein I walk,
my steps may never swerve.
6 For I do call to thee, O Lord, surely thou will me aid: (well
Then hear my prayer, and weigh right
the words that I have said:

7 O thou the Saviour of all them
that put their trust in thee,
Declare thy strength on them that spurn
against thy majesty.
8 O keep me as thou wouldest keep
the apple of thine eye;
And under covert of thy wings
defend me secretly.

The second part.

9 From wicked men that trouble me,
and daily me annoy:
And from my foes that go about my soul for to destroy: (wealth)
10 Which wallow in their worldly
so full are they and fat,
That in their pride they do not spare
to speak they care not what.

11 They lie in wait where I should
with craft me to confound:
And musing mischief in their minds,
to cast me to the ground.
12 Much like a lion greedily
that would his prey embrase:
Or lurking like a lions whelp,
within some secret place.

13 Up, Lord, in haste prevent my foes
and cast him at thy feet:
Save thou my soul frō the ill mans
and with the sword him smite.
14 Deliver me, Lord, by thy powers
out of these tyrants hands:
Which now so long time reigned, have
and kept us in their bands.

15 I mean, from worldly men to whom
all worldly goods are rife:
That have no hope nor part of joy,
but in this present life.
16 Thoa of thy store their bellies fille
with pleasure to their minds:
Their children have enough, and leave
to theirs the rest behind.

17 But I shall with pure conscience
behold thy gracious face:
So when I wake I shall be full of thine image and grace.

Psal. XVIII. T. S.

God my strength and fortitude,
O of force I must love thee:
Thou art my castle and defence
in my necessity.

2 My God, my rock in whom I trust,
the worker of my wealth:
My refuge, buckler, and my shield
the horn of all my health.

3 When I sing laud unto the Lord,
most worthy to be serv'd:
Then from my foes I am right sure,
that I shall be preferv'd.
4 The pangs of death did compass me,
and bound me every where:
The flowing waves of wickedness
did put me in great fear.

5 The sile and subtle staires of hell
were round about me set:
And for my death there was prepar'd
a deadly trapping net.
6 I thus beset with pain and grief,
did pray to God for grace
And he forthwith did hear my plaint
out of his holy place.

7 Such is his power, that in his wrath
he made the earth to quake:
Yes, the foundation of the mount
of Easen for to shake.

- 6 And from his nostrils came a smoke,
when kindled was his ire:
And from his mouth came kindled coals
of hot consuming fire.
- 9 The Lord descended from above;
and bowed the heavens before him;
And underneath his feet he cast
the darkness of the skies.
- 10 On the clouds and on cherubims
full royally he rode;
And on the wings of all the winds
came flying all abroad.
- The second part.*
- 11 And like a den most dark he made his hid and secret place;
With waters black and airy clouds
environed he was.
- 12 But when the presence of his face,
in brightness shall appear:
Then clouds consume, and in their stead
come hail and coals of fire.
- 13 The fiery darts and thunder bolts
disperseth them here and there;
And with his often lightnings
he puts them in great fear.
- 14 Lord, thy wrath and threatenings,
and at thy abiding choir,
The springs and the foundations
of all the world appear.
- 15 And from above the Lord sent down
to fetch me from below:
And pluckt me out of waters great,
that would me overflow.
- 16 And me delivered from my foes
that would have made me thrall:
Yea from such foes as were too strong
for me to deal withal.
- 17 They did prevent me to oppresse,
in time of my great grief:
But yet the Lord was my defence,
my succour and relief.
- 18 He brought me forth in open places,
whences I might be free;
And kept me safe, because he had a favour unto me.
- 19 And so I was an innocent,
so did he me regard:
And to the cleanness of my hands
he gave me my reward.
- 20 For that I walked in his ways,
and in his paths have trod:
And have not sinned wickedly
against my Lord and God.
- The third part.*
- 21 But evermore I have respect
to his law and decree:
His statutes and commandements
I cast not out from me.
- 22 But pure and clean, and uncorrupt,
I stand before his face:
And did refrain from wickedness,
and sin in any case.
- 23 The Lord therefore will me reward,
as I have done aright:
And to the cleanness of my hands,
appearing in his sight.
- 24 For Lord with him that I do, is,
will thou be holy too.
- And with the good and vertuous men
right vertuously will do.
- 25 And to the loving and elect
thy love thou wilt reserve:
And thou wilt use the wicked men,
as wicked men deserve.
- 26 For thou dost save the simple folk
in trouble when they lie:
And dost bring down the cruelties
of them that look full high.
- 27 The Lord will light my candle so that it shall shine full bright:
The Lord my God will make also
my darkness to be light.
- 28 For by thy help on high of men,
desirous, Lord, shall I:
By thee I scale and over leep
the strength of any wall.
- 29 Unspotted are the ways of God;
his word is purely tri'd:
He is a sure defence to such as in his faith abide.
- 30 For who is God except the Lord?
for other there is none:
Or else who is omnipotent,
saving our God alone?
- The fourth part. (Strength.)*
- 31 The God that girdeth me with
is he that I do mean:
That all the ways wherein I walk,
did evermore keep clean.
- 32 That made my feet like to the hart's
in swiftness of my pace:
And for my surety brought me forth
into an open place.
- 33 He did in order put my hands
to battle and to fight:
To break inunder bars of brass,
he gave mine arms the might.
- 34 Thou art hast me thy saving health,
thy right hand is my tower:
Thy love and familiarity
doth still increase my power.
- 35 And under me thou makest plain
the way where I should walk:
So that my feet shall never slip,
nor stumble at a balk.
- 36 And sorely I pursue and take
my foes that mean me ill:
And from the field do not return,
till they be all destroyed.
- 37 So I suppress and wound my foes,
that they can rise no more:
For at my feet they fall down dead,
I strike them all so sore. (Strength.)
- 38 For thou dost gird me with thy
to war in such a wise:
That they be all scattered abroad
that up against me rise.
- 39 Lord thou hast put into mine hands
my mortall enemies yoke:
And all my foes thou dost divide
in under with thy stroke.
- 40 They call'd for help, but none gave
nor help them with relief:
Yes, to the Lord they call'd for help,
yet heard he not their grief.

The fifth psal.

41 And still like dust before the winds,
I drive them under feet:
And sweep them out like filthy clay,
that sticketh in the street.
42 Thou keep'st me from seditious folk that still in strife are led:
And thou dost of the heathen folk appoint me to be head.
43 A people strange to me unknown,
and yet they shall me serve:
And at the first obey my word,
whereas mine own will swerve.
44 I shall be iustum to mine own,
they will not see my light:
But wander wide out of the way,
and hide them out of sight.
45 But blessed be the living Lord,
most worthy of all praise:
That is my rock and saving health,
praised be he alwayes.
46 For God it is that gave me power,
revenged for to be:
And with his holy word subdu'd
the people unto me.

47 And from my foe delivered me,
and set me above those
That cruell and ungodly were,
and up against me rose.
48 And for this cause O Lord my God,
to thee give thanks I shall:
And sing our praises to thy Name
among the Gentiles all:
49 That gavest great prosperity
unto the king, I say:
To David thine anointed king,
and to his seed for ay.

Psal. XIX. T. S.

THe heavens and the firmament
do wondrously declare
The glory of God omnipotent,
his works, and what they are.
5 The wondrous works of God appear
by every dayes succeſſe: (run Through likewise which their race
the self-same thing expreſſe.) (speech,
3 There is no language, tongue or where their sound is not heard:
To all the earth and coasts thereof
their knowledge is confer'd.
4 In them the Lord made for the sun
a place of great renown:
Who like a bridegroom ready trim'd,
deth from his chamber come.
5 And as a valiant champion,
who for to get a prize,
With joy doth haste to take in hand,
some noble enterprize.
6 And all the skie from end to end
he compasseth about,
Nothing can hide it from his heat,
but he will finde it out.
7 How perfect is the law of God,
how is his covenant sure,
Covering souls, and making wise
the simple and obscure!
8 Just are the Lords commandements,
and glad both heart and mindes;

His precepts pure, and do give light to eyes that be ful blinde.

9 The fear of God is excellent,
and doth endure for ever:
The judgements of the Lord are true
and righteous altogether.
10 And more to be imbrac'd always then fined gold, I say:
The honey and the honey-comb
are not so sweet as they.

11 By them thy servant is foreward'd
to have God in regard:
And in performance of the same,
there shall be great reward. (know 12 But Lord, what earthly man doth
the errors of his life?
Then cleanse me from my secret sins,
which are in me most rife.

13 And keep me that presumptuous sin
prevail not over me:
And so shall I be innocent,
and great offences free.
14 Accept my mouth and eke my heart,
my words and thoughts each one:
For my Redeemer and my strength,
O Lord, thou art alone.

Psal. XX. T. S.

IN trouble and adversity,
the Lord God hear thee ill:
The wisdome of Jacobs God defend thee from all ill.
2 And send thee from his holy place,
his helper every need:
And so in Sion establish thee,
and make thee strong indeed.

3 Rememb'reng well the sacrifices
that now to him is done:
And so receive right thankfully
thy burnt-offerings each one, 4 According to thy hearts desire,
the Lord grant unto thee:
And all thy counsell and device,
full well perform may he.

5 We shall rejoice when thou us fav'rs
and our banners display Unto the Lord which thy requests fulfilled hath alway.

6 The Lord will his anointed save:
I know well by his grace:
And send him help by his right hands
out of his holy place.

7 In charlats some put confidence,
and some in horses trust:
But we remember God our Lord,
that keepeh promise iust.
8 They fall down flat, but we do rise,
and stand up stedfastly. (King, 9 Now save and help us Lord, and on thee when we do cry.

Psal. XXI. T. S.

O Lord, how Joyfull is the king,
in thy strength and thy power!
How vehemently doth he rejoice
in thee his Saviour!
2 For thou hast given unto him
his godly hearts desire:
To him nothing thou hast deni'd,
of that he did require.

3 Thou

2 Thou didst prevent him with thy
and blessings manifold : (gifts,
And thou hast set upon his head,
a crown of perfect gold.
4 And when he asked life of thee,
thereof thou mad'st him sure :
To have long life, yes; such a life
as ever shall endure.

5 Great is his glory by thy help,
thy benefit and aid :
Great worship and great honour both,
thou hast upon him laid.
6 Thou wilt give him felicity
that never shall decay :
And with thy cheerfull countenance
wilt comfort him alway.

7 For why? the king doth strongly trust
in God for its prevail :
Wherefore his goodness and his grace
will not that he shall quail.
8 But let thine enemies feel thy force,
and these that thee withhold :
Smite out thy foes, and let them feel
the power of thy right hand.

9 And like an oven burn them, Lord,
in fiery flame and fume :
Thine anger shall destroy them all,
and fire shall them consume.
10 And thou shalt root out of the earth
their fruit that shoulde increase ;
And from the number of thy folk
their seed shall end and cease.

(muse)
11 For why? much mischife did they against thy holy Name :
Yet did they fail, and had no power
to perform the same.
12 But as a mark thou shalt them set
in a most open place :
And charge thy bowe-strings readily against thine enemies face.

13 So thou exalted, Lord, therefore
In the strength every hour :
So shall we sing right solemnly,
praising thy might and power.

Psalm XXII. T. S.

O God, my God, wherefore dost thou
for sake us utterly?
And helpest not when I do make my great complaint and cry?
8 To thee, my God, even all day long
I do both cry and call :
I cease not all the night, and yet
thou hearest not at all.

3 Even thou that in thy sanctuary,
and holy place dost dwell :
Thou art the comfort and the joy,
and glory of Israel.
4 And he in whom our fathers old
had all their hope for ever :
And when they put their trust in thee,
thou didst them aby deliver.

5 They were delivered every when they called on thy Name :
And for the faith they had in thee,
they were not put to shame.
6 But I am now become a worm,
more like than any man ;

An out-cast whom the people scorn,
with all the spite they can.

7 All men despise as they behold me walking on the way : (heads
They grin, they mow, they nod their
and on this wise they say, 8 This man did glory in the Lord,
his favour, and his love :
Let him redeem and help him now,
his power if he will prove.

9 But, Lord, out of my mothers womb,
I came by thy behest,
Thou didst preserve me still in hope,
while I did suck her brest.
10 I was committed from my births
with thee to have abode :
Since I was in my mothers womb,
thou haft been ere my God.

The second part.

11 Then, Lord, depart not now from me
in this my present grief :
Since I have none to be my help,
my succour and relief.
12 So many bulls do compass me,
that be full strong of head :
Yea, bulls, so fat, as though they had in Bashan field been fed.

13 They gape upon me greedily,
as though they would me slay :
Much like a lion roaring out,
and ramping for his prey.
14 But I drop down like water shed,
my joys in sunder break :
My heart doth in my body melt,
like wax against the heat.

(strengths)
15 And like a potsher'd dri'ch my my tongue it cleaveth fast Unto my jaws, and I am brought to dust of death at last.
16 And many dogs do compass me,
and wicked counsell eke
Conspire against me cursedly,
they pierce my hands and feet.

17 I was tormented, so that I migh't all my bones have told;
Yet still upon me they do look,
and still they me behold.
18 My garments they divided eke
in parts among them all :
And for my coat they did cast lots,
to whom it migh't befall.

19 Therefore I pray thee be not far,
from me at my great need :
But rather, sith thou art my strength,
to help me, Lord, make speed. (son) 20 And from the sword, Lord, save my
by thy might, and thy power :
And keep my soul, thy darling dear,
from dogs that would devour.

21 And from the lions mouth, that me all in sunder shiver : (wou'd)
And from the horns of unicorns,
Lord, safely me deliver.
22 Then shall I to my brethren all thy majesty record :
And in thy church shal praise the Name
of thee the living Lord.

The third part.

- 23 All ye that fear him praise the Lord,
thou Jacob honour him :
And all ye seed of Israel,
with reverence worship him.
24 For he despiseth not the poor,
he turneth not away
His countenance when they do call,
but granteth to their cry.
- 25 Among the folk that fear the Lord,
I will therefore proclaim Thy praise, and keep thy promise made for letting forth thy Name.
26 The poor shall eat and be suffic'd,
and those that do endeavour
To seek the Lord shall praise his Name,
their hearts shall live for ever. (Lord.)
- 27 All souls of th' earth shall praise the
and turn to him for grace :
The heathen folk shall worship him
before his blessed face.
28 The kingdom of the heathen folk the Lord shall have therefore :
And he shall be their governour,
and King for evermore.
- 29 The rich men of their goodly gifts
shall feed and taste also :
And in his presence worship him,
and bow their knees full low.
30 And all that shall go down to dust,
of life by him shall taste :
My feed shall serve and praise the Lord,
while any world shall last.
- 31 My feed shall plainly shew to them
that shall be born hereafter,
His Justice and his righteousness,
and all his works of wonder.

Psal. XXIII. IV. W.

- THe Lord is only my support,
and he that doth me feed :
How can I then lack any thing,
whereof I stand in need ?
2 He doth me fold in cor's most safe,
the tender grasse fast by :
And after drives me to the streams
which run most pleasantly.
- 3 And when I feel my self neer lost,
then doth he me howe take :
Condukt me in his right paths,
even for his own Name sake.
4 And though I were even at death
yet would I fear none ill : (door)
For with thy rod and shepherds crook,
I am comforted still.

- 5 Thou hast my table richly dackt
in despite of my foe :
Thou hast my head with balm refresh't,
my cup doth overflow.
6 And finally, while breath doth last,
thy grace shall me defend :
And in the house of God will I
my life for ever spend.
Another of the Sins by T. S.
- MY shepherd is the living Lord,
nothing therefore I need :
In pastures fair with waters calm,
he sets me for to feed.
8 He did convert and glad my soul,
and brought my malde in rescue,

To walk in paths of rigionsonfaelnes ;
for his most holy Name.

- 3 Yes, though I walk in vale of deare,
yet will I fear none ill :
Thy rod, thy stikk do comfort me,
and thou art with me still.
4 And in the presence of my feare,
my table thou shall spread :
Thou shalt (O Lord) fill full my cup,
and eke smoint my head.

- 5 Through all my life thy favour is so frankly shew'd to me :
That in thy house for evermore,
my dwelling place shall be.

Psal. XXIII. J. H.

- THe earth is all the Lord's, with all her store and furniture :
Yes, his is all the world, and all that therein doth indure.
2 For he hath fastly founded it,
above the fess to stand :
And laid alow the liquid floods,
to flow beneath the land.
- 3 For who is he, O Lord, that shall ascend into thy hill,
Or passe into thy holy place,
there to continue still : (heart)
4 Wh're hands are harmlesse, and where no spot there doth defile :
His foul not set on vanity,
who hath not sworn to galle.

- 5 Him that is such a one, the Lord
shall place in blisfull plignt :
And God his God and Saviour
hall yeald to him his right.
6 This is the brood of travellers,
in seeking of his grace :
As Jacob did the Israelite,
in that time of his race.

- 7 Ye princes, ope your gates, stand ope
the everlasting gate :
For there shall enter in thereby
the King of glorious state.
8 Who is the King of glorious state ?
the strong and mighty Lord :
The mighty Lord in battell stout,
and trial of the sword.

- 9 Ye princes, ope your gates, stand ope
the everlasting gate :
For there shall enter in thereby
the King of glorious state.
10 Who is the King of glorious state ?
the Lord of hosts it is :
The kingdom and the royalty
of glorious state is his.

Psal. XXV. T. S.

- ILift my heart to thee,
my God and guide most just ;
Now fuffer me to take no shame,
for in thee do I trust.
2 Let not my foes rejoice,
nor make a scorn of me :
And let them not be overthrown,
that put their trust in thee.
- 3 But shame shall them befall,
which harm them wrongfully :
Therefore thy paths and thy right ways
unto me, Lord, desir.

- 6 Direct me in thy truth:
and teach me, I thee pray:
Thou art my God and Saviour,
on thee I wait alway.
- 7 Thy mercies manifold,
I pray thee, Lord remember:
And eke thy pity plentiful,
for they have been for ever.
- 8 Remember not the faults,
and frailty of my youth:
Remember not how ignorant
I have been of thy truth,
- Not after my deserts
let me thy mercy finde;
But of thine own benignity,
Lords have me in thy minds.
- 7 His mercy is full sweet,
his truth a perfect guide:
Therefore the Lord will sinners teach,
and such as go aside.
- 8 The humble he will reach
his precepts for to keep:
He will direct in all his wayes,
the lowly and the weak.
- 9 For all the wayes of God
are truth and mercy both:
To them that keep his testaments,
the witness of his troth.
- The second part.*
- 10 Now for thy holy Name,
O Lord, I thee intreat,
To grant me pardon for my sins
for it is wondrous great.
- 11 Who so dorth fear the Lord,
the Lord will him direct,
To lead his life in such a way
as he doth best accept.
- 12 His soul shall evermore
in goodness dwell and stand:
His seed and his posterity
inherit shall the land.
- 13 All those that fear the Lord,
know his secerit intent:
End unto them he doth declare his will and testament.
- 14 Mine eyes and eke my heart
to him I will advance:
That pluck my feet out of the snare
of sin and ignorance.
- 15 With mercy me behold,
to thee I make my moe:
For I am poor and desolate,
and comfortlesse alone.
- 16 The troubles of my heart,
are multiplid indeed:
Bring me out of this misery,
necessitie and need.
- 17 Behold my poverty,
mine anguish and my pain:
Remit my sin and mine offence,
and make me clean again.
- 18 O Lord, behold my foes,
how they do still increase:
Pursuing me with deadly hate,
that fain would live in peace.
- 19 Preserve and keep my soul,
and eke deliver me:

- And let me not be overthrown,
because I trust in thee.
- 20 Let my simple purenesse
me from mine enemies shend:
Because I look as one of thine,
that thou shouldest me defend.
- 21 Deliver, Lord, thy folk,
and send them some relief:
I mean thy chosen Israel,
from all their pain and grief.
- Psal. XXVI. T. S.*
- L Ord, be my Judge, and thou shalt see
my paths be right and plain:
I trust in God, and hope that he will strength me to remain.
- 2 Prove me, my God; I thee desire
my wayes to search and try:
As men do prove their gold with fire,
my reins and heart espie.
- 3 Thy goodness laid before my face,
I durst beheld alwayes:
For of thy truth I tread the trace,
and will do all my dayes.
- 4 I do not lust to haunt or use,
with men whose deeds are vaine:
To come in house I do refuse,
with the deceitfull train.
- 5 I much abhor the wicked sorte,
their deeds I do despise:
I do not once to them refornt,
that hurtfull things devise.
- 6 My hands I wash, and do proceed
in works to walk upright:
Then to thine altar I make speed,
to offer there in sight.
- 7 That I may speak & preach the psalms
that doth belong to thee:
And so declare how wondrous wayes
thou hast been good to me.
- 8 O God, thy house I love most deare
to me it doth excell:
I have delights and would be neare
whereas thy grace doth dwell.
- 9 O shut not up my soul with them,
in sin that take their fill:
Nor yet my life among those men,
that seek much blood to spill. (gullie)
- 10 Whose hands are heapt with craft and their lives thereof are full: (wills)
And their right hand with wrench and for bribes doth pluck and pull.
- 11 But I in righteousness intend
my time and dayes to serve:
Have mercy, Lord, and me defends,
so that I do not swerve:
- 12 My foot is staid for all assayes,
it standeth well and right:
Wherefore to God will I give praise
in all the peoples sight.
- Psal. XXVII. J. H.*
- T He Lord is both my health & light,
shall man make me dismayed?
Sith God doth give me strenght & might,
why should I be afraid? (strenght)
- 13 While that my foes with all their
begin with me to brawl:
And think to eat me up, at length themselves have caught the fall.
- 3 Though*

3 Though they lo camp against me lie,
my heart is not afraid :
In barteil pight if they will try,
I trust in God for aid.
4 One thing of God I do require,
that he would not deny :
For which I pray and will desire,
till he to me apply :

5 That I within his holy place
my life throughout may dwell :
To see the beauty of his face,
and view his temple well.
6 In time of dread he shall me hide,
within his place most pure :
And keep me secret by his side,
as on a rock most sure.

(grace)

7 At length I know the Lord's good shall make me strong and stout :
My foes to foil, and clean deface,
that compasse me about.
8 Therefore within his house will I,
give sacrifice of praise :
With psalms and songs I will apply
to laud the Lord alwayes.

The second part.

9 Lord, hear the voice of my request,
for which to thee I call :
Have mercy, Lord, on me oppress,
and send me help withall.
10 My heart doth knowledge unto thee,
I sue to have thy grace :
Then seek my face, faulst thou to me ;
Lord, I will seek thy face.

11 In wrath turn not thy face away,
nor suffer me to slide :
Thou art my help still to this day,
be still my God and guide.
12 My parents both their son forsook,
and cast me off at large :
And then the Lord himself yet took
of me the care and charge.

13 Teach me, O Lord, the way to thee,
and lead me on forth right :
For fear of such as watch for me,
to trap me, if they might.
14 Do not betake me to the will
of them that be my foes :
For they surmisse against me ill,
false witness to depose.

15 My heart would faint, but that in me
this hope is fixed fast :
The Lord Gods good grace shall I see in life that ay shall last. (art.) 15 Trust still in God, whose whole thou his wil abide thou must :
And he shall ease and strength thy heart,
if thou in him do trust.

Psal. XXVIII. T. S.

Thou art (O Lord) my strength & stay,
the succour which I crave :
Neglect me not, left I be like
to them that go to grave.
2 The voice of thy suppliant bear,
that unto thee doth cry :
Wher, lift up my hands unto thy holy ark most high.

3 Repute me not among the sort of wicked and geryent,

That speak right fair unto their friends,
but think full ill in heart.
4 According to their handy-works,
as they deserve indeed :
And after their inventions
let them receive their meed.

5 For they regard nothing Gods works,
his lawe yet his lore :
Therefore will he them and their seed destroy for evermore.
6 To render thanks unto the Lord,
how great a cause have I,
My voices my prayer, and my complaint
that heard so willingly I

7 He is my shield and fortitude,
my buckler in distresse :
My hope, my help, my hearts relief,
my song shall him confess.
8 He is our strength and our defence,
our enemies to resist :
The health and the salvation
of his elect by Christ.

9 Thy people and thine heritage,
Lord, blesse,guide, and preferre :
Increase them, Lord, & rule their hearts,
that they may never swerve.

Psal. XXIX. T. S.

Give to the Lord, ye potentes,
ye rulers of the world :
Give ye all praise, honour, and strength
unto the living Lord.
2 Give glory to his holy Names,
and honour him alone :
Worship him in his Majesty,
within his holy throne.

3 His voice doth rule the waters all even as himself doth please :
He doth prepare the thunder-claps,
and governs all the seas.
4 The voice of God is of great forces,
and wondrous excellent :
It is most mighty in effect,
and most magnificent.

5 The voice of God doth rend and break
the cedar-trees so long :
The cedar-trees of Lebanon,
which are most high and strong :
6 And makes them leap like as a calf,
or else the unicorn :
Not only trees, but mountains great,
whereon the trees are born.

7 His voice divides the flames of fire,]
and shakes the wilderness :
8 It makes the desert quake for fear,
that called is Cedars.
9 It makes the hinde for fear to calve,
and makes f covert plain :
Then in his temple every man
his glory doth proclaim.

10 The Lord was set above the floods,
ruling the raging sea :
So shall he reign as Lord and King,
for ever and for ay. (power) 11 The Lord will give his people
in verue to increase :
The Lord will blesse his chosen flock
with everlasting peace.

Psal.

Psal. XXX. J. M.

A ll laud and praise with heart and
O Lord, I give to thee : (voice,
which didst not make my foes rejoice,
but hast exalted me.

B O Lord my God, to thee I cri'd
in all my pain and grief:
Thou gav'st an eas', and didst provide
to ease me with relief.

S Of thy good will thou hast cal'd back my soul from hell to save : (lack,
Thou didst revive when strength did
and keptst me from the grave.

4 Sing praises ye saints that prove & see
the goodness of the Lord:
In memory of his Majesty
rejoice with one accord.

5 For why ? his anger but a space
doth last, and slack again:
But in his favour and his grace always doth life remain. (fore Though gripes of grief and pangs fall
small lodge with us all night:
The Lord to joy shall us restore
before the day be light.

6 When I enjoy'd the world at will,
thus would I boast and say,
Truth, I am sure to feel none ill,
this wealth shall not decay.

7 For thou, O Lord, of thy good grace
hadst sent me strength and aid:
But when thou turn'dst away thy face,
my minde was sore dismait.

8 Wherefore again yet did I cry
to thee, O Lord of might:
My God with plaints I did apply,
and pray'd both day and night.

9 What gain is in my blood (said I)
if dear destroy my dayes ?
Both dust declare thy Majesty,
or yet thy truth doth praise ?

10 Wherefore, my God, some pity take,
O Lord, I thee desire:
Do not this simple soul for sake,
of help I thee require.

11 Then didst thou turn my grief & wo
into a chearfull voice : (fre,
The mourning weed thou took'st me
and mad'lt me to rejoice.

12 Wherefore my soul astantly
shall sing unto thy praise:
My Lord, my God, to thee will I give laud and thanks alwayes.

Psal. XXXI. J. H.

O Lord, I put my trust in thee,
let nothing work me shame:
As thou art just, deliver me,
and set me quite from blame.

13 Hear me, O Lord, and that soon,
to help me make good speed:
Be thou my rock and house of stone,
my fence in time of need.

14 For why ? as stones thy strength is thou art my fort and tower:
For thy Name sake be thou my guide,
and lead me in thy power.

4 Pluck thou my feet out of the fass'ns
which they for me have laid:
Thou art my strength, and all my crea-
ls is for thy might and aid.

5 Into thy hands, Lord, I commit
my spir't which is thy due:
For why ? thou hast redeemed its
O Lord, my God, most true.

6 I hate such foll'ys as will not part
frem things to be abhor'd:
When they on critics set their hearts,
my trust is in the Lord.

7 For I will in thy mercy joy,
I see it doth excell:
Thou feest - ha ought would me snap,
and knowest my foul full well.
8 Thou hast not left me in their hands,
that would me over-charge:
But thou hast set me out of bands,
to walk abroad at large.

The second part.

9 Great grief, O Lord, doth me assaile,
some pity on me take:
Mine eyes wax dim, my sight doth fail,
my womb for wo doth ake.
10 My lif's wra with grief and pain,
my yeers in we are past:
My strength is gone, & through disdaine
my bones corrupt and waste.

11 Among my foes I am a scorne,
my friends are all dismait:
My neighbours and my kinsmen born,
to see me are afraid.
12 As men once dead are out of minde,
so am I now forgot:
As small effect in me they findes
as in a broken pot.

13 I heard the brags of all the rount,
their threats my minde did fray :
How they confir'd, and went about
to take my life away.
14 But, Lord, I trust in thee for aid,
not to be over-tred:
For I confess and still have said,
thou art my Lord and God.

15 The length of all my life and age,
O Lord, is in thy hand:
Defend me from the wrath and rage
of them that me withstand.

16 To me thy servant (Lord) exprest,
and shew thy joyfull face:
And save me, Lord, for thy goodness,
thy mercy and thy grace.

The third part.

17 Lord, let me not be put to blame,
for that on thee I call:
But let the wicked bear the shame,
and into their grave fall. (right)

18 O Lord, make dumb their lips out-
which are addit to lies:
And cruelly with pride and spight
against the just devise.

19 O how great good hast thou in store,
laid up fullsafe for them
That fear and trust in thee therefore,
before the sones of men ! (guide
so Thy presence shall them fence and from all proud brags and wrongs :

Whiles

Within thy place thou shalt them hide
From all the strife of tongues.
31 Thanks to the Lord that hath de-
on me his grace so far, (zir'd
Me to defend with watch and ward,
as in a town of war.
32 Thus did I say both day and night,
when I was sore opprest:
Lo, I was clean cast out of sight;
yet heardst thou my request.

33 Ye faint, love ye the Lord, I say,
the faithfull he doth guide:
And to the proud he doth reare
accepting to their pride. (hearts, 34 Be strong, and God will stay your
be bold and have a lust:
For sure the Lord will take your parts,
fith ye in him do trust.

Psal. XXXII. T. S.
THe man is blest whose wickednesse
the Lord hath clean remittid:
And he whose sin and wickednesse
is hid and also covered.
2 And blest is he to whom the Lord
imputeth not his sin:
Which in his heart hath hid no guile,
nor fraud is found thereina.

2 For whilst that I kept close my sin
in silence and constraint:
My bones did weare and waste away
with daily moane and plaint.
4 For night and day thy hand on me
so grievous was and smot:
That all my blood and humours moise,
to driness did convert.

5 I did therefore confesse my faults,
and all my sins discover,
Then thou, O Lord, didst me forgive,
and all my sins passe over.

6 The humble man shall pray therefore,
and seek thee in due time:
So that the floods of waters great
shall have no power on him.

7 When trouble and adversity
do compass me about:
Thou art my refuge and my joy,
and thou dost rid me out.
8 Come hither, and I will thee teach,
how thou shalt walk aright:
I will thee guides as I my self
have learn'd by proof and fight.

9 Be not so rude and ignorant
as is the horse and mule's Whose mouth without a rein or bire
from harm thou canst not rule.
10 The wicked man shall manifold forrows and griefs sustaine:
But unto him that trusts in God,
his goodness shall remain.

11 Be merry therefore in the Lord,
ye just lift up your voice:
And ye of pure and perfect heart,
be glad and eke rejoice.

Psal. XXXIII. J. H.
VE righteous, in the Lord rejoice,
it is a seemly sight,
That eke men with thankfull voice
Should praise the Lord of might.

2 Praise ye the Lord with harp & song,
in psalmes and pleasant things:
With lute and instrument among,
that soundeth with ten strings.

3 Sing to the Lord a song most new,
with courage give him praise:
4 For why? his word is ever true,
his works and all his wayes.
5 To judgement, equity and right,
he hath a great good will:
And with his gifts he doth delight
the earth throughout to fill.

6 For by the word of God alone
the heavens all were wrought:
Their hosts and powers every one
his breath to passe hath brought.
7 The waters great gathered hath he
on heaps within the shore:
And hid them in the depth to be,
as in a house of store.

8 All men on earth both least and most,
fear God and keep his law:
Ye that inhabit in such cost,
dear I him and stand in awe.
9 What he commanded, wrought it was at once with present speed:
What he doth will, is brought to passe
with full effect indeed.

10 The counsells of the nations rule
the Lord doth bring to nought:
He doth defeat the multitude of their device and thought.
11 But his decrees continue still,
they never slack nor swage:
The motions of his minde and will take place in every age.

The second part.

12 And blest are they to whom the Lord
as God and guide is known:
Whom he doth chuse of meet accord,
to take them as his own.
13 The Lord from heaven cut his fight
on men mortall by birth:
14 Considering from his seat of might
the dwellers of the earth.

(wroght)
15 The Lord, I say, whose hand hath mans heart, and doth it frame:
For he alone doth know the thoughts
and working of the same.
16 A king that truteth in his host,
shall nought prevail at length:
The man that of his might doth boast,
shall fall for all his strength.

17 The troops of horsemen eke shall fall,
their sturdy steeds shall sterre:
The strength of horse shall not prevail
the rider to preserve.
18 But lo, the eyes of God intend,
and watch to aid the just:
With such as fear him to offend,
and on his goodness trust.

19 That he of death and great distresse
may set their souls from dread:
And if that dearth their land oppresse,
in hunger them to feed. (pend) 20 Wherefore our soul doth whole de-
on God our strength and stay:

He is our shield us to defends,
and drive all darts away.

21 Our soul in God hath joy and game, rejoicing in his might;
For why? in his most holy Name
we hope and much delight.

22 Therefore let thy goodness, O Lord,
still present with us be:
As we alwayes with one accord,
do only trust in thee.

Psal. XXXIX. T. S.

I Will give land and honour both
unto the Lord alwayes:
And eke my mouth for evermore
shall speak unto his praise.
I do delight to laud the Lord
in souls and eke in voice:
That humble men and mortif'd
may hear, and so rejoice.

3 Therefore see that ye magnifie
with me the living Lord:
And let us now exalt his Name
together with one accord.
4 For I my self before the Lord,
he answered me again:
And me deliver'd incontinent,
from all my fear and pain.

5 Who so they be that him behold,
shall see his light most clear,
Their countenance shall not be dimpt,
that need it not to fear.
6 This filly wrench for some relief
unto the Lord did call:
Who did him hear without delay,
and rid him out of thrall.

7 The angel of the Lord doth pitch
his tems in every place:
To save all such as fear the Lord,
that nothing them deface.
8 Taste and consider well therefore,
that God is good and just:
O happy man that maketh him
his only stay and trust.

9 Fear ye the Lord, ye holy ones,
above all earthly thing:
For they that fear the living Lord,
are sure to lack nothing.
10 The lions shall be hunger-bit
and pin'd wth famine much:
But as for them that fear the Lord,
no lack shall be to such.

The second part. (dear,

21 Come near therefore, my children
and to my words give ear:
I shall you teach the perfect way,
how ye the Lord should fear.
22 Who is the man that would live long,
and lead a blessed life?
23 See thou refrain thy tongue and lips
from all deceir and strife.

24 Turn back thy face from doing ill,
and do the godly deed:
Inquire for peace and quietnesse,
and follow it with speed.
25 For why? the eyes of God above,
upon the just are bent:
Elsewhere likewise do hear the plaus
of the poor innocent.

15 But he doth frown & bend his brows
upon the wicked train:
And cuts away the memory
that should of them remain.
17 But when the just do call and cry,
the Lord doth hear them so,
That out of pain and misery
forthwith he lets them go.

(hence) 18 The Lord is kinde and straignt at,
so such as be contrite:
He saves also the sorrowfull,
the poor and weake in sprite.
19 Full many be the miseries,
that righteous men do suffers:
But out of all adversities
the Lord doth them deliver.

20 The Lord doth so preserve and keepe
their very bones alway,
That not so much as one of them
doth perish or decay.
21 The sin shall slay the wicked man,
which he himself hath wrought:
And such as hate the righteous man,
shall soon be brought to nougat.

22 But they that fear the living Lord,
the Lord doth save them sound:
And who that put their trust in him,
nothing shall them confound.

Psal. XXXIX. T. H.
L Ordred against my cause against my foes,
confound their force and might:
Fight on my part against all tactic
that seek with me to fight.
2 Lay hand upon the spear and shields,
thy self in armour dresse:
Stand up for me and fight the field,
to help me from distresse.

3 Gird on thy sword, and stop the wsys
mine enemies to withstand:
That thou unto my foul miste say,
Lo, I thy help at hand.
4 Confound them with rebuke & blame
that seek my soul to syll:
Let them turn back and flee with shame,
that think to work me ill.

5 Let them disperse and flee abroad,
as winde doth drive the dust:
And that the angel of our God
their might away may thrust.
6 Let all their wyes be void of light,
and slippery like to fall:
And send thine angel with thy might,
to persecute them all.

7 For why? without my fault they have in secret for their grise
And for no cause have dig'd a cage
to take my soul therin. (care)
8 When they think least, and have no
O Lord, destroy them all:
Let them be trap in their own snare,
and in their mischief fall.

9 And let my soul with heart and voice,
in God have joy and wealth:
That in the Lord I may rejoice,
and in his faving health. (say) 10 And then my bones shall speak and my parts shall all agree:
O Lord,

O Lord, though they do seem full gay,
what one is like to thee?

The second part. (them)

11 They doft defend the weak from that are both stout and strong:
And rid the poor from wicked men,
that spoil and do them wrong.
12 My cruel foes against me rises,
to witneſſe things untrue,
And to accuse me they devise,
of things I never knew.

13 Where I to them did ow good will,
they quit me with disdain:
That they ſhould pay my good with ill,
my ſoul doth fore complain.
14 When they were ſick I moan'd there-
and clad my ſelf in ſack: (fore,
With ſelling I did faint fall fore,
so pray I was not ſick.

15 As they had been my brethren dear,
I did my ſelf believe:
As one that walketh wofull chear
about his mother's grave.
16 But they at my difease did joy,
and gather in a rout:
Sea, ſobjet slaves at me did toy,
with mocks and checks fall front.

17 The belly-gods and fluttering train
that all good things deride,
At me do grin with great disdain,
and pluck their mouthes aside.
18 Lord, why viſit thou ſo long ferbeare,
why doſt thou ſtay and pouſe?
O rid my ſoul, mine only deare,
out of these lions claws.

19 And then will I give thanks to thee,
before the church alwayes:
And where moſt of the people be,
there will I ſhow thy praise.
20 Let not my foes prevail on me,
which hate me for no fault:
Nor let them wink or turn their eye,
that cauſeſſe me auſſault.

The third part.

21 Of peace no word they think or ſay,
their talk is all untrue:
They ſtill conſult, and would betray
all thoſe that peace enſue.
22 With open mouth they run at me,
they gape, they laugh, they fleer:
Well, well, fay they, our eye doth ſee
the thing that we deſire.

(take,

23 But, Lord, thou ſeest what wayes they
cauſe not my griefs to meadow:
Be not far off, nor me forſake,
24 men that fail their friend.
24 Awake, arife, and stir abroad,
defend me in my right:
Revenge my cauſe, my Lord, my God,
and aid me with thy might.

25 According to thy righteousneſſe,
my Lord God ſet me free:
And let them not their pride expreſſe,
nor triumph over me.

26 Let not their hearts rejoice and cry,
There, there, all goeth trim:
Nor give them cauſe to ſay on high,
we have our will on him.

27 Confound them with rebuke ſtrange;
that joy when I do mourn:
And pay them home with ſpite & blame,
that brag at me with ſcorn.
28 Let them be glad, and eke rejoice,
which love mine upright way:
And they all times with heart and voice,
shall praife the Lord, and ſay,

29 Great is the Lord, and doth excell,
for why? he doth delight
To ſee his ſervants proſper well,
that is his pleaſant night.
30 Wherefore my tongue I will apply,
thy righteousneſſe to praife:
Unto the Lord my God will I sing laud and praife alwayes.

Psal. XXXVI. 7. H.

T We wicked with his workes unjift,
doth thus perwade his neareſt,
That of the Lord he hath no truſt,
his fear is ſet apart.

2 Yet doth he joy in his estate,
to walk as he began:
So long till he deserve the hate
of God, and eke of man.

3 His words are wicked, vile, & naughty,
his tongue no truth doth tolde:
Yet at no hand will he be taught which way he may do well. (muse 4 When he ſhoulde ſleep, when doth he his miſchiefs to fulfill:
No wicked wayes doth he refufe,
nor nothing that is ill.

5 But, Lord, thy goodneſſe doth aſcend
above the heavens high:
So doth thy truth it ſelf extend unto the cloudy ſkies. (ſleeps 6 Much more then hills so high and thy justice is expreſſe:
Thy judgemente like to ſeaſt moſt deep,
thou ſayſt both man and beſt.

7 Thy mercy is above all things,
O God, it doth excell:
In truſt whereof as in thy wings,
the ſons of men ſhall dwell.
8 Within thy house they ſhall be fed,
with plenty at their will;
Of all delights they ſhall be ſped,
and take thereof their fill.

9 For why? the well of life ſo pure
doth ever flow from thee:
And in thy light we are full ſure
the laſting light to fee.
10 From ſuch as thee deſire to know,
let not thy grace depart:
Thy righteousneſſe declare and ſew
to men of upright heart.

11 Let not the proud on me prevale,
O Lord, of thy good grace:
Nor let the wicked me defail,
to throw me out of place.
12 But they in their device ſhall falls
that wicked works maintain:
They ſhall be overthrown withal,
and never rise again.

Psal. XXXVII. W. W.

G Judge not to ſee the wicked men,
in wealth to flouriſh full:

Noz

- Not yet envie such as to ill
have bent and set their will.
8 For as green grassie and flourishing
are cut, and wither away : (herbs,
So shall their great prosperity
soon passe, fade, and decay.
- 9 True thou therefore in God alone,
to do well give thy minde :
10 Thine thou have the land as thines,
and there sure foot shall finde.
11 In God for all thy hearts delights,
and look what thou wouldest have,
12 Or else cant with in all the world,
the a need it is not to crave.
- 13 Cast both thy self and thine affaires,
on God with perfect trust :
And thou shalt see with patience,
thine both sure and just.
14 Thy perfect life and godly name,
will clear as the light :
15 So that the sunne even at noon day,
shall not shine half so bright.
- 16 Be still therefore, and faithfully
on God see thou wait then :
Nor thinking for the prosperous state
of lewd and wicked men.
17 Shake off despite envie and hate,
at least in thy wife :
Their wicked works avoid and flee,
and follow not their guise.
- 18 For every wicked man will God
destroy both more and lesse :
But such as trust in him, are sure
the land for to possesse.
19 Watch but a while, and thou shalt see
no more the wicked train :
Nor not so much as house or place
where once he did remain.
- The second part.*
- 20 But mercifull and humble men
enjoy shall sea and land :
In rest and peace they shall rejoice,
for nought shall them withstand.
21 The lewd men and malicious,
against the just conspire :
They gnash their teeth at him, as men
which do his base desire.
- 22 But while that lewd men thus do
the Lord laughs them to scorn :
For why? he fees the tempest approach,
when they shal sigh & mourn. (drawn,
- 23 The wicked have their swords out,
their howecke have they bent :
To overthrow and kill the poor,
as they the right way went.
- (heart,
24 But the same sword shall pierce their
which was to kill the just :
Likewise the bows shall break to shivers
wherein they put their trust.
25 Doubtless the just mans poor estate
is better a great deal more,
Then all these lewd and wicked mens rich pomp and heaped store.
- 26 For be their power never so strong,
God will it overthrow :
Where contrary he doth preferre
the humble men and low.
- 18 He fees by his great providence,
the good mens trade and way :
And will give them inheritance,
which never shall decay.
- 19 They shall not be disengaged,
when some are hard bofhead :
When others shall be hunger-bits,
they shall be clad and fed.
20 For whoevel wicked is,
and enemy to the Lord : (greves
Shall quail yea, melt even as lambs 62 flocks that flies abroad.
- The third part.*
- 21 Behold, the wicked borrows much,
and never pays again :
Wheresoe the gift by liberal gifts,
makes many glad and faire. (haves 22 For they whom God doth blesse, shall
the land for heritage :
And they whom he doth curse, likewise
shali perire in his rage. (guides
- 23 The Lord the just mans wayes doth
and great his good success :
To everything he takes in hand,
he sondeth good addresse.
24 Though that he fail, yet is he sure
not utterly to quail :
Because the Lord puts out his hands,
at need, and doth not fail.
- 25 I have been young, and now am old,
yet did I never fee
The just man left, nor yet his feed
to beg for misery ;
26 But gives alwayes most liberally,
and lends whereas is need :
His children and posterity
receive of God their meed.
- 27 Flee vice therefore and wickednes,
and vertue do embrace :
28 God shall graze thee long to have
on earth a dwelling place.
29 For God so loveth equity,
and shewes to his such grace :
That he preserveth them alway,
but stroys the wicked race.
- 30 Whereas the good and godly men
inherit shall the land,
Having as lords all things therein
in their own power and hand.
31 The just mans mouth doth ever speake
of matters wise and hie :
His tongue doth talk to edifie,
with truth and equity.
32 For in his heart the law of God
his Lord doth still abide :
So that where ever he goes or walks,
his foot can never slide.
33 The wicked like a ravening worm,
the just man doth beset :
By all means seeking him to kill,
if he fall in his net.
- The fourth part.*
- 34 Though he shoulde fall into his bandes,
yet God would succour send :
Though men against him sentence gives,
God would him yet defend.
35 Wait thou on God and keep his way,
he shall preserve thee then :

The earth to rule, and thou shalt see
defred' d these wicked men.

25 The wicked have I seen most strong:
and plac'd in high degree:
flourishing in all wealth and stores
as doth the laurell-tree.

26 But suddenly he past away;
and lo, he was quite gone:
Then I him sought, but could not finde
the place where dwelt such one.

27 Mark and behold the perfect man,
how God doth him increas:
For the just man shall have at length
great joy with rest and peace.
28 As for transgrefours, wo to them,
dread' d they shall all be:
God will cut off their budding race,
and rich posterity.

29 But the salvation of the just doth come from God above:
Who in their trouble sends ther aid
of his mere grace and love.
30 God doth them help, save & deliver
from lewd men and unjust:
And still will save them, whilst that they
in him do put their trust.

Psal. XXXVIII. J. H.
Put me not to rebuke, O Lord,
in thy provoked ire:
Be in thy hearie wrath, O Lord,
correct me I desire.
2 Thine arrows do stick fast in me,
thy hand doth presse me sore:
And in my flesh no health at all appeareth any more.

3 And all this is by reason of thy wrath that I am in:
Nor any rest is in my bones,
by reason of my sin.
4 For lo, my wicked doings (Lord)
above my head are gone:
& greater load then I can bear,
they lie me sore upon.

5 My wounds stink and are festered so,
as lothsome is to see:
Which all through mine own foolishnes
betideth unto me.
6 And I in carefull wise am brought
In trouble and distresse,
That I go wailing all the day
in dolefull hevinesse.

7 My loins are fill'd with sore disease,
my flesh hath no whole part:
8 I feele am and broken sore,
I roar for grief of heart. (groans) 9 Thou know' st (Lord) my desire, my are open in thy sight: (deth fails, 10 My heart doth pant, my strength
mine eyes have lost their light.

11 My lovers and my wonted friends
Stand looking on my wo:
And eke my kinfmen far away
are me departed fro. (squares) 12 They that did seek my life, laid and they that fought the way To do me hurt, spake lies, and thought on mischiefe all the day.

The second part:

13 But as a deaf man I became,
that cannot hear at all:
14 And as one dumb, that opens not
his mouth to speak withal:
15 For all my confidence, O Lord,
is wholly set on thee:
O Lord, thou Lord, that art my God,
thou shalt give ear to me.

16 This did I crave, that they my foes triumph not over me.
For when my foot did slip, then they did joy my fail to see.
17 And truly I poor wretch am set
in places a wofull sight,
And eke my grievous hevinesse
is ever in my sight.

18 For while that I my wickedness
in humble confess:
Am I while I for my sinful deedes
my sorrows do expresse.
19 My foes do still remain alive,
and mighty are also:
And they that hate me wrongfully,
in number hugely grow.

20 They stand against me, that my gods
with evil do repay:
Because that good and honest things
I do ensue alway.
21 Forsake me not, O Lord my God,
be thou not far away:
22 Befie me to help, my Lord, my God,
my safety and my stay.

Psal. XXXIX. J. H.

I Said I will leek to my wayes,
for fear I should go v: wrong:
I will take heed all times that I offend not with my tongue.
2 As with a bit I will keep fast
my mouth with force and might:
Net once to whisper all the while
the wicked are in sight.

3 I held my tongue and spake no words,
but kept me close and still:
Yet, from good talk I did refrain,
but sore against my will.
4 My heart waxt hot within my brests
with musing, thoughts, and doubts:
Which did increase and stir the fires,
at last these words burst out.

5 Lord, number out my life and dayes
which yet I have not past,
So that I may be certifi'd,
how long my life shall last.
6 Lord, thou hast pointed out my life
in length much like a span:
Mine age is nothing unto thee,
so vain is every man.

7 Man walketh like a shade, and doth
in vain himself annoy:
In getting goods, and cannot tell
who shall the same enjoy. (frames)
8 Now, Lord, sith things this wife do what help do I desire?
Of truth my help doth hang on thee,
I nothing else require.

The second part.

9 From all the sins that I have done,
Lord, quit me out of hand:
And make me not a scorn to fools
that nothing understand.
10 I was as dumb, and to complain
no trouble might me move:
Because I knew it was thy work
my patience for to prove.
(plague,

11 Lord, take from me thy scourge and I can them not withstand:
I faint, and pine away for fear
of thy ~~me~~ heavy hand.
12 When thou for sin dost man rebuke,
he waxeth we and wan:
As doth a cloth that moths have fret,
so vain a thing is man.

(Heads,

13 Lord, hear my suit and give good
regard my tears that fall:
I sojourn like a stranger here,
as did my fathers all.
14 O spare a little, give me space
my strength for to restore:
Before I go away from hence
and shall be seen no more.

Psal. XL. f. H.

I Waited long and sought the Lord,
and patiently did bear:
At length to me he did accord,
my voice and cry to hear.
2 He pluckt me from the lake so deep,
out of the mire and clay:
And on a rock he set my feet,
and he did guide my way.
3 To me he taught a psalm of praise,
which I must shew abroad:
And sing new songs of thanks always unto the Lord our God. (See,

4 When all the folk these things shall
as people much afraid:
Then they unto the Lord will flee,
and trust upon his aid.

5 O blest is he whose hope and heart
doth in the Lord remain:
That with the proud, doth take no part,
nor such as lie and faint. (See

6 For Lord my God, thy wondrous
in greatness far do passe:
Thy favour towards us exceedeth
all things that ever was.

7 When I intend and do devise thy works abroad to show,
To such a reckoning they do rise,
thereof no end I know.

8 Burnt-offerings thou delight'st not in:
I know thy whole desire:
With sacrifice to purge his sin,
thou dost no man require.

9 Meats-offerings and sacrifice
thou would'st not have at all;
But thou (O Lord) hast open made
mine ears to hear without fail.

10 But then said I: Behold and look,
I come a mean to be:
For in the volume of thy book
thus is it said of me,

11 That I (O God) should do thy mind,
which thing doth like me well;

For in my heart thy law I finde,
fast placed there to dwell.

12 Thy justice and thy righteousness
in great report I tell:
Behold, my tongue no time doth cease,
O Lord, thou know'st full well.

The second part.

13 I have not hid within my brest
thy goodness as by stealth:
But I declare and have express't
thy truth and saving health.
14 I kept not close thy loving mindes,
that no man shoul'd it know:
The trust that in thy truth I finde,
to all the church I shew.

15 Thy tender mercy (Lord) from me
withdraw not thou away:
But let thy love and verity
preserve me still for ay.

16 For I with mischiefs many a one am sore beset about:
My sins increase, and so come on,
I cannot spie them out.

17 For why? in number they exceed the hairs upon my head:
My heart doth faint for very dread,
that I am almost dead.

18 With speed send help & set me free:
O Lord, I thee require:
Make haste with aid to succour me,
O Lord, at my desire.

19 Let them sustain rebuke and shame,
that seek my soul to spil:
Drive back my foes, and them desmest:
that will and would me ill.
20 For their ill feats do them desery,
that would deface my name:
Always at me they rail and cry,
Fie on him, fie for shame.

21 Let them in thee have joy & wealth
that seek to thee always:
That those that love thy saving health,
may say, To God be praise.
22 But as for me, I am but poor,
opprest and brought full low:
Yet thou, O Lord, wilt me restore to healthful well I know.

(trust,

23 For why? thou art my hope and
my refuge, help and stay:
Wherefore, my God, as thou art just,
with me no time delay.

Psal. XLJ. T. 5.

T He man is blest that carefull is
the needy to consider:
For in the season perillous
the Lord will him deliver.

2 The Lord will make him safe and
and happy in the land: (sound),
And he will not deliver him
into his enemies hand.

3 And in his bed when he lies sick,
the Lord will him restore:
And thou, O Lord, wilt turn to health
his sicknesse, and his sore.

4 Then in my sicknesse thus said I,
have mercy, Lord, on me:
And heal my soul, which is full wo,
that I offended thee.

15 Mine

5 Mine enemies wifht me ill in heart,
and thus of me did say,
When shall he die, that all his name,
may vanish quite away?
6 And when they come to visit me,
they ask if I do well:
But in their hearts mischief they hatch,
and to their mates it tell.

7 They bite their lips, and whisper so,
as though they would me charm:
And cast their fetches how to trap
me with some deadly harm.
8 Some grievous sin hath brought him
this sickness, say they plain:
He is so low, that without doubt rise can he not again.

9 The man also that I did trust,
with me did use deceit:
Who at my table eat my breads,
the same for me laid wait.
10 Have mercy, Lord, on me therefore
and let me be preserv'd:
That I may render unto them
the things they have deserv'd.

11 By this I knew assuredly
to be belov'd of thee,
When that mine enemies have no cause
to triumph over me.
12 But in my right thou hast me kept,
and maintained alway:
And in thy presence place assign'd
where I shall dwell for ay.

13 The Lord, the God of Israel
be praised evermore:
Even so be it (Lord) will I say,
ever feit it therefore.

Psal. XLII. f. H.
Like as the hart doth breathe & Bray,
the well-springs to obtain;
So doth my foul desire always,
with thee, Lord, to remain. (neer
2 My foul doth thirst, and would draw
the living God of might:
O when shall I come and appear
in presence of his sight?

3 The tears all times are my repasts,
which from mine eyes do slide:
When wicked men cry out so fast,
Where now is God thy guide?
4 Alas, what grief is it to think what freedom once I had?
Therefore my soul, as at pits brink,
most heaviest is and sad.

When I did march in good array,
furnished with my train:
Unto the temple was our way,
with songs and hearts most faint.
5 My foul, why art thou sad always,
and frettest thus in my brest?
Trust still in God, for him to praise
I hold it ever best.

By him I have succour at need,
against all pain and grief:
He is my God which with all speed
will haste to send relief.
6 And thus my soul within me, Lord,
doth faint to think upon

The land of Jordan, and record
the littlehill Hermon.

The second part.

7 One grief another in doth call
as clouds burst out their voices
The floods of evil that do fall,
run over me with noise.
8 Yet I by day felt his goodness,
and help at all assayes:
Likewise by night I did not cease
the living God to praise.

9 I am perswaded thus to say
to him with pure pretence,
O Lord, thou art my guide and stay,
my rock and sure defence.
Why do I then in pensiveness,
hanging the head thus walk,
While that mine enemies me oppresse,
and vex me with their talk?

(parte
10 For why? they pierce my inward
with pangs to be abhorred:
When they cry out with stubborn hearts,
Where is thy God, thy Lord?
11 So soon why dost thou faint & quail,
my foul with pain opprest?
With thoughts why dost thy self afflai,
so sore within my brest?

12 Trust in the Lord thy God always,
and thou the time shal see:
To give him thanks with laud & praise,
for health refer'd to thee.

Psal. XLIII. T. 5.
Judge and revenge my curse, O Lord,
from them that evil be:
From wicked and deceitfull men,
O Lord, deliver me.
2 For of thy strength thou art the God,
why put'st thou me thoe fro?
And why walk I so heavily
opprest with my fo?

3 Send out thy light, and eke thy truth:
and lead me with thy grace:
Which way conduet me to thy hills,
and to thy dwelling place.
4 Then shall I to the altar go
of God my joy and chear:
And on my harp give thanks to thees,
O God, my God most dear.

5 Why art thou then so sad my soul,
and frettest thus in my brest?
Still trust in God, for him to praise
I hold it alwayes best.
6 By him I have deliverance
against all pain and grief:
He is my God, which doth alwayes
at need send me relief.

Psal. XLIV. T. 5.
Our ears have heard our fathers telli
and reverently record (done
The wondrous works that thou hast
in alder time, O Lord.
2 How thou didst cast the Gentiles out,
and strow'dst them with strong hands
Planting our fathers in their place,
and gav'st to them their land.

(strength,
3 They conquered not by sword nor
the land of thy behest:

because thou lov'st them best.
4 Thou art my king, O God, that holp Jacob in sundry wife: (such 3 Led with thy power, we threw down
as did against us rise.

6 I trusted not in bowe nor sword,
they could not save me sound:
7 Thou kept'st us fro our enemies rage,
thou didst our foes confound.
8 And still we boast of thee our God,
and praise thy holy Name:
9 Yet now thou go'st not with our host,
but leavest us to shame.

10 Thou mad'st us flee before our foes,
and so were over-trod: (goods
Our enemies rob'd and spoil'd our 11 Thou hast us given to our foes,

as sheep for to be slain:
12 Amongst the heathen every where scatt'red we do remain.

and as a thing of nought:
For profit none thou hadst thereby,
no gain at all was fought. (made 13 And to our neighbours thou hast
of us a laughing stock:
And these that round about us dwell,
at us do grin and mock.

The secunda pars.

14 Thus we serve for none other use,
but for a common talk: (heads,
They mock, they scorn; they nod their 15 I am sham'd continually

to hear these wicked men:
Tea, so I blush; that all my face
with red is covered then.

16 For why? we hear such flanderous
such false reports and lies:
That death it is to see their wrongs,
their threatenings and their cries.
17 For all this we forgot not thee,
nor yet the covenant brake: (thee, 18 We turn not back our hearts from nor yet thy paths forsake.

19 Ver thou hast trod us down to dust,
where dens of dragons be:
And covered us with shade of death,
and great adversity.
20 If we had our Gods name forgot,
and help of idols sought, (out 21 Would not God then have tri'd this for he doth know our thought.

22 Nay, nay, for thy Name sake, O Lord, always are we slain thus:
As sleep unto the shambles sent,
right so they deal with us.
23 Help, Lord, why sleepest thou awake,
and leave us not for all?
24 Why hiddest thou thy countenance,
and dost forget our thrall?

25 For down rodust our soul is brought,
and we now at last cast:
Our belly like as it were glu'd,
smote the ground cleaves fast.

25 Rise up therefore for our defence,
and help us (Lord) at need:
We thee beseech for thy goodness,
to rescue us with speed.

Psal. XLV. J. H.
M Y heart doth take in hand,
some godly song to sing:
The praise that I shall shew therewith,
pertaineth to the king.

2 My tongue shall be as quick,
his honour to indite,
As is the pen of any scribe,
that useth fast to write.

3 O fairest of all men,
thy speech is pleasant pure:
For God hath blessed thee with gifts,
for ever to indure.

4 About thee gird thy sword,
O prince of might etc &:
With honour, glory, and renown
thy person pure is deckt.

5 Go forth with godly speed,
with meekness, truth, and right:
And thy right hand shall thee instrue
in works of dreadful might.

6 Thine arrows sharp and keen,
their hearts so sore shall sting:
That folk shall fall and kneel to thee,
yea, all thy fees, O king.

7 Thy royll seat, O Lord,
for ever shall remain:
Because the scepter of thy realm
doth righteousness maintain;

8 Because thou lov'st the right,
and dost the ill detest:
God, even thy God, hath nointed thee
with joy above the rest.

9 With myrrhe, and favours sweet,
thy clothes are all bespred:
When thou dost from thy palace pass
therein to make thee glad.

10 Kings daughters do attend
in fine and rich array:
At thy right hand the queen doth stand
in gold and garments gay.

The secunda pars.

11 O daughter, take good heed,
incline and give good ear:
Thou must forget thy kinred all,
and fathers, heire, most dear.

12 Then shall the king desire
thy beauty fair and trim:
For why? he is the Lord thy God,
and thou must worship him.

13 The daughters then of Tyre
with gifts full rich to see:
And all the wealthy of the land,
shall make their suit to thee.

14 The daughter of the king,
is glorious to behold:
Within her closet she doth sit,
all deckt in beaten gold.

15 In robes well wrought with needle
and many a pleasant thing:
With virgin fair on her to wait,
the cometh to the king.

16 Thus are they brought with joys
and mirth on every tide:

1 Into the palace of the king,
and there they do abide.
2 In stead of parents left,
(O queen the case so stands) (for,
Thou shall have sons whom thou maist
as princes in all lands.
3 Wherefore thy Name
all ages shall record:
The people shall give thanks to thee,
for evermore, O Lord.

Psal. XLVI. J. H.

The Lord is our defence and aid,
the strength whereby we stand:
When we with wo are much dismayed,
he is our help at hand. (fear,
2 Though th'earth remove we will not though hills so high and steep:
Be thrast and hurled here and there,
within the sea so deep.

3 No, though the waves do rage so sore,
that all the banks it spills:
And though it overflow the shore,
and beat down mighty hills.
4 For one fair flood doth send abroad
his pleasant streams space:
To fresh the city of our God,
and wash his holy place.

5 In midst of her the Lord doth dwell,
she can no whit decay:
All things against her that rebell,
the Lord will truly slay.
6 The heathen folk the kingdoms fear,
the people make a noise:
The earth doth melt, and not appear,
when God puts forth his voice.

7 The Lord of hosts doth take our part,
to us he hath an eye:
Our hope of health with all our heart,
on Jacobs God doth lie. (thought 8 Come here, and see with minde and the working of our God:
What wonders he himself hath wrought
in all the world abroad.

9 By him all wars are hush'd and gone,
which countreys did conspire:
Their bowes he brake, & spears eachone,
their chariots burnt with fire.
10 Leave off therefore (saith he) & know
I am a God most stout:
Among the heathen high and low,
and all the earth throughout.

11 The Lord of hosts doth us defend,
he is our strength and tower.
On Jacobs God we do depend,
he and on his might and power.

Psal. XLVII. J. H.

Ye people all with one accord,
clap heads and eke rejoice:
Be glad and sing unto the Lord,
with sweet and pleasant voice.
2 For high the Lord and dreadfull is
with wonders manifold:
A mighty King he is truly,
in all the earth extold.
3 The people shall be made to be unto our bondsye thrall:
And underneath our feet he shall
the nations make to fall,

4 For us the heritge he chose,
which we posseſſe alone:
The flouriſhing worship of Jacob,
his well-beloved one.

5 Our God ascended up on high,
with joy and pleasant noise.
The Lord goes up above the skie,
with trumpets roiall voice.
6 Sing praises to our God, sing praises,
sing praises to our King:
7 For God is King of all the earth,
all skilfull praises sing.

8 God on the heathen reigns, and sits
upon his holy throne:
The princes of the people have them joyned every one 9 To Abrahams people: for our God
which is exalted his,
As with a buckler doth defend
the earth continually.

Psal. XLVII. J. H.
Great is the Lord, and with great
to be advanced still: (psalms
Within the city of our God,
upon his holy hill.
2 Mount Sion is a pleasant place:
it gladdeth all the land:
The city of the mighty King
on her north side doth stand.

3 Within the palaces thereof,
God is a refuge known:
For lo, the kings are gathered, and
together they are gone.
4 But when they did behold it so,
they wondred, and they were Astonied much, and suddenly were driven back with fear.

5 Great terror there on them did fall,
for very wo they cry,
As doth a woman, when she shall go travell by and by.
6 As thou with eastern wylde the shipp
upon the sea dost break;
So they were stroyd, and even as we heard our fathers speake s

7 So in the city of the Lord,
we saw as it was told:
Yes, in the city which our God
for ever will uphold.
8 O Lord, we wait, and do attend
on thy good help and grace:
For which we do all times attend
within thy holy place.

9 O Lord, according to thy Name
for ever is thy praise:
And thy right hand, O Lord, is full of righcousnesse alwayes.
10 Let for thy judgements, Sion mount fulfilled be with joyes:
And eke of Judah grant-O Lord,
the daughters to rejoice.

11 Go walk about all Sion hills,
yes, round about her go:
And tell the towers that thereupon
are bulldid on a row.
12 And mark ye well her bulwarks all,
behold her towers there:

That ye may tell thereof to them;
that after shall be here.

23 For this God is our God, our God
for evermore is he :
Yea, and unto the death also
our guider shall be he.

Psal. XLIX. J. H.

A ll people hearken and give ear
to that that I shall tell : (poor 2 Both high and low, both rich and that in the world do dwell. (course

3 For why ? my mouth shall make dis-
of many things right wise :
To understanding shall my heart
his study exercise.

4 I will incline mine ear to know
the parable so dark :
And open all my doubtfull speech
in metre on my harp.

5 Why should I fear affliction,
or any carefull toil :
Or else my foes, which at my heels
are prest my life to spoil ?

6 For as for such as riches have,
wherein their trust is most :
And they which of their treasures great,
themselves do brag and boast :

7 There is not one of them that can ~~can~~
hit brothers death redeem :
Or that can give a price to God,
sufficient for him.

8 It is too great a price to pay,
none can thereto attain :
Or that he might his life prolong,
or not in grave remsin.

9 They see wise men as well as fools,
subject unto deaths bands :
And being dead, strangers possesse
their goods, their rents, their lands.

10 Their care is to build houses fair,
and so determine sure, (earth
To make their name right great on
for ever to endure.

11 Yet shall no man always enjoy high honour, wealth and rest :
12 But shall at length taste of deaths cup,
as well as the brute beast.

The second part. (thoughts

13 And though they try their foolish
to be most lewd and vain :
Their children yet approve their talk,
and in like sin remain.

14 As sheep into the fold are brought,
so shall they into grave :
Death shall them eat, and in that day
the just shall lordship have.

Their image and their royall port
shall fade and quite decay,
When as from house to pit they passe,
with wo and well-away.

15 But God will surely preserve me
from death and endlesse pain :
Because he will of his good graces
my foul receive again.

16 If any man wax wondrous rich,
fear not, I say, therefore :
Although the glory of his house
increaseth more and more.

17 For when he dies, of all these things
nothing shall he receive :
His glory will not follow him,
his pomp will take her leave.

18 Yet in this life he takes himself
the happiest under sun :
And others likewise flatter him,
saying, All is well done.

19 And presuppose he live as long
as did his fathers old :
Yet must he needs at length give places and be brought to deaths fold. (brought

20 Thus man to honor God hath

Psal. L, W. W.

T he mighty God,
th' Eternall hath thus spoke :
And all the world
he will call and provokes

Even from the east,
and so forth to the west :

2 From towards Sion,
which place he liketh best,
God will appear
in beauty most excellent :
Our God will come
before that long time be spent.

3 Devouring fire
shall go before his face :
A great tempest
shall round about him traces

4 Then shall he call
the earth and heavens bright,
To judge his folk
with equity and right,

5 Saying, Go to,
and now my saints assemble :
My pa& they keep their gifts do not dissemble.

6 The heavens shall declare his righteousness,
For God is Judge
of all things more and less.

7 Hear, my people,
for I will now reveal :

List, Israel,
I will thee nought conceal :
Thy God, thy God,
am I, and will not blame thee

8 For giving not all manner offrings to me.

9 I have no need to take of thee at all,
Goats of thy fold,
or calf out of thy stall :

10 For all the beasts
are mine within the woodes ;
On thousand hills
cattell are mine own goods.

11 I know for mine
all birds that are on mountains :
All beasts are mine, (ias.)
which haunt the fields and fount-

12 Hung y if I were,
I would not thee it tell :
For all is mine
that is in the world doth dwell.

13. Eat I the flesh
of great bulls or bullocks?
Or drink the blood
of goats, or of the fleeces?
14. Offer to God
praise and hearty thanksgiving;
And pay thy vows
unto God ever-living.

15. Call upon me,
when troubled thou shalt be;
Thy will I help,
and thou shalt honour me.
16. To the wicked,
thou faith the eternall Gods;
Why do thou preach
my laws and bestis abroad?
17. Seeing thou hast
there with thy mouth abus'd,
And hast it to be
by discipline reformed?

My words, I say,
shondt reu'g and hate.
18. If ther thou see a thief, as with thy mates, Thou runn'st with arms
and to your prey do seek:
And set all else
with harts and ruffians che.
19. Then goe it thy self to ha'bitate and to bender,
And how my tongue
deceives, it is a wonder.

20. Thou first mising,
thy brother how to blame?
And how to put
thy matthers son to shame.
21. These things thou didst,
and whilst I held my tongue,
Thou didst me image,
because I staid so long,
Like to thy self:
yet though I kept long silence,
Once that thou feel
of toy wrongs, just recompence.

22. Consider this,
ye that forget the Lord,
And fear not when
be rebuked with his word:
Left without help
I spost you as a prey:
23. But he that thanks
offereth pacifeth me ay, Unto the Lord died:
and he that walcketh this trace,

24. He God of gods, the Lord;
I, hath call'd the earth by name:
From whence the sun doth riso unto
the setting of the same.
25. From Sion his fair place,
his glory bright and cleare,
The perfect beauty of his grace,
from thence it did appear.

26. Our God shall come in haste, to speak he shall not doubt
Before him shall the fire waste,
and tempest round abens.

4. The hearens trem on high,
the earth below likewise
He will call forth to judge and try his folk he doth devise.

5. Bring forth my saints, saith he,
my faithfull flock so dear:
Which are in band and league with me,
my law to love and fear.
6. And when these things are tried,
the heavens shall record,
That God is just; and all must bide
the judgement of the Lord.

7. My people, O give heed,
Israel, to thee I cry:
I am thy God, thy help at need,
thou canst it not deny.
8. I do not say to thee,
thy sacrifice is sick:
Thou offest daily unto me
much more then I do lack.

9. Think't thou that I do need thy cattle young or old?
Or else to much delight to feed
on goats out of thy fold?
10. Nay, all the bestis are mine,
in woods that eat their fill:
And thousands more of nest and kids
that run wilde on the hills.

as all therein is mine!

13. To bulls flocks have I mindes
to set it do, thou think?
Or such a sweetnesse do I save,
the blood of goats to drinke?
14. Give to the Lord his praise,
with thanks to him apply:
And see thou pay thy vows aways
unto the God most high.

15. Then seek and call to me,
when ought would work thee blisse:
And I will surely deliver thee,
that thou maist praise my Name.
16. But to the wicked train,
which talk of God each day,
And yet their works are foul and vain,
to them the Lord will say:

my word once spake or name?
Why doth thy talk my law allow?
thy deeds deny the same,
18. Whereas for to amend thy life thou art so slack,
My word the which thou dost preache
is cast behinde thy back.

by theft to live in wealth:
With him thou runnest and dost agree
likewise to thrive by stealth, 20. When thou dost them behold,
that wolves and maids deselte;

Thou lik'st it well, and wouldest bold,
to use that life most vile.

11 Thy lips thou dost apply
to slander and detaine:
Thy tongue is taught to sever and lies,
and will doth ate the lame.
12 Thou Ruldest to revile
the friends to thee so neare:
With slander thou wouldest needs defile
thy mothers son most deare.

13 Heret while I do winks
as though I did not see:
Thou good on thine, and to doth think that I am like to thee.
14 But sure I will not let
to strike when I begin:
The faults in order I will set
and open all thy sin.

15 Mark this if yo require,
that have not God in wonder:
I will when I plug in you in mine ire,
your helplesse to finde.

9 Turn back thy face and frowning ito:
for I have fel enough thy hand:
And purge my sins, I theod desire,
which do in number passe the sand.

10 Make now my heart within my breast,
and frame it to thy holy will:

11 By constant Spirit in me let rest,
which way these raging enemies kill.

The second part.

11 Cast me not, Lord out from thy face
but speedily my torment end:
Take not from me thy Spirit of grace,
which may from dangers me defend.

12 Restore me to those joyes again,
which I was wont in thee to finde:
And let me thy free Spirit retain,
which unto thee may stir my minde.

13 Thus when I shall thy mercies know,
I shall instruct others therein:
And men that are like wife brought low,
by misse example shall flee sin.

14 O Gods, as of my health art Lord,
forgive me this my bloody vice:
My heart and tongue shall then accord
to sing thy mercies and justice.

15 Touch then my lips, my tongue untie,
O Lord, which art the onely key:
And then my mouth shall testifie (say,

16 And for euaward sacrifices
I would have offered many a one:
But thou esteemest them of no price,
and therein pleasure tak'ft thou none.

17 The hevye heart, he minde opprest,
O Lord thou neverd dost relect:
And to spye truth it is the best,
and of all sacrifice thefester.

18 Lord, unto Sion turn thy face,
pour out thy mercies on thy hill:
And on Jerusalēm thy grace,
build up the walls and love it still.]

19 Then shalt accept then our offrings
of peace and righteousness, I say t:
Testimones and many other things,
upon thine altar will we lay.

Another of the same, by T. Sc

H ave mercy on me, Lord, after thy great shounding gracie:
After thy mercies multitudes,
do thou my sins deface.

2 Yea wash me more from mine offence,
and cleane me from my sin:
For I do know my faults, and still
my sin is in mine eyen.

3 Against thee, thee alone I have offended in this case:
And evill have I done before
the presence of thy face.

4 That in the things that thou hast done
upright thou maist be tri'f:
And eke in judging, that the doom
my paffe upon thy side.

5 Beholds in wickednesse my blinde
and shape I did receive:
And los, my sinfull mother eke
in sin did me conceyve.

6 But los the truth in inward parts
is pleasant unto thove:
And secrets of thy wisdom thou revealed hast to me.

7 With hisop, Lord, besprinkle me,
I shall be cleaneed so:
Yea, wash thou me, and so I shall be whiter then the snow.

8 Of joy and gladnesse make thou me
to hear the pleasant voice:
That so the bruised bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

9 From the beholding of my sins,
Lord, turn away thy face:
And all my deeds of wickednesse
do utterly deface.
10 O God, create in me a heart
unspotted in thy sight:
And eke within my bowels, Lord,
 renew a stalle sprite.

11 Ne cast me from thy sight; nor take thy holy Spirit away:
The comfort of thy saving health
give me again, I pray.
12 With thy free Spirit establish me,
and I will teach therefore Glouers thy wayes, and wicked shall be turned to thy lore.

The second part.

13 O God, that art God of my health,
from blood deliver me:
That prouest of thy righteousness
my tongue may sing to thee.
14 My lips that yer fast clost be,
do thou, O Lord, unloose:
The praises of thy Majestie
my mouth shall so disclose.

15 I would have offered sacrifices,
if that had pleased thee:
But plesed w^th burn-offerings
I know thou will not be.
16 A troublous spirit is sacrifice
delightfull in Gods eyes:
A broken and an humble heart,
God, thou wilt not despise.

17 In the good will deal gently, Lord,
to Sion, and withall, Grant that of thy Jerusalem
upreard may be the wall.
18 Burnt-offerings, gifts, and sacrifice
of justice in that day Thou shalt accept, and calves they shall upon thine altar lay.

Psalms LII. J. H.

Whydost thou, tyrant, boast abroad,
thy wicked works to praise?
Dost thou not know there is a God,
whose mercies last always?
2 Why doth thy minde yet still devise,
such wicked wiles to warp?
Thy tongue unites i^rraging lies,
it like a rafour sharp.

3 On mischief why seest thou thy minde,
and w^tlt not walk upright?
Thou hast more just false tales to finde,
then bring the truth to light.
4 Thou dost delight in fraud and guile,
in mischief, blood and wrong:
Thy lips have learn'd the flattering
Oratice deceitfull tongue.

5 Therefore shall God for ay confound,
and pluck thee from thy place,
Thy seed root out from off the ground,
and so shall thee deface.
6 The just when they behold thy fall,
with fear will praise the Lord,

And in reproach of thee withall,
cry out with one accord.

7 Behold the man that would not take
the Lord for his defence:
But of his goods his god did make,
and trust his corrupt sence.
8 But I ^{am} olive fresh and green,
shall spring and spread abroad:
For why? my trust all times hath been upon the living God.

9 For this therefore will I give praise
to thee with heart and voice:
I will set forth thy Name alwayes,
wherein thy faints rejoice.

Psal. LIII. T. S.
The foolish man in that which he
within his heart hath said,
that there is any God at all,
hath utterly denied.

2 They are corrupt, and they also
a heinous work have wrought:
Among them all there is not one of good that worketh ought.

3 The Lord look'd down on sons of men
fr^m heaven all abroad,
To see if any were that would be wise and seek for God.
4 They are all gone out of the way,
they are corrupted all:
There is not one doth any good,
there is not one at all.

5 Do not all wicked workers know, that they do feed upon
My peoples as they feed on bread?
the Lord they call not on.

6 Even there they were afraid, & fled with trembling all dismayed:
Whereas there was no cause at all,
why they should be afraid.

7 For God his bones that thee besieg'd
hath scattered all abroad:
Thou hast confounded them, for they rejected are of God.

8 O Lord, give thou thy people health,
and thou, O Lord, fulfill Thy promise made to Israel,
from out of Sion hill.

9 When God his people shall restore,
that erst were captive led:
Then Jacob shall therein rejoice,
and Israel shall be glad.

Psal. LIII. J. H.

God save me for thy holy Name,
and for thy goodness sake:
Unto the strengin (Lord) of the same,
I do my cause beset.

2 Regard, O Lord, and give an ear
to me when I do pray:
Bow down thy self to me, and hear
the words that I do say

3 For strangers up against me rise,
and tyrants vex me still:
Which have not God before their eyes,
they seek my soul to spill.

4 But lo, my God doth give me aid,
the Lord is straight at hand:
With them by whom my soul is staled,
the Lord doth ever stand.

5 With plagues repay aga[n]s all those
for me that lie in wait :
And in thy truth destroy my foes
with their own snare and bait.
6 An offering of free heart and will,
then I to thee shall make :
And praise thy Name, for therein still great comfort I do take.

7 O Lord, at length do for me free
from them that craft conspire :
And now mine eye with joy doth see
on them my hearts desire.

Psal. LV. J. H.

O God, give ear and do apply
to hear me when I pray :
And when to thee I call and cry,
had not thy self away.
2 Take heed to me, grant my request,
and answer me again :
With plagues I pray full sore oppress,
great grief doth me constrain.
(cries,

3 Because my foes with threats and oppress me through despite :
And so the wicked fort likewise
to vex me have delight.
4 For they in counsell do conspire,
to charge me with some ill :
So in their iustly wrath and ire
they do persecute me still.
(breath,

5 My heart doth faint for want of
it penteth in my brest :
The terrors and the dread of death,
do work me much unrest.
6 Such dreadfull fear on me doth fall,
that I therewith do quake :
Such horrourwhelmeth me withall,
that I no shifte can make.

7 But I did say, Who will give me
the swift and pleasant wings
Of some fair dove, that I may flee,
and rest me from these things ?
8 Lo, then I would go far awaies,
to flee I would not cease :
And I would hide my self, and stay
in some great wilderness.

9 I would be gone in all the hast,
and not abide behinde,
That I were quit and overpast
these blasts of boisterous v.nde.
10 Divide them, Lord, and from them their devilish double tongue : (pull For I have spide their city full of rapine, strife and wrong.

22 Her inward parts are wicked plains,
her deeds are much too vyle :
And in her streets there doth remain
all crafty fraud and guile.

The second part.

23 If that my foes did seek my Name,
I might it well abide :
From open enemies chack and blame,
some where I could me hide.
24 But thou it was, my fellow deare,
which friendship didde pretend :

And didst my secret counsell hear,
as my familiar friend:

15 With whom I had delight to talk
in secret and abroad :
And we together oft did walk
within the house of God.

16 Let death in haste upon them fall,
and send them quick to hell :
For mischief reigneth in the hall,
and parlour where they dwell.

17 But I unto my God will cry,
to him for help I flee :
The Lord will help me by and by,
and he will succour me.
18 At morning, noon and evening-tide
unto the Lord I pray :
When I so instantly have cridae,
he doth not say me nay.

19 To peace he shall restore me yet,
though war be now at hand :
Although the number be full greate,
that would against me stand.
20 The Lord that first & last doth reign
both now and evermore,
Will hear when I to him complain,
and punish them full sore.

21 For sure there is no hope that they
to turn will once accord :
For why? they will not God obey,
nor yet do fear the Lord. (hands

Although their words were smooth as they cut as sharp as swords
24 Cast thou thy care upon the Lord, I and he shall nourish thee :
For in no wise will he accord
the just in thrall to see.

25 But God shall cast them deep in pits,
that thirst for bloud always :
He will no guilefull man permit
to live out half his dayes. (gones 26 Though such be quite destroide and

Psal. LVI. J. H.

H ave mercy, Lord, on me, I pray,
for man would me devoure :
He fighteth with me day by day,
and troublith me each hour.
2 Mine enemies daily enterprise
to swallow me outright :
To fight against me many rise,
O thou most high of might.

3 When they would make me mock
with boasts and brags of pride:
I trust in thee alone for aid,
by thee I will abide. (praises
4 Gods promise I do minde and O Lord, I stick to thee :
I do not care at all assayes,
what flesh can do to me.

5 What things I either did or spake,
they wrot them at their will:
And all the counsele that they take
is how to work me ill.

6 They all consent themselves to hide,
closeth watch for me to day:
They spit my path, and fates have tide
to take my life away.

7 Shall they thus scape on mischief set by thou God, on them will frown:
For in his wrath he doth not set
to thine whole kingdom down.

8 Thou seest how oft they made me fleshe,
and on my tears dost look:
Releave them in a glasse by thee,
and write them in thy book.

9 When I do call upon thy Name,
my foes away do fly:
I well perceive it by the times
that God doth take my part.
10 I glory in the word of Gods
to praise it I record:
With joy I will declare thread
the promise of the Lord.

11 I trust in God, and yet I say,
as I before began:
The Lord he is my help and stay,
I do not care for man.
12 I will perform with heart so free,
to God my worts alwayes:
And I, O Lord, all times to thee
will offer thanks and praise.

13 My soul from death thou dost defende,
and keepe my feet upright:
That I before thee may ascend,
with such as live in light.

Psal. LVII. J. H.

TAKE pity for thy promise sake,
I have mercy, Lord, on me:
For why? my foul deth her betake
unto the help of thee.
2 Within the shadow of thy wings,
I set my self full fast:
Till mischiefe, malice, and like things
be gone and overpast.

3 I call upon the God most high,
to whom I stick and stand:
I mean the God that will stand by the cause I have in hand.
4 From heaven he hath sent his aids,
to fave me from their spights:
That so devour me have assaid,

thy Majestie and might.

8 They lay their net, and do prepare a privie cage and pits

Wherein they think thy soul to fasse,
but they are faine in it.

9 My heart is set to laud the Lord,
in him to say alwaies:
My heart, I fy, doth well accord
to sing his laud and psalme.

10 Awake my lay, awake, I say,
my lute, my harpe, and stringe:
For I my self before the day,
will rise, rejoice, and sing.

11 Among the people I will tell
the goodness of thy God:
And his big praise that doth exceed
in neither land abroad.
12 His mercy doth extend as far as heavens ill arche high:
His truth as high as any tree,
that shineth in the feild.

13 Set forth and shew thy self, O God,
above the heavens bright:
Exalt thy praise on earth abroad,
thy Majestie and might.

Psal. LVIII. J. H.

YE rulers that are put in trust,
to judge of wrong and right,
Be all your judgments true and just,
nor knowing need or might?

2 Nay in your hearts ye mark and mowe
in mischief to conferre:
And where ye should true justice use,
your hands to bribes are bent.

3 The wicked sort from their birth-day
have erred on this wise:
And from their mothers womb alway
have used craft and lies.
4 In them the poison and the breath
of serpents do appear:
Yes, like the adder that is deaf,
and fast doth stop her ear.

5 Because she will not hear the voice
of one that charmeth well:
No, though he were the chief of choles
and did therein excell.

6 O God, break thou their teeth stouts virgin their mouths throughout:
The tusks that in their great jaw-bents
like lions whelps hang out.

7 Let them consume away and waste,
as water runs forthright:
The shafts that they do shoot in battay
let them be broke in figh.
8 As snails do waste within the shell,
and unto slime do run:
As one before his time that fell,
and never saw the sun.

9 Before the thorns that now are young
to bushes big shall grow:
The storms of anger waxing strong shall take them ere they know.
10 The just shall joy, it doth them goods
that God doth vengeance take:
And they shall wash their feet in blood
of them that him forfiske.

11 Then shall the world shew forth & tell
that good men have reward:
And that a God on earth doth dwell
that Justice doth regard.

Psal. LIV. F. H.

Cold cold and fare me from my foes,
O Lord, I pray to thee:
Deliver and keep me from all those
that rise and strive with me.

SO Lord, preserve me from those men whose doings are not good;
And for me sure and safe from them
that thirst still after blood.

For lo, they wait my soul to take,
they rage against me still;
Yes, for no fault that I did make,
I never did them ill.
They run and to themselves prepare,
when I no whit offend:
Arise and leave us from their snare,
and see what they intend.

O Lord of hosts of Israel,
strike and smite all lands;
And pity none that do rebels,
and in their mischief stands.

Enright their till and seek about,
when none they howl and grins;
And set them by clean through at
from place to place they run.

They speak of me with mouth always,
but in their lips were swords;
They agreed my death & then would say,
What none doth hear our work.
But, O Lord, thou hast their ways espied,
and caught them at space:
The heathen folk thou do gettest
and mock them to their face.

(Rand,
GThe strength that doth our foes withhold,
O Lord, doth come from thee;
My God, he is my help at hand,
a fort of fence to me.
The Lord to me doth shew his grace,
in great abundance still;
That I may see my foes in case,
such is my heart doth will.

The second part.

Destroy them not at once, O Lord,
lest it from mine do fall: (abroad,
But with thy strength drive them
and so consume them all. (conque,

EFor they do words and trahisse
and confound them in their pride:
Their wives, doanks with lies and wrong
let all the world deride.

Consume them in thy wrath, O Lord,
it is enough of them remain: (world
That men may know throughout the
that Jacobs God doth reign.
At evening they run space,
as dogs they grin and cry:
Throughout the streets in every place
they run about and spie.

They seek about for meat, I say,
but let them not be fed:
Nor under a bush where in they may be bold to cut their head.
SBut I will shew thy strength abroad,
thy goodness I will praise:
For thou art my defence and God,
at need in all afflities.

(Rand,
Thou art my strength thou hast me
O Lord, I sing to thee:

Thee art my fort, my fence and side,
a loving God to me.

Psal. LX. F. H.

Lord, thou didst us clean forsake,
and scattered us abroad:
Such great displeasure thou didst take,
return to us, O God. (vices)

Thy might did move the earth so that is in funder brake:
The burieth of O Lord, restores
for it doth bow and quake.

With heavy chance (on plaguef thus
the people that are thine:
And thou hast given unto us
a drink of deadly wine.

Put yet no shamefear thy Name:
a banner now didst thou:
That they may triumph in the same
because thy word is true.

So that thy might may keep and save
the folk that favour thee:
That they thy help at hand may have,
Lord, grant this to me. (vices)

The Lord did speak from his own
this was his lovliest tales, I will divide Samson by pieces
and mete out Succoths vele.

Cleaved is given to mine hands
Mine is mine beside:
Ephraim the strength of all my lands
no law doth Juds guile.

In Moab I will wash my feet,
over Edom throw my shoe:
And thou Palestine ragast to feel
for favour me unto.

Eat who will bring me at this tide
into the city strong?

Or who to Edom will me guide,
so that I go not wrong? (vices)

Wilt thou not God which didst for-thy folk, their land and coasts?
Our wars in hand thou couldst not take,
nor walk among our hosts.

Give aid, O Lord, and us relieve
from them that us disdain:
The help that hosts of men can give,
it is but all in vain. (might)

But through our God we shall have to take great things in hand:
He will tread down and put to flight
all the following with stand.

Psal. LXI. F. H.
Regard, O Lord, for I complain,
and make my suit to thee:
Let set my words return in value
but give an ear to me.

From out the coasts and utmost parts
of all the earth abroad:
In grief and anguish of my heart,
I cry to thee, O God.

AUpon the rock of thy great power
my wofull minds repose:
Thou art my hope, my fort, and towers
my fence against my foes.

Within thy tent I lust to dwell,
for ever to endure:
Under thy wings I know right well,
I shall be safe and sure.

The Lord doth my desire regard,
and doth fulfil the same :
With goodly gifts will he reward
all those that fear his Name.
6 The king shall he in health maintain,
and so prolong his dayes :
That he from age to age shal reign,
in royall state alwayes.

7 That he may have a dwelling place,
before the Lord for ay :
8 Let thy mercy, truth and grace
defend him from decay.
9 Then shall I sing for ever still,
with praise unto thy Name :
That all my vows I may fulfill,
and daily pay the same.

Psal. LXII. J. H.

My soul to God shal give good heed,
and him alone attend :
For why ? my health and hope to speed,
doth whole on him depend.
2 For he alone is my defence,
my rock, my health and aid :
He is my stay, that no pretence
shall make me much dismayd.

3 O wicked folk, how long will ye
use craft ? sure ye must fall :
For se a rotten hedge ye be,
and like a tottering wall.
4 Whom God doth love, ye seek always
to put him to the worse :
Ye love to lie, with mouth ye praise,
and yet your heart doth curse.

5 Yet still my soul doth whole depend on God, my chief desyre :
From all ill fears me to defend,
none but him I require.
6 He is my rock, my fort and tower,
my health is of his grace :
He doth support me, that no power
can move me out of place.

7 God is my glory and my health,
my soule desire and lust :
My fort, my strength, my stay, my wealth,
God is my onely trust.
8 O have your trust in him alway,
ye folk with one accord :
Put out your hearts to him and say,
Our trust is in the Lord.

9 The sons of men deceifull are,
on balance but a sleight : (pare,

my hands when I do pray.
5 My soul is sick as with marrow,
which is both fat and sweet :
My mouth therefore shall sing such songs
as are for thee most meet.
6 When as in bed I think on thee,
and eke all the night tide :

To use deceit let us not dread,
what ? who can it espie ?
6 What way to hurt they talk and mowe
all times within their heart :
They all confute what feats to use,
each doth invent his part.

7 But yet all this shall not prevail,
when they think least upon :
God with his dart shall sure assall,
and wound them every one.

14 In places plain the flocks shall feed,
and cover all the earth :
The vales with corn shall so exceed,
that men shall sing for mirth.

Psalms Lxxv. f. 2.

Ye men on earth in God rejoice,
with prays set forth his Name :
Exalt his might with heart and voices
give glory to the same.

2 How wonderful, O Lord, say yes
in all thy works thou art !
Thy foes for fear shall seek to thee,
full sore against their heart.

(out)
3 All men that dwell the earth through-shall praise the Name of God :
The laud thereof the world about
is new'd and set abroad.
4 All folk come forth, behold and see what things the Lord hath wrought :
Mark well the wondrous works that be
for man to passe hath brought.

5 He laid the sea like heaps on high,
therin a way they had,
On foot to passe both fair and dry,
whereof their hearts were glad.

6 His might doth rule the world always,
his eyes all things behold :
All such as would him disobey,
by him shall be controld.

7 Ye people give unto our God
due laud and thanks alwayes :
With joyful voice declare abroad,
and sing unto his prays.
8 Which doth endue our soul with life,
and it preserve withall :
He stayes our feet, so that no strife
can make us slip or fall.

(fire)
9 The Lord doth prove our deeds with
if that they will abide :
As workmen do, whan they desire to have their metals tried.
10 Although thou suffer us so long
in prison to be cast,
And there with chains and fetters strong
to lie in bondage fast.

The second part.

11 Although (I say) thou suffer men
on us to ride and reign :
Though we through fire and water run
of very grief and pain :
12 Yet sure thou dost of thy good grace
dispose it to the best,
And bring us out into a place,
to live in wealth and rest.

13 Unto thy house report will I
to offer and to pray :
And there I will my self apply
my vows to thee to pay. (spake 14 The vows that with my mouth I
in all my grief and smart :
The vows, I say, which I did make
in dolour of my heart.

15 Burnt-offerings—I will give to thee,
of oxen fat, and rams :
Yes, this my sacrifice shall be,
of bullocks, goats and lambs.
16 Come forth & hearken here soone,
all ye that fear the Lord :
What he for my poor soul hath done,
to you I will record.

17 Fall oft I call to minde his grace,
this mouth to him doth cry:
And thou my tongue make sped space
to praise him by and by.
18 But if I feel my heart within,
in wicked works rejoyce:
Or if I have delight to sin,
God will not hear my voice.
19 But surely God my voice hath heard,
and what I do require:
My prayer he doth well regard,
and granteth my desire.
20 All praise to him that hath not put
nor cast me out of minde:
Nor yet his mercy from me staut,
which I do ever finde.

Psal. LXVII. T. H.

LAre mercy on us, Lord,
and grant to us thy grace:
To few to do thou accord
the brightness of thy face.
2 That all the earth may know
the way to godly wealth:
And all the nations on a roare,
may see thy saving health.

3 Let all the world, O God,
give praise unto thy Name:
O for the people all abroad,
extoll and laud the same.
4 Throughout the world so wide
let all rejoyce with mirth:
For thou with truth & right dost guide
the nations of the earth.
5 Let all the world, O God,
give praise unto thy Name:
O let the people all abroad,
extoll and laud the same.
6 Then shall the earth increase,
great store of fruit shall fail:
And then our God the God of peace shall blesse us eke without.

7 God shall us blesse, I say,
and then both far and neer,
The folk throughout the earth alway,
of him shall stand in fear.

Psal. LXVIII. T. S.

Let God arise and then his foes
will turn themselves to flight:
His enemies then will run abroad,
and scatter out of sight.
8 And as the fire doth melt the wax,
and winde blowes smoke away:
So is the presence of the Lord
the wicked shall decay.

9 But righteous men before the Lord,
shall hearily rejoyce:
They shall be glad and merry all,
and chearfull in their voice. (Lord, 4 Sing praisefull praise unto the
who rideth on the skie:
Extoll the Name of Jan our God,
and him so magnifie.

5 The same is he that is above,
within his holy place:
That Father is of fatherlesse,
and Judge of widows case.
6 Honors he gives, and issue both unto the somforthease,

He bringeth bondmen out of thrall,
and rebels to distresse.

7 When thou didst march before thy self
th' Egyptians from among, (osse
And broughth them through the wilder-
which was both wide & long; (down
8 The earth did quake the rain pour'd heard were great claps of thunder;
The mount Sion shook in such sort,
as it would cleave in funder.

9 Thine heritage with drops of rain
abundantly was wash'd:
And if so be it barren waks,
by thee it was refresh'd.

10 Thy chosen flock doth there temble,
thou hast prepar'd that place:
And for the poor thou dost provide
of thine especiall grace.

The second part.

11 God will give women causes just,
to magnifie his Name:
When as his people triumphs make,
and purchase bruit and fame.
12 For puissant kings for all their shall flee & take the foil: (power
And women which remain at home
shall help to part the spoil.

(potm)

13 And though you were as black as your hue shall passe the dove, Whose wings and feathers seem to have silver and gold above.

14 When in this land God shall triumph
o're kings both high and low:
Then shall it be like Salmon hill,
as white as any snow.

15 Though Esfan be a fruitfull hill
and in height others passe:
Yet Sions Gods most holy hill
doth far excell in grace. (high)

16 Why brag ye thus, ye hills moe
and leap for pride together?
The hill of Sion God doth love,
and there will dwell for ever.

17 Gods army is two millions of warriours good and strong:
The Lord also in Sinai
is present them among.

18 Thou didst (O Lord) ascend on high,
and captiue ledst them ill:
Which in times past thy chosen flock
in bondage kept and thrall.

Thou mad'st them tribute for to pay,
and such as did repine,
Thou didst subdue, that they might dwel
in the temple divine.

19 Now praised be the Lord, for that he poures on us such grace:
From day to day he is the God
of our health and felice.

The third part.

20 He is the God from whom alone
salvation cometh plain:
He is the God, by whom we scape
all dangers, death and pain. (heads)

21 Thus God will wound his enemies
and break the hairy scarp
Of those that in their wickedness continually do walk,

22 1500

- 21 From Saba will I bring, said he,
my people; and my sheep :
And all mine own as I have done,
from dangers of the deep. (blood)
- 23 And make them dip their feet in
of those that hate my Name :
And dogs shall have their tongues im-
with licking of the same. (bra'd)
- 24 All men may see how thou, O God,
thine enemies dost deface :
And how thou go'st as God and King
into thine holy place.
- 25 The singers go before with joy,
the minstrels follow after :
And in the midst the damsels play,
with timbrell and with taber.
- 26 Now in the congregation,
O Israel, praise the Lord.
And Jacobs whole posterity,
give thanks with one accord.
- 27 Their chief was little Benjamin,
but Jada made their host :
With Zebulon and Nephthaliim,
which dwelt about their coast.
- 28 As God hath given power to thee,
so, Lord, make firm and sure:
The thing that thou hast wrought in us,
for ever to last.
- 29 And in thy temple gifts will we give unto thee, O Lord,
For thine unto Jerusalem
sure promise made by word.
- The fourth part.*
30 And strange kings to us subdu'd
shall do like in those dayes :
I mean to thee they shall present
their gifts of land and praise.
- 30 He shall destroy the spearmen ranks,
the calves and bulls of might :
And cause them tribute pay, and daunt
all such as love to fight.
- 31 Then shall the lords of Egypt come,
and presents with them bring :
The Moors most black shall stretch their unto their Lord and King. (banas)
- 32 Therefore ye kingdoms of the earth
give praise unto the Lord :
Sing psalms to God with one consent,
thereto let all accord.
- 33 Who though he ride and ever hath
above the heavens bright :
Yet by his fearfull thunder-claps men may well know his might.
- 34 Therefore the stree grie of Israel
ascribe to God on high :
Whose might and power doth far extend above the cloudy skie.
- 35 O God, thy holinesse and power
is dread for evermore :
The God of Israel gives us strength,
praised be God therefore.
- Psal. LXIX. J. H.*
- S ave me, O God, and that with speed,
the waters flow full fast :
Boright my soul they do proceed,
that I am sore agast.
- 3 I stuck full deep in mire and clay;
whereas I feel no ground,
- I fall into such floods, I say,
that I am like be drowned.
- 3 With crying oft, I faint and quail,
my throat is hoarse and drie :
With looking up my sight doth fail
for help to God on high.
- 4 My foes that guiltless do oppress,
my soul, with hate are led :
In number sure they are no leesse
then hairs are on my head. (fog)
- 5 Though for no cause they vex me
they prosper and are glad :
They do compell me to restore the things I never had.
- 6 What I have done for want of wit,
thou, Lord, all times canst tell :
And all the faults that I commits
to thee are known full well.
- 7 O God of hosts, defend and stay
all those that trust in thee :
Let no man doubt or shrink away,
for ought that changeth me.
- 8 It is for thee and for thy sake,
that I do bear this blame :
In spite of thee they would me make
to hide my face for shame.
- 9 My mothers sons, my brethren all
forlike me on a ro'e :
And as a stranger they me call,
my face they will not know.
- 10 Unto the houle such zeal I bear,
that it doth pine me much :
Their cheeks & tauns at thee to hear,
my very heart doth grutch.
- The second part.*
- 11 Though I do fast my flesh to chare,
yea, if I weep and mone :
Yet in my teib this thing is cast,
they passe not thereupon.
- 12 If I for grief and pain of hearts
in sackcloth use to walk :
Then they anon will it pervert,
thereof they jest and talk.
- 13 Bath high and low and all the throng
that sit within the gate :
They have me ever in their tongues,
of me they talk and prate. (lights)
- 14 The drunksards which in wine deer,
it is their chief pastime
To seek which way to work me spight,
of me they sing and rime.
- 15 But thee the while, O Lord, I pray
that when it pleaseth thee,
For thy great truth then will alwa
send down thine aid to me.
- 16 Pluck thou my feet out of the mire,
from drowning do me keep :
From such as owe me wrath and ire,
and from the waters deep. (drowndy)
- 17 Lest with the waves I should be
and depth my soul devoure :
And that the pit should me confound ;
and shut me in her power.
- 18 O Lord of hosts to me give ears
as thou art good and kinde :
And as thy mercy is most dear,
Lord, have me in thy munde.

19 And do not from thy servant hide,
nor turn thy face away :
I am opprest on every side,
in haste give ear, I say.
20 O Lord, unto my soul draw nigh,
the same with aid repose :
Because of their great tyranny,
acquit me from my foes.

The third part.

21 That I abide rebuke and shame,
thou knowest, and thou canst tell :
For those that seek and work the same,
thou feest them all full well. (heart)
22 When they with brags do break my
I seek for help anon :
But finde no friends to ease my smart,
to comfort me nor one.

23 But in my meat they gave me gall,
too cruel for to think :
And gave me in my thirst withall,
strong vineger to drink.
24 Lord, turn their table to a fasse,
to take themselves therein :
And when they think full well to fare,
then trap them in the gin.

25 And let their eyes be dark & blinde,
that they may nothing see : (bind)
Bow down their backs, and do them
In thraldom for to be.
26 Pour out thy wrath as hot as fire,
that it on them may fall :
Let thy displeasure in thine ire
take hold upon them all.

27 As deserts dry their house disgrace,
their off-spring eke expell :
That none thereof possesse their place,
nor in their tents do dwell.
28 If thou doest strike the man to tame,
on him they lay full sore :
And if that thou do wound the same,
they seek to hurt him more.

29 Then let them heape up mischief still,
(sith they are all pervert)
That of thy favour and good will they never have a part.
30 And raze them clean out of the book
of life, of hopes of trust :
What for their name they never took
in number of the just.

The fourth part. (grief)

29 Though I (O Lord) with wo and have been full fore opprest,
Thy help shall give me such relief,
that all shall be redrest. (praise) 30 That I may give thy Name the
and shew it with a song :
I will extoll the same alwayes,
with heavey thanks among.

33 Which is more pleasant unto thee,
(suck minde thy grace hath born)
Then either ox or esel can be,
that hath both hoof and horn.
34 When simple folk do this behoile,
it shall rejoyce them sure :
All ye that seek the Lord, behoile,
your life for ay shall dure.

31 For why? the Lord of hosts shall
the poor when they complaine. (heare)

His prisoners are to him full destry,
he doth them not disdain.

35 Wherefore therie and earth below,
the sea with flood and stream,
His praise they shall declare and shew,
with all that live in them.

37 For sure our God will Sion save,
and Juda's cities build :
Much folk possession there shall have,
her streets shall all be fild. (names) 38 His servants feed shall keep the all ages out of minde : (names) 39 And there all they that love his
a dwelling place shall finde.

Psal. LXX. f. H.

O God to me take heed,
of help I thee require :
O Lord of hosts, with haste and speed
help, help, I thee desire.
2 With shame confound them all,
that seek my foul to spill :
Rebuke them back with blame to fall,
that think and wish me ill.

3 Confound them that apply,
and seek to work me shame :
And at my harm do laugh and cry,
so, so, there goes the game.
4 But let them joyfull be,
in thee with joy and wealth,
which only trust and seek to thee,
and to thy saving health.

5 That they may say alwayes,
in mirth and one accord,
All glory, honour, land and praise
be given to thee, O Lord.
6 But I am weak and poor,
come, Lord, thine aid I lack :
Thou art my stay and helpe, therefore make speed and be not slack.

Psal. LXXI. f. H.

M Y Lord my God, in all distresses
my hope is whole in thee :
Then let no shame my soul oppresse,
nor once take hold on me.
2 As thou art just defend me, Lords
and rid me out of dread :
Give ear, and to my faint accord,
and send me help at need.

3 Be thou my rock, to whom I may far sid all times resort :
Thy promise is to help always,
thou art my fence and fort.
4 Save me, my God, from wicked men,
and from their strength and powers :
From folk unjust, and eke from them
that cruelly devour.

5 Thou art the stay wherein I trust,
thou Lord of hosts art he :
Yea, from my youth I had a lust,
still to depend on thee. (birth) 6 Thou hast me kept even from my
and I through thee was born :
Wherefore I will thee praise with mirth
both evening and at morn.

7 As to a monster seldom seen,
much folk about me throng :
But thou art now and still hast been my fence and aid so strong. (Whoso)

8 Wherefore my mouth no time shall say glory and thy praise : (lack
And eke my tongue shall not be slack
to honour thee alwayes.

9 Refuse me not, O Lord, I say,
when age my limbs doth take :
And when my strength doth waste away,
do not my soul forsake.
10 Among themselves my foes inquire,
to take me through deceit,
And they against me do conspire,
that for my soul laid waste.

The second part.

11 Lay hand and take him now; they
for God from him is gone :
Dispatch him quite, for to his aid,
(I wis) there cometh none.
12 Do not absent thy self away,
O Lord, when need shall be :
But that in time of grief thou may in haste give help to me.

13 With shame confound and overthrow
all those that seek my life :
Oppress them with rebuke also,
that fain would work me strife.
14 But I will patiently abide thy help at all assayes :
Still more and more each time and tide,
I will set forth thy praise.

15 My mouth thy justice shall record,
that daily help doth send :
But of the benefits, O Lord
I know no count nor end.
16 Yet will I go and seek forth ones
with thy good help, O God :
The saving health of thee alone,
to new and far abroad.

(canto,

17 For of my youth thou tookst the
and doft instruc^t me still :
Therefore thy wonders to declare,
I have great minde and will.
18 And as in youth from wanton rage,
thou didst me keep and stay :
For sake me not unto mine age,
and till my head be gray.

The third part.

19 That I thy strength and might may
to them that now be here :
And that our seed thy power may know
hereafter many a year.
20 O Lord, thy justice doth exceed,
thy doings all may see :
Thy works are wonderful indeed,
O who is like to thee !

21 Thou mad'st me feel affliction sore,
and yet thou didst me save :
Yes thou didst help and me restore,
and tookst me from the grave.
22 And thou mine honour dost increase,
my dignity mainteine :
Yes thou doft make all grief to cease,
and comfort st me again.

(praise,

23 Therefore thy faithfulness to
I will with violⁱ sing :
My harp shall sound thy praise alwayes,
O Israels holy King. (voice,

24 My mouth will joy with pleasant
whereof shall sing to thee :

And eke my soul will much rejoice,
for thou hast made me free. (sound,

25 My tongue thy uprightnesse shall and speak it daily still :
For grief and shame do them confound
that seek to work me ill.

Psalms LXXII. J. H. (king,

Lord, give thy judgements to the therein instruc^t him well :
And with his son & princely thing,
Lord, let thy justice dwell.

2 That he may govern uprightly,
and rule thy folk aright :
And so defend through equity,
the poor that have no might.

3 And let the mountains that are bold
unto thy folk give peace :
And eke let little hills apply,
in Justice to increase.

4 That he may help the weak and poor
with aid, and make them strong :
And eke destroy for evermore,
all those that do them wrong.

5 And then from age to age shall they regard and fear thy might :
So long as sun doth shine by day,
or else the moon by night.

6 Lord, make the king unto the just,
like rain to fields new mown :
And like to drops that lay the duds,
and fresh the land new sown.

7 The just shall flourish in his times,
and all shall be at peace :
Until the moon shall leave to prime,
waste, change, and to increase.

8 He shall be lord of sea and land,
from shore to shore throughout :
And from the floods within the lands,
through all the earth about.

9 The people that in deserts dwell,
shall kneel to him full thick :
And all his enemies that rebel,
the earth and dust shall lick.

10 The lords of all the isles theraby,
Great gifts to him shall bring :
The kings of Saba and Arabie,
give many a costly thing.

The second part.

11 All kings shall seek with one accord,
in his good grace to stand :
And all the people of the world,
shall serve him at his hand.

12 For he the needy fort doth save,
that unto him do call :
And eke the simple folk that have no help of man at all.

13 He taketh pity on the poor,
that are with need opprest :
He doth preserve them evermore,
and bring their souls to rest.

14 He shall redeem their lives frō dread,
frō frauds frō wrong, frō might,
And eke the blood that they shall bleed
is precious in his sight.

15 But he shall live, and they shall bring to him of Saba's gold :

14 We shall be honoured as a king,
and daily be extold.
15 The mighty mountains of his land
of corn shall bear such throng :
That it like cedar-trees shall stand,
in Lebanon full long.

17 Their cities eke full well shall speed;
the fruits thereof shall paie :
In plenty it shall far exceed,
and spring as green as grass.
18 For ever they shall praise his Name,
while that the sun is light : (same)
And think them happy through the all folk shall bleste his might.

19 Praise ye the Lord of hosts, and sing
to Israels God each one :
For he doth every wondrous thing,
yea, he himself alone.
20 And blessed be his holy Name,
all times eternally :
That all the earth may praise the same,
Amen, amen, say I.

Psalms LXXIII. T. S.

How ever it be, yet God is good,
And kinde to Israel :
And to all such as safely keep their conscience pure and well.
2 Yet like a fool I almost flignt,
my feet began to slide :
And ere I wist, even at a pinch
my steps awry gan glide.

3 For when I saw such foolish men,
I grug'd and did disdain,
That wicked men all things shoud have without turmoil or pain.
4 They never suffer pang nor grief,
as it deats should them smite :
Their bodies are both stout and strong,
and ever in good plight.

5 And free from all adversity,
when other men be heat :
And with the rest they take no part of plague or punishment.
6 Therefore presumption doth embrace their necks, as doth a chain :
And are even wrapt as in a robe,
with rapine and disdain.

7 They are so fed, that even for fat
their eyes oft-times out start :
And as for worldly goods they have more than eza with their heart.
8 Their life is most licentious,
boasting much of their wrong
Which they have done to simple men
and ever pry'd among.

9 The heavens and the living Lord,
they spare not to blaspheme :
And prate they do of worldly things,
no wight they do esteem. (back)
10 The people of God oft times turn to see their prosperous state :
And almesk drink the self-same cup,
and follow the same rate.

The second part.

11 How can it be that God (say they) should know or understand

These worldly things, sith wicked men
be lords of sea and land ?
12 For we may see how wicked men
in riches still increase,
Rewarded well with worldly goods,
and live in rest and peace.

13 Then why do I from wickedness
my franticke refrain ?
And wash my hands with innocente,
and cleanse my heart in vain ?
14 And suffer scourges every day,
as subject to all blame :
And every morning from my yonda
sustain rebuke and shame ?

15 And I had almost said as they,
misliking mine estate :
But that I should thy children Judge
as folle unfortunate.
16 Then I bethought me how I might
this matter understand :
But yet the labour was too great
for me to take in hand.

17 Untill the time I went into thine holy place, and then I understood right perfectly
the end of all these men.
18 And namely, how thou settest them
upon a slippery place :
And at thy pleasure and thy will thou dost them all deface.

(sighs) 19 Then all men muse at that strange to see how suddenly (sum'd,
They are destroy'd, dispatch't, con-
and dead so horribly.
20 Much like a dream when one awakes,
so shall their wealth decay :
Their famous names in all mens sight,
shall ebb and passe away.

The third part.

21 Yet thus my heart was grieved then,
my minde was much opprest :
22 So fond was I and ignorant,
and in this point a beast.
23 Yet ne'rethelesse, by my right hand,
thou holdest me alwayes fast :
24 And with thy counsell dost me guide
to glory at the last.

25 What thing is there that I can wish,
but thee in heaven above ?
And in the earth there is nothing
like thee that I can love.
26 My flesh and eke my heart doth fail
but God doth fail me never :
For of my health God is the Strength,
my portion eke for ever.

27 And lo, all such as thee forsake,
thou shall destroy each one :
And those that trusst in any thing,
saying in thee alone.

28 Therefore I will draw neer to God,
and ever with him dwell :
1 In God alone I put my trust,
thy wonders I will tell.

Psalms LXXIII. T. H.

Why art thou, Lord, so long from
in all these dangers deep ? (us)
Why doth thine anger kindle thus,
at taking ewe pasture sheep ?

3. Long.

3 Lord call thy people to thy thought,
which have been thine so long :
The which thou hast redeem'd & brought from bondage sore and strong. (on,

3 Have minde therefore and think up-
remember it full well.
Thy pleasant place, thy mount Sion,
where thou wast wont to dwell.
4 Lift up thy feet and come in haste,
and all thy foes deface:
Which now at pleasure rob and waste
within thy holy place.

5 Amid thy congregation all thine enemies roar, O God :
They set as signes on every wall,
banners displaid at road.
6 As men with axes hew down trees,
that on the hills do grow :
So mine the bills and swords of these,
within thy temple now.

7 The ceiling faw'd the carved beards,
the gosly graven stenes,
With axes, hammers, bills, and swerds,
they beat them down at once.
8 Thy places they consume with flame,
and eke in all this toils,
The house appointed to thy Name
they raze down to the foil.

(hearts,
9 And that they said within their Dispatch them out of hand :
Then burnt they up in every part
Gods houses through the land.
10 Yet thou no signe of help dost send ;
our prophets all are gone :
To tell when this our plague shall end,
among us there is none.

(shame,
11 When wilt thou (Lord) once end this and cease thine enemies strong ?
Shall they always blasphem thy Name,
and rail on thee so long ?
12 Why dost thou drin thy hand aback,
and hide it in thy lap ?
O pluck it out, and be not slack
to give thy foes a rap.

The second part,

13 O God thou art our King and Lord,
and evermore hath been : (world
Yes thy good grace throughout the
for our good hath been seen.
14 The seas that are so deep and dead,
thy might did make them dry :
And thou didst break the serpents head,
that he therein did die.

(greatest 15 Yet thou didst break the heads so
of whales that are so fell :
And gav'st them to the foly to eat,
that in the deserts swell. (to rise 16 Thou mad'st a spring with streams
from rock both hard and hie :
And eke thy hand hath made likewise
deep sivers to be dry.

17 Both day and eke the night art thine,
by thoe they were begun :
Thou seest to serve us with their shone,
the moon and eke the sun. (coastles 18 Thou didst appoint the ends and of all the earth above :.

Both summer heats, and winter frosts,
thy hand hath found them out.

19 Think on(O Lord) no time forges
thy foes that thee defame :
And how the foolish folk are set
to rail upon thy Name.
20 O let no cruell beastis devour
the turtle that is true,
Forget not alwayes in thy power
the poor that much do rue.

21 Regard thy covenant, and behelde,
thy foes possesse the land :
All fat and dark, forworn and old,
our realm as now doth stand.
22 Let not the simple go aways,
nor yet return with shame :
But let the poor and needy ay
give praise unto thy Name.

23 Rise (Lord) let be by thee maintaine'd
the cause that is thine own :
Remember how that thou blaspemed
art by the foolish one.
24 The voice forget not of thy foes,
for the presumption bie
Is more and more increas of those that hate thee spitefully.

Psalms LXXV. J. H.

Unto thee(God) wil we give thanks,
we will give thanks to thee :
Sith thy Name is so near, declare thy wondrous works will we.
2 I will uprightly judge, when get convenient time I may :
The earth is weak, and all therelins,
but I her pillars stay.

3 I did to the mad people syz,
Deal not so furiously :
And unto the ungodly ones,
Set not your horns on high.
4 I said unto them, Set not up
your raised barns on hie :
And see that you do with stiff neck
not speake presumptuously.

5 For neither from the eastern parts,
nor from the western side,
Nor from forsaken wildernes
promotion doth proceed.
6 For why ? the Lord our God he is the righteous Judge alone :
He setteth down the ones, and lets another in the throne.

7 For why ? a cup of mighty wine
is in the hand of God :
And all the mighty wine therelins
himself doth pour abroad.
8 As for the lees and filthy dregs that do remain of it,
The wicked of the world shall drinck,
and suck them every whit.

9 But I will talk of God, I say,
of Jacobs God therefore :
And will not cease to celebrate his priso for evermore.
10 In sunder break the horns of all ungodly men will I :
But then the horns of righteous men
shall be exalted his.

Gloria Patri,
To Father, Son, and holy Ghost,
all glory be therfore:
As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

Psalm LXXVI. f. H.
¶ O all that now in Jewry dwell,
the Lord is clearly known:
His Name is great in Israels,
a people of his own.
¶ At Salem he his tents hath plight,
to tarry there a space:
In Sion eke he hath delight
to make his dwelling place.

(bowe,
¶ And there he brake both shield
and the sword, the spear, and shield:
And brake the ray to overthrow
in battell on the field.
¶ Thou art more worthy honour, Lord,
more might in thee doth lie,
Then in the strongest of the worlds,
that rob on mountains high.

(thee,
¶ But now the proud are spoild through
and they are fallen on sleep:
Through men of war no help can be,
themselves they could not keep.
¶ At thy rebuke, O Jacobs God,
when thou didst them reprove:
¶ At half on sleep their charlots stood,
no horsmen once did move.

¶ For thou art dreadfull, Lord, indeed;
what man the courage hath
To bide thy sight, and doth not dread
when thou art in thy wrath? (heard ¶ When thou dost make thy judgements
from heaven through the ground:
Then all the earth full sore afraid,
in silence shall be found.

¶ And that when thou, O God, doft stand
in judgement for to speak,
To save th'afflicted of the land,
on earth that are full weak.
¶ The fury that in men doth raign
shall turn unto thy praise:
Hereafter (Lord) do thou restrain their wrath and threats aways.

(God, ¶ Make vows, and pay them to our ye folk that nigh him be:
Bring gifte, all ye that dwell abroad,
for dreadfull sure is he.
¶ For he doth take both life & might from princes great of birth:
And full of terror is his sight
to all the kings on earth.

Psalm LXXVII. f. H.
¶ With my voice to God do cry,
with heart and hearty cheer:
My voice to God I lift on hie,
and he my suit doth hear.
¶ In time of grief I sought to God,
by night no rest I took:
But stretch'd my hands to him abroad,
my soul comfort forsook.

¶ When I to think on God intend,
my trouble then is more:
I speake, but could not make an end,
my breath was ropt so sore.

4 Thou heldst mine eyes always free
that I therewith did waste: (red,
With fear I am so sore opprest,
my speech doth me forsake.

5 The dayes of old in minde I cast,
and oft did think upon
The times and ages that are past
full many years agone.
¶ By night my songs I call to minde,
once made thy praise to show:
And with my heart much talk I finde,
my spirits do search to know

7 Will God, said I, at once for all cast off his people thus?
So that henceforth no time he shall be friendly unto us?
8 What is his goodness clean deal? (black
for ever and a day?
Or is his promise now delaid,
and doth his truth decay?

9 And will the Lord our God forgoe
his mercies manifold?
Or shall his wrath increase so hot,
his mercies to withhold?
10 At last, I said, my weakness is the cause of this mistrust:
Gods mighty hand can help all thys,
and change it when he lust.

The second part.

11 I will regard and think upon
the working of the Lord:
Of all his wonders past and gone,
I gladly will record.
12 Yea, all his works I will declare,
and what he did devise:
To tell his facts I will not spare,
and eke his counsell wife.

13 Thy works (O Lord) are all upright,
and holy all abroad: (mights
What one hath strength to match the
of thee, O Lord, our God?

14 Thou art a God that doth forthnew
thy wonders every hour
And so dost make the people know
thy vertue and thy power.

15 And thine own folk thou doft defend with strength and stretched arms:
The sons of Jacob that defend,
and Josephs seed from harm.
16 The waters, Lord, perceived thee,
the waters saw thee well:
And they for fear away did flee,
the depths en trembling fell.

(black,
17 The clouds that were both thick and
did rain full plenteously:
The thund're in the air did crack,
thy shafts abroad did flie.
18 Thy thund're in the air was heard,
thy lightnings from above,
With flashes great made men afraids,
the earth did quake and move.

19 Thy wayer within the sea do lie,
thy paths in waters deep:
Yet none can there thy steps espie,
nor know thy paths so deep.
20 Thou ledst thy folk upon the lands
as sheep on every side:

Through

Through Moses & through Aarons hand And stirred him that so most high thou didst them safely guide. to wrath in wilderness.

Psal. LXXVIII. J. H.

ATend my people to my law,
and to my words incline: (bles.
2 My mouth shall speak strange par-
and sentences divine: (learn'd 3 Which we our selves have heard and even of our fathers old:
And which for our instruction
our fathers have us told.
4 Because we should not keep it close from them that should come after:
Who should Gods power to their race
and all his works of wonder: (praise 5 To Jacob he commandment gaves
how Israel should live:
Willing our fathers should the same
unto their children give.

6 That they and their posterity,
that were not sprung up tho.
Should have the knowledge of the law,
and teach their seed also. (hearts
7 That they might have the better
In God that is above:
And not forget to keep his laws,
and his precepts in love.
8 Not being as their fathers were,
rebeling in Gods sight, (hearts
And would not frame their wicked
to know their God aright.
9 How went the people of Ephraim their neighbours for to spoil:
Shothing their shafts in day of war,
and yet they took the foil!

(God

10 For why? they did not keep with
the covenant that was made:
Nor yet would walk or lead their lives
according to his trade:
11 But put into oblivion,
his counsell and his will:
And all his works most magnifique,
which he declared still.

The second part.

12 What wonders to our fore-fathers,
did he himself disclose:
In Egypt lands, within the field
that call'd is Thanes!
13 He did divide and cut the sea,
that they might passe at once:
And made the waters stand as still
as doth an heap of stones.

14 He led them secret in a cloud
by day when it was bright:
And in the night when dark it was,
with fire he gave them light.
15 He brake the rocks in wilderness,
and gave the people drink,
As plentifully as when the deeps
do flow up to the brink.

16 He drew out rivers out of rocks
that were both dry and hard,
Of such abundance, that no floods
to them might be compar'd.
17 Yet for all this, against the Lord
their sin they did increase;

18 They tempted God within their
like people of mistrust:

Requiring such a kinde of meat,
as served to their lust;

19 Saying with murmurations,
in their unfaithfulness,
What? can this God prepare for us
a feast in wilderness?

20 Behold, he stroke the stony rocks
and floods forthwith did flow:

But can he now give re his folk
both bread and flesh also? (wyds.

21 When God heard this, he waxed
with Jacob and his seed:
So did his indignation
on Israel proceed.

The third part.

22 Because they did not faithfully believe, and hope that he Could always help and succour them
in their necessity. (clouds)

23 Wherefore he did command the forthwith they brake in funder:

24 And rain'd down manna for them to a food of mickle wonder. (eats)

25 When earthly men with angels food
were fed at their request:

26 He bide the east-winde blow away,
and brought in the south-west.

27 He rain'd down flesh as thick as dust,
and fowl as thick as sand,

28 Which he did cast amid the places
where all their tents did stand

29 Then did they eat exceedingly &
and all men had their fill:

Yet more and more they did desire,
to serve their lusts and wills.

30 But as & meat was in their mouths,
his wrath upon them fell: (youth,

31 And flew the flower of all their
and choice of Israel.

32 Yet fell they to their wonted sin,
and still they did him grieve:

For all the wonders that he wrought,
they would not him beleive.

33 Their dayes therefore he shortened,
and made their honour vain:

Their years did waste and passe away,

with terror and with pain.

34 But ever when he plagued them,
they fought him by & by: (strength

35 Remembering that he was their their help and God most high.

36 Though in their mouths they did and flatter with & Lord: (but glaze

And with their tongues, and with their dismayed every word. (hearts

The fourth part.

37 For why? their hearts were nothing
to him, nor to his trade: (bent

Nor yet to keep or to perform
the covenant that was made.

38 Yet was he still so mercifully,
when they deserv'd to die:

Thus

2 hat he forgave them their ill deeds,
and would not them destroy.
3 Yes, many a time he turn'd his wrath,
and did himself advise:
And would not suffer a'l his whole displeasure to arise.
4 Considering that they were but flesh,
and even as a wind,
Passing away, and cannot well
return by his own kinde.
5 How oftentimes, in wildernesse
did they the Lord provoke?
How did they moreover stirr the Lords
to plague them with his stroke?
6 Yet did they turn again to sin,
and repented God eftsoone:
Prescribing to the holy Lord
what things they would have done.
7 Not thinking of his hand & power,
nor of the day when he Delivord them out of the hands
of their fierce enemy.
8 Nor how he wrought his miracles,
(as they themselves beheld.)
In Egypt, and the wonders that he did in Zion field.
9 Nor how he turned by his power,
their waters into blood:
That no man might receive his drink
at river, nor at flood. (Hies, 10 Nor how he sent them swarms of which did them sore annoy:
And fill'd their countrey full of frogs,
which did their land destroy.

The fifth part.

11 Nor how he did commit their fruits
onto the caterpiller,
And all the labour of their hands
he gave to the grasshopper. (vines, 12 With hail-stones he deltroide their
so that they were all lost:
And not so much as wilde fig-trees,
but he consum'd with frost.

13 And yet with hail-stones once again
the Lord their cattell smore:
And all their flocks and herds likewise
with thunder-bolts full hot.
14 He cast upon them in his ire,
and in his fury strong,
Displeasure, wrath, and evil spirits,
to trouble them among.

15 Then to his wrath he made a way,
and spared not the least:
But gave unto the pestilence
the man and the beast.
16 He strake also the first-born all,
that up in Egypt came:
And all the chief of men and beasts
within the tents of Ham.

17 But as for all his own dear folks,
he did preserve and keep:
And carried them through wildernesse,
even like a flock of sheep.
18 Without all fear both safe and sound
he brought them out of thrall:
Whereas their foes with rage of fear
were overwhelmed all,

19 And brought them out unto a conq.
of his most holy land:
Even to the mount which he had got
by his strong arm and hand.
20 And there cast out the heathen folk,
and did their land divide:
And in their tents he set the tribes
of Israel to abide.

21 Yet for all this, their God most high they stirr'd and tempted still:
And would not keep his testament,
nor yet obey his will.
22 But as their fathers turned back,
even so they went astray:
Much like a bove that would not bands
but slip and start away.

The sixth part.

23 And griev'd him with their bill-clli
with offring sand with fire: (targ
And with their idols vehemently
provoked him to ire.
24 Therewith his wrath began again
to kindle in his breast:
The naughtiness of Israel
he did so much detest.

25 Then he forsook the tabernacle
of Shiloh, where he was Right concersant with earthly men,
even as his dwelling place.
26 Then surferd he his might & power
in bondage for to stand:
And gave the honour of his ark
into his enemies hand.

27 And did commit them to the sword, wrath with his heritage: (targ 28 Their young men were devour'd whi maids had no marriage.
29 And with the sword the priests sife
did perish every one:
And not a widow left alive,
their death for to bemonre.

30 And then the Lord began to wake,
like one that slept a time:
And like a valiant man of war,
refreshed after wine.
31 With emrods in the hinder parts
he strake his enemies all:
And put them then unto a shame
that was perpetuall.

32 Then he the tent and tabernacle
of Joseph did refule:
As for the tribe of Ephraim,
he wold in no wise chuse.
33 But chose the tribe of Judus,
whereas he thought to dwell:
Even the noble mount Sion,
which he did love so well.

34 Whereas he did his temple build,
both sumptuously and sure:
Like as the earth which he hath made
for ever to endure.
35 Then he chose David him to serve:
his people for to keep:
Whom he took up and brought away,
even from the folds of sheep.

36 As he did follow th'ews with young
the Lord did him advance:

To feed his people Israel,
and his inheritance.
72 Thus David with a faithful heart
his flock and charge did feed :
And prudently with all his powers
did gover them indeed.

Psal. LXXIX. f. Ho.

O God, the Gentiles do invade thine heritage to spoil :
Jerusalem an heap is made
thy temple thou defile.
8 The bodies of thy saints most dear
abroad to birds they cast :
The flesh of them that do thee fear,
the beasts devour and waste.

3 Their blood throughout Jerusalem
as water spilt you have :
So that there is no one of them
to lay their dead in grave.
4 Thus are we made a laughing stock
almost the world throughout :
The enemies at us left and mock
which dwell our coasts about.
5 Wilt thou (O Lord) thus in thine
ire against us ever fume,
And then thy wrath as hot as fire,
thy folk for to consume ?
6 Upon these people pour the flame,
which did they never know :
All realms which call not on thy Name,
consume and overthrow.

7 For they have got the upper hand,
and Jacobs seed destroyed :
His habitation and his land,
they have left waste and void.
8 Bear set in minde our former faults,
with speed some pity show :
And aid us, Lord, in all afflicts,
for we are weak and low.

The second part.

9 O God, thy giv'st all health & grace,
on us declare the same :
Weigh not our works, our sins deface,
for honour of thy Name.
10 Why shall the wicked still alway
to us as people dumb,
In the reproach rejoice, and say,
Where is their God become ?

Require (O Lord) as thou seest good,
before our eyes in sight,
Of all these folk thy servants blood,
which they spill in despite.
11 Receive into the Ghet in haste
the clamours, grief and wrong,
Of such as are in prison cast,
forsaking iron strong.
Thy force and strength to celebrate,
Lord, for them our of bands,
Which unto death are destinate,
and in their enemies hand. folio 12 12 The nations which have been so as to blaspheme thy Name, Unto their laps with seven-fold
repay again the same.

13 So we thy flock and pasture sheep
will praise thee evermore,
And reach all ages for to keep
for thee like praise in those.

Psal. LXXX. J.H.

Thou herd, that I esel dost keep,
give ear and take good heed :
Which leadest Joseph like a sheep
and dost him watch and feed.
2 Thou Lord I say whose fear is fee
on cherubims most bright :
Shew torch thy self, and do not let,
send down thy beams of light.

3 Before Ephraim and Benjamin
Ministers eke likewise :
To shew the power do thou begin :
come help us, Lord, arise.
4 Direct our hearts unto thy grace,
convert us, Lord, to thee :
Shew us the brightness of thy face,
and then full safe are we.

5 Lord God of hosts of Israel,
how long wilt thou, I say,
Against thy folk in anger swell,
and wilt nor hear them pray? (deep) 6 Theu dost them feed with sorrows
their bread with tears they eat :
And drink the tears that they do weep,
treasure fall and great.

7 Thou hast us made a very strife,
to those that dwell about :
And that our foes do love alike,
they laugh and left it out.
8 O take us (Lord) unto thy grace,
convert our hearts to thee :
Shew forth to us thy joyfull-face,
and we full safe shall be.

9 From Egypt where it grew not well,
thou brought'st a vine full dear :
The heathen folk thou didst expell,
and thou didst plant it there.
10 Theu didst prepare for it a place,
and for her roots full fast :
That it did grow and spring apace,
and fill'd the land at last.

The second part.

11 The hills were covered round about,
with shade that from it came :
And eke the cedar strong and stout,
with branches of the same. (stroyd)
12 Why then didst thou her walls de-bet hedge pluckt up thou hast :
That all the folk that passe thereby,
thy vine may spoil and waste.

13 The boar out of the wood so wild :
doth dig and root it out :
The furious beasts out of the field
devour it all about.
14 O Lord of hosts return again,
from heaven look behinde :
Behold, and with thy help sustaine
this poor vineyard of thine.

15 Thy plants, I say, thine Israel,
whom thy right hand hath set :
The same which thou didst love so well,
O Lord, do not forget.
16 They lop and cut it down apace,
they burn it eke with fire :
And through the frowning of thy face,
we perish in thine ire.

27 Let thy right hand be w^t them now,
whom thou hast kept so long :
And with the son of man, whom thou
to thee hast made so strong.
28 And so when thou hast set us free,
and saved us from shame :
Then will we never fall from thee,
but call upon thy Name.

(grace,
29 O Lord of hosts, through thy good
convert us unto thee :
Behold us with a pleasant face,
and then full safe are we.

Psal. LXXXI. J. H.

BE light and glad, in God rejoice,
which is our strength and stay :
Be joyfull, and lift up your voice,
to Jacobs God, I say :
3 Prepare your instruments most meet,
some joyfull psalm to sing :
Strike up with harp and lute so sweet,
on every pleasant string.

3 Blow as it were in the new moon,
with trumpets of the best :
As it is used to be done,
at any solemn feast.
4 For this is unto Israel,
a statute and a trade :
A law that must be kept full well,
which Jacobs God hath made.

5 This clause with Joseph was decreed,
when he from Egypt came :
That as a witness all his seed
should still observe the same.
6 When God, I say, had so prepar'd
to bring him from that land :
Whereas the speech which he had heard
he did not understand.

7 I from his shoulders took (saith he)
the burden clean away :
And from the furnace quit him free
from burning brick of clay.
8 When thou in grief didst cry and call,
I help thee by and by :
And I did answer thee withall,
in thunder secretly.

9 Yes, at the waters of discord,
I did thee tempt and prove :
Whereas the goodness of the Lord
with muttering thou didst move.
10 Hear, O my folk, O Israel,
and I assure it thee :
Regard and mark my words full well,
if thou wilt cleave to me.

The second part.

11 Thou shalt no god in thee receive,
of any land abroad :
Nor in no wise bow to or serve
a strange or forrein god.
12 I am the Lord thy God, and I
from Egypt set thee free :
Then ask of me abundantly,
and I will give it thee.

13 And yet my people would not hear
my voice when that I spake :
And Israel would not obey,
but did me quite forsake.
14 Then did I leave them to their wills
In hardness of their heart.

To walk in their own counsels RIB,
themselves they might pervert.

15 O that my people would have heard
the words that I did say :
And eke that Israel would regard to walk within my way. (long 16 How soon would I confound their
and bring them down full low :
And turn my hand upon all those
that would them overthrow ?

17 And they that at the Lord do rage,
as slaves should seek him till :
But of his fol^t the time and age,
should flourish ever still. (crop 18 I would have fed them with the
and finest of the wheat :
And made the rock with honey drop,
that they their fill should eat :

Psal. LXXXII. J. H.
A Mid the pride with men of might
the Lord himself doth stand :
To plead the cause of truth and right,
with judges of the land.
2 How long (said he) will you proceed,
false judgement to award,
And have respect for love of meed,
the wicked to regard ?

3 Whereas of due you should defend the fatherlesse and weak :
And when the poor man doth contend,
in judgement justly speak.
4 If ye be wise, defend the cause
of poor men in their right :
And rid the needy from the claws
of tyrants force and might.

5 But nothing will they know or learn,
in vain to them I talk :
They will not see, or ought discern :
but still in darknesse walk.
6 For lo, even now the time is come,
that all things fall to nought :
And likewise laws both all and some,
for gain are sold and bought.

I had decreed it in my sight,
as gods to take you all :
And children to the most of might
for love I did you call.
7 But notwithstanding ye shall die
as men, and so decay :
O tyrants, I shall you destroy,
and pluck you quite away. (knows,

8 Up, Lord, and let thy strength be and judge the world with might :
For why ? all nations are thine own,
to take them as thy right.

Psal. LXXXIII. J. H.
DO not (O God) refrain thy tongue
in silence, so not stay :
Withhold not, Lord, thy self so long,
and make no more delay.
2 For why ? behold thy foes and see how they do rage and cry :
And those that bear an hate to thee,
hold up their heads on hie.

3 Against thy folk they use deceipts
and craftly they inquire :

For thine elect to lie in wait,
their counseil doth conspire.
4 Come on, say they; let us expell
and pluck these folk away:
So that the name of Israel
may utterly decay.

5 They all conspire within their heart,
how they may thee withstand:
Against the Lord to take a part,
they are in league and band.
6 The tents of all the Edomites,
the Ishmaelites also:
The Hagarens and Moabites,
with divers others too.

7 Gebal with Ammons, and likewise
doth Amalek conspire:
The Philistines against thee rise,
with them that dwell at Tyre.
8 And Ashur eke is well apaid,
with them in league to be:
And doth become a fence and aid
to Lot's posterity.

9 As thou didst to the Midianites,
so serve them; Lord each one:
As to Sisera and Jabin,
beside the brook Kison.
10 Whom thou in Endor didst destroy,
and waste them through thy might:
That they like dung on earth did lie,
and that in open sight.

The second part.

11 Make them now and their lords spy,
like Zeb and Oreb than: (pearl)
As Zebo and Zethnunna were,
the kings of Midian, (land) 12 Which said, Let us throughout the
in all the coasts abroad
Possesse and take into our hand
the fair houses of God.

(last)

13 Turn them, O God, with storms as
as wheels that have no stay:
Or like the chaff, which men do cast,
with winds to flee away.
14 Like as the fire with rage and fume,
the mighty forests spyle:
And as the flame doth quite consume
the mountains and the hills:

15 So let the tempest of thy wrath
upon their necks be laid:
And of thy stormy winds and snows,
Lord, make them all afraid.
16 Lord, bring them all, I thee desire,
to such rebuke and shame,
That it may cause them to inquire,
and learn to seek thy Name.

17 And let them evermore daily
to shame and slander fall:
And in rebuke and obloquie,
perish also withall. (well) 18 That they may know and feel full
that thou art called Lord:
And that alone thou dost excell,
and reign throughout the world.

Psal. LXXXIII. J. H.

How pleasant is thy dwelling place,
O Lord of hosts to me;

1 The tabernacles of thy grace
how pleasant, Lord, they be!
2 My soul doth long full sore to go into thy courts abroad:
My heart doth lust my flesh also,
in thee the living God.

3 The sparrows finde a room to rest,
and save themselves from wrong:
And eke the swallow hath a nest,
wherin to keep her young.
4 These birds full nigh thine altar may have place to sit and sing:
O Lord of hosts, thou art, I say,
my God, and eke my King.

5 O they be blessed that may dwell
within thy house always:
For they all times thy facts do tell,
and ever give thee praise.
6 Yes, happy sure likewise are they whose stay and strength thou art:
Which to thy house do minde the way,
and seek it in their heart.

7 As they go through the vale of tears
they dig up fountains still:
That as a spring it all appears,
and thou their pits doest fill. (full fast)
8 From strength to strength they walk,
no faintness there shall be:
And so the God of gods at last in Sion they do see.

9 O Lord of hosts, to me give heed,
and hear when I do pray:
And let it through thine ears proceed,
O Jacobs God, I say. (grace)
10 O Lord our shield, of thy good regard and so draw near:
Regard, I say, behold the face
of thine anointed dear.

11 For why? within thy courts one day
is better to abide,
Then other where to keep or stay,
a thousand dayes beside.
12 Much rather would I keep a doez
within the house of God,
Then in the tents of wickednesse
to settle mine abode.

13 For God the Lord, light and defence,
will grace and worship give:
And no good thing shall he withhold
from them that purely live.
14 O Lord of hosts, that man is blest,
and happy sure is he,
That is persuaded in his breast,
to trust all times in thee.

Psal. LXXXV. J. H.

Thus hast been mercifull indeed,
O Lord, unto thy land:
For thou restoredst Jacobs seed,
from thralldom out of band.
2 The wicked ways that they were in,
thou didst them clean remir:
And thou didst hide the peoples sins
full close thou coveredst it.

3 Thine anger eke thou didit affwage
that all thy wrath was gone:
And so didst turn thee from thy rage,
with them to be in one.

- 4 O God our help do now convert
thy people unto thee;
But all thy wrath from us apart,
and angry cease to be.
- 5 Why shall thine anger never end,
but still proceed on us?
And shall thy wrath it self extend upon all ages thus?
- 6 Wilt thou not rather turn therefore,
and quicken us; that we,
And all thy folk may evermore
be glad and joy in thee?
- 7 O Lord, on us do thou declare
thy goodness to our wealth:
Show forth to us, and do not spare
thine aid and saving health.
- 8 I will heark what God fasheth for he speaks to his people peace,
And to his saints, that never they return to foolishnesse.
- 9 For why? his help is still at hand,
to such as do him fear:
Whereby great glory in our land shall dwell and flourish there.
- 10 For truth & mercy there shall meet,
in one to take their place:
And peace shall justice with kisse greet,
and there they shall embrace.
- (space)
- 11 As truth from earth shall spring
and flourish pleasantly:
So righteousness shall shew her face,
and look from heaven high.
- 12 Yes, God himself doth take in hand
to give us each good thing:
And through the coasts of all the land,
the earth her fruit shall bring.
- 13 Before his face shall justice go,
much like a guide or stay:
He shall direct his steps also,
and keep them in the way.
- Psalms LXXXVI. 7. H.
- Lord, how thinke ear to my requests,
and hear me by and by:
With grievous pain and grief oppress,
full poor and weak am I.
- 1 Preferre my foul because my wayes
and doings holy be:
And save thy servants O my Lords,
that puts his trust in thee.
- 2 The mercy (Lord) in me expresseth,
defend me eke withall:
For through the day I do not cease
on thee to cry and call.
- 3 Comfort (O Lord) thy servants foul,
that now with pain is pind'd:
For unto thee (Lord) I exalt,
and lift my foul and crunde.
- 4 For thou art good and bountifull,
thy gifts of grace are free:
And eas thy mercy plentiful,
to all that call on thee.
- 5 O Lord, likewise when I do pray,
sugar land give me ear:
Mark well the words that I do say,
and all my prayers hear.
- 7 In time when trouble doth me move,
to thee I do complain:
For why? I know, and well do prove,
thou answerest me again.
- 8 Among the gods (O Lord) is none,
with thee to be compar'd:
And none can do as thou alone,
the like hath not been heard.
- The second part.
- 9 The Gentiles and the people all,
which thou didst make and frames
Before the face on whom thou tall,
and glorifie thy Name. (mighty)
- 10 For why? thou art so much of
all power is in thine own:
Thou workest wonders still in sight,
for thou art God alone.
- 11 O teach me, Lord thy way, and I shall in thy truth proceed:
O joyn my heart to thee so nigh,
that I thy Name may read.
- 12 To thee my God will I give praise,
with all my heart O Lord:
And glorifie thy Name alwayes,
for ever throughout the world.
- 13 For why? the mercy shew'd to me,
is great, and doth excell:
Thou cast my soul in liberty,
out from the lower hell.
- 14 O Lord, the proud against me rise,
and heaps of men of mights:
They seek my soul, and in no wise
will have thee in their sight.
- 15 Thou Lord art mercifull and meek,
fol sick and slow to wrath:
Thy goodness is full greatest, and che thy truth no misfaile hath.
- 16 O turn to me and mercy grants,
thy strength to me apply:
O help, and save thine own servants,
thy hand-maids son am I.
- 17 On me some signe of favour show,
that all my foes may see:
And be ashamed, because (Lord) thou doth help and comfort me.
- Psalms LXXXVII. 7. H.
- This city faul full well endure,
her ground-worke full doth ray
Upon the only hill full faire,
it can no time decay.
- 2 God loves the gates of Sion best,
his grace doth there abide:
He loves them more then all the rest of Jacobs tents beside.
- 3 And glorious things reported be
in Sion, and abroad:
Great things I say, are said of them
then city of our God.
- 4 On Ribah I will cast an eye,
and bear in minde the same:
And Babylon shall bee apply,
and learn to know thy Name.
- 5 Lo! Palestine and Tyre also,
with Ethiopia likewise:
A people old, full long ago
were born, and there did rise.

5 Of Zion they shall say abroad,
that divers men of fame
Have there sprung up; and the high God
hath founded fast the same.

7 In their records to them it shall through Gods device appear,
Of Zion that the chief of all
had his beginning there.
8 The trumpeters with such as sing,
there in great plenty be;
My fountains and my pleasant springs
are compassit all in chee.

Psal. LXXXVIII. J. H.
Lord God of health the hope and stay
L thou art alone to me:
I call and cry throughout the day,
and all the night to thee.
2 O let my prayer soon ascend unto thy sight on high:
Excline thine ears, O Lord, attend
and hearken to my cry.

3 For why? with wo my heart is fill'd,
and doth in trouble swell:
My life and breath almost doth yeild,
and draweth nigh to hell.
4 I am esteem'd as one of them
that in the pit do fall:
And made as one among those men
that have no strength at all.

5 As one among the dead and free
from things that here remain:
It were more easie for me to be
with them then with them are living.
6 As those that lie in graves, I say,
whom thou hast lean forgot:
The which thy hand hath cut away,
and thou regard'st the not.

7 Yea like to one shut up full sure
within the lower pit,
In places dark and all obscure,
and in the depth of it.
8 Thine anger and thy wrath likewise
full sore on me doth lie:
And all thy storms against me rise,
my soul to vex and tire.

9 Thou poust my friends far off from
and mak'ft them hate me sore:
I am shut up in prison ta.
and can come forth no more. (wey, godly) High doth fall through grief and I call to thee, O God:
Throughout the day my hands also
to thee I stretch abroad.

The second part.

10 Dost thou unto the dead declare thy wondrous works of fame?
Thine dead to life again repair,
and praise thee for the same?
11 Or fail thy loving kindness, Lord,
to preach in the grave?
Or shall with them that are deftold,
thy truth her honour never?

12 Shall they that lie in dark full low,
of all thy wonder, wot?
Or there shall taey thy justice know,
where all things are forgot?
13 But I, O Lord, to thee always do cry and call upon:

My prayer eke ere it be day,
shall come before thy face.

15 Why dost thou, Lord, abhor my soul
in grief that seeketh thee?
And now, O Lord, why dost thou hide
thy face away from me?
16 I am afflicted dying still,
from youth this many a year:
Thy terrors which do vex me ill,
with trouble & minde I bear.

17 The furies of thy wrathfull rage
full sore upon me fall:
Thy terrors eke do not asswage,
but me oppresse withall.
18 All day they compasse me about,
as waters at the tide:
And al at once with streams full stouts
befor me on each side.

(friends)
19 Thou seest far from me my
and loves every one:
Yea, and mine old acquaintance all
out of my sight are gone.

Psal. LXXXIX. J. H.
T O sing the mercies of the Lord,
my tongue shall never spares:
And with my mouth from age to age
thy truth I will declare.
2 For I have said that mercy shall
for evermore remain:
In that thou dost the heavens stay,
thy truth appeareth plain.

3 To mine elect, faith God, I made a covenant and behest:
My foresight David to persuade,
I wrote, and did protest:
4 I thy seed for ever I will stay,
and establish in full fast:
And still uphold thy throne always,
from age to age to last.

5 The heavens shew with joy and mirth,
thy wondrous works, O Lord:
They ris in thy church on earth,
thy truth and truth record.
6 Who with the Lord is equal then,
in all the clouds abroad?
Among the sons of all the gods,
whocome is like our God?

7 God in assembly of his saints
is greatly to be dread:
And over all that dwell about,
in terror to be had.
8 Lord God of hosts, in all the world,
what one is like to thee?
On evry side most mighty Lord,
thy truth is seen to be.

9 The raging sea by thine advice, thou rulest at thy will:
And when the waves thereof arise,
thou makest them calm and still.
10 And Egypt (Lord) thou hast subdu'd
and thou hast it destroy'd:
Yes, thou thy foes with mighty arm
hast scatterred v'l abroad.

The second part. (beginning) 11 The heavens are thine and still have likewise the earth and land:

The world and all that is therein,
thou foundedst with thy hand :
12 Both north & south with east & west
thy self didst make and frame :
Both Tabor mount, and eke Hermon,
rejoyce and praise thy Name.

13 Thine arm is strong & full of power,
all might therin doth lie : (hour
The strength of thy right hand each thou liftest up on hie.
14 In righteousness and equity
thou hast thy seat and place :
Mercy and truth are still with thee,
and go before thy face.

15 That folk is blest that knows aright
thy present power, O God :
For in the favour of thy sight
they walk full safe abroad. (day 16 For in thy Name throughout the they joy and much rejoice : (they And through thy righteousness have a pleasant fame and noise.

(aid,
17 For why ? their glory strength and
In thee alone doth lie :
Thy goodness eke that hath us staid,
shall lift our horn on hie. (well, 18 Our strength that doth defend us
the Lord to us doth bring :
The holy One of Israel,
he is our guide and King.

19 Sometimes thy will unto thy saints
in visions thou didst shew :
And thus then didst thou say to them
thy minde to make them know :
20 A man of might I have ere &
your king and guide to be :
And set him up whom I elect,
among the folk to me.

The third part.

21 My servant David I appoint,
whom I have searched out :
And with my holy oil anoint
him king of all the rout.
22 For why ? my hand is ready still
with him for to remain :
And with my arm also I will
him strengthen and sustain.

23 The enemies shall not him oppresse,
they shall him nor devour :
Ne yet the sons of wickednesse
on him have any power.
24 His foes likewise I will destroy
before his face in sight :
And those that hate him I will plague,
and strike them with my might.

25 My truth and mercy eke withhold,
shall still upon him lie :
And in my Name his horn eke shall be lifted up on high.
26 His kingdom I will set to be upon the sea and land :
And eke the running floods shall he embrace with his right hand.
27 He shall depend with all his heart
on me, and thus shall say :
My Father, and say God thou art,
my rock of health and stay.

28 As my first-born I will him take
of all on earth that springs :
His might and honour I will make above all earthly kings.

29 My mercy shall be with him still,
as I my self have told :
My faithfull covenant to fulfill,
my mercy I will hold.

30 And eke his seed I will sustaine
for ever strong and sure :
So that his seed shall still remaine
while heaven doth endure.

The fourth part.

31 If that his sons forsake my law,
and so begin to swerve :
And of my judgement have none aw,
nor will not them observe :
32 Or if they will not use aright
my statutes to them made :
And set all my commandments light,
and will not keep my trade :

33 Then with the rod will I begin,
their doings to amend :
And so will scourge them for their sin,
if that they do offend.
34 My mercy yet, and my goodness,
I will not take him fro :
Nor handle him with craftiness,
and so my truth forgo.

35 But sure my covenant I will holds,
with all that I have spoke :
No word the which my lips have told,
shall alter or be broke.
36 Once sware I by my holiness,
and that perform will I :
With David I shall keep promise,
to him I will not lie.

37 His seed for evermore shall reign,
and eke his throne of might,
As doth the sun, it shall remain
for ever in my sight.

38 And as the moon within the skie
for ever standeth fast
A faithfull witness from on hie,
so shall his kingdom last.

39 But now, O Lord thou dost reioice,
and now thou changest chear :
Yes, thou art wroth with thine sick,
thine own anointed dear.

40 The covenant with thy servant made,
Lord, thou hast quite undone :
And down upon the ground also
haft cast, his royalcrown.

The fift part. (mighty)

41 Thou pluckest his hedges up with his walls thou dost confound :
Thou beatest eke his bulwarks down,
and breakst them to the ground, 42 That he is sore deitroid and torn
of comers by throughout :
And so is made a mock and storn
to all that dwell about.

43 Thow their right hand haft lifted up,
that him so fore annoy :
And all his foes that him devour,
lo, thou haft made to joy. (away, 44 His swords edge thou dost take that should his foes withstand.)

To him is war no victory
thou giv'st, nor upper hand.

45 His glory thou dost also waste,
his thrones his joy and mirth,
By thee are overthrown and cast
full low upon the earth.

46 Thou hast cut off and made full short
his youth and lusty dayes,
And rais'd of him an ill report,
With shame and great disgrace.

47 How long away from me? O Lord;
For ever wilt thou turn?
And still thine anger shall alway,
as fire consume and burn?

48 O call to minde, remember thene
my time consumeth fast:
Why hast thou made the sons of men,
as things in vain to waste?

49 What man is he that liveth here,
and death shall never see?
Or from the hand of hell his soul
shall he deliver free? (nesse,

50 Where is (O Lord) thine old good-
so oft declar'd before,
Which by thy truth and uprightnesse
to David thou hast swore?

51 The great rebukes to minde I call,
that on thy servants lie:
The tailings of the people all
born in my brest have I:

52 Wherewith (O Lord) thine enemies
blasphemed have thy Name:
The steps of thine anointed one
they cease not to defame.

53 All praise to thee, O Lord of hosts,
both now and for the ay: (coasts :
Through skie and earth, and all the

the earth and world abroad:
From age to age, and always still,
for ever thou art God.

3 Thou grindest man through grief and
to dust, or clay, and then,
And then thou cast again, return
again ye sons of men.
4 The iesting of a thousand years,
what is it in thy sight?
As yesterday it doth appear,
or as a watch by night.

5 So soon as thou dost scatter them,
then is their life and trade
All as a sleep, and like the grassie,
whose beauty soon doth fade.
6 Which in the morning shines full but fadeth by and by: (bright,
And is cut down ere it be night,
all withered, dead-and dry.

If one see fourscore, surely then,
we count him wondrous old.

The second part. (chief

11 Yet of this time the strength and the which we count upon,
Is nothing else but painfull grief,
and we as blasts are gone. (there, 12 Who once doth know what strength is what might thine anger hath:
Or is his heart who doth thee fear
according to thy wrath?

13 Instruct us, Lord, to know and try,
how long our days remain:
That then we may our hearts apply,
true wisdom to attain.
14 Return, O Lord, how long wilt thou forth on in wrath proceed?
Shew favour to thy servants now,
and help them at their need.

15 Refresh us with thy mercy soon,
and then our joy shall be,
All times so long as life doth last,
in heart rejoice will we.
16 As thou hast plagued us before,
now also make us glad:
And for the yeers wherein full sore affliction we have had.

17 O let thy work and power appear,
and on thy servants light:
And shew unto thy children dear,
thy glory and thy might.

18 Lord, let thy grace and glory stand,
on us thy servants thus:
Confirm the works we take in hands,
Lord, prosper them to us.

Psal. XCI. J. H.

HE that within the secret place
of God most high doth dwel: t
In shadow of the mightiest grace,
at rest shall keep him well. (holds

2 Thou art my hope and my strong
I to the Lord will say:
My God is he; in him will I
my whole affiance lay.

3 He shall defend thee from the snare
the which the hunter laid:
And from the deadly plague and care,
whereof thou art afraid.

4 And with his wings shall cover thee,
and keep thee safely there:
His faith and truth thy fence shall be,
as sure as shield and spear.

5 So that thou shalt not need, I say,
to fear or be affright,
Of all the shafts that the by day,

a thousand dead shall be,
Ten thousand eke at thy right hand,
and yet shal thou be free.
- 8 But thou haue see it for thy part thine eyes shall well regard ;
That even like to their delect
the wicked have reward.
- 9 For why ? O Lord, I onely lust,
to stay my hope on thee :
And in the highest I put my trust,
my sure defence is he.

behold thy foes, I ſay,
How all that work iniquity,
ſhall periſh and decay.

10 But thou like as an unicorn
ſhalt lift mine horn on high,
With fresh and new prepared oil,
thine ointed king am I.

11 And of my foes before mine eyes
ſhall ſee the fall and shame,
Of all that up againſt me rife,
mine ears ſhall hear the ſame.

12 The just ſhall flouriſh up on high,
as date-trees bud and blow :
And as the cedars multiply,
in Libanus that grow.

and dwelling of our God :
Within his courts they ſpring apace,
and flouriſh all abroad. (brach)

14 And in their age much fruit shall
both fat and well beſeſe :
And pleasanly both bud and ſpring,
with boughes and brancheſ green.

and upright in his will :
He is my rock, my hope, and truſt,
In him there is none ill.

Psalms XCIII. J. H.

T He Lord as King aloft doth reign

his houſehold to defend i For just and true they ſhall it take,
all times without an end.

Psalms XCIV. J. H.
O Lord, thou doſt revnge all wrong,
that office longe to thee :

With vengeance doth to thee belong,
declare that all may see.
2 Set forth thy self for thou of right
the earth doth judge and guide :
Reward the proud and men of might
according to their pride.

(sway)

3 How long shall wicked men bear
with lifting up their voice ?
How long shall wicked men I say,
thus triumph and rejoice ! (out)
4 How long shall they with brags bark and proudly prate their fill ?
Shall they rejoice that be so stout,
whose works are ever ill ?

5 Thy flock O Lord thine heritage,
they spoil and vex full sore:
Against thy people they do rage
still daily more and more.
6 The widows which are comfortless,
and strangers they destroy :
They slay the children fatherless,
and none doth put them by.

(hand)

7 And when they take these things in this talk they have of thee :
Can Jacobs God this understand?
tut, no he cannot see.
8 O folk swifte and people rude,
some knowledge now discern :
Ye fools among the multitude,
at length begin to learn.

(man)

9 The Lord which made the ear of
he needs of right must hear :
He made the eye, all things must then before his sight appear.
10 The Lord doth all the world correct,
and make them understand :
Shall he not then your deeds detect ?
how can you scape his hand ?

The second part. (man.)

11 The Lord doth know the thoughts of his heart he sees full plain : (can The Lord I say) mans thoughts doth and findeth them but vain.
12 But, Lord, that man is happy sure,
whom thou dost keep in awe :
And through correction dost procure
to teach him in thy law.

13 Whereby he shall in quiet rest
in time of trouble sit :
When wicked men shall be suppress,
and fall into the pit.
14 For sure, the Lord will not refuse
his people for to take :
His heritage whom he did chase,
he will no time forsake.

15 Until that judgement be decreed,
to justice to convert :
That all may follow her with speed,
that are of upright heart.
16 But who upon my part shall stand,
against the cursed train ?
Or who shall rid me from their hand
that wicked works maintain ?

17 Except the Lord had been mine aid,
mine enemies to repell :
My soul and life had now been laid
almost as low as hell,

18 When I did say, My foot did slides
I new am like to fail :
The good biefe, Lord, did so provider
to lay me up withall.

19 When with my self I mused much
and could no comfort finde :
Then, Lord thy goodness did me to che :
and that did ease my mische.

20 Wilt thou take sum thy self and draw
with wicked men to so ?
Which with precece in stead of laws,
much mischiefe do commit.

21 For they consult against the life
of righteous men and good :
And in their counseis they are risen
to shed the guiltiefe blood.
22 But yet the Lord he is to me
a strong defences or rock :
He is my God, to whom I flee,
he is my strength and rock.

23 And he shall cause their mischiefe all themselves for to say :
And in their malice they shall fall :
our God shall them destroy.

O Come let us lift up our voices
and sing unto the Lord :
In him our rock of heighth rejoice
let us with one accord.

2 Yet let us come before his face,
to give him thanks and prayses
In singing psalms unto his grace,
let us be glad alwayes.

3 For why ? the Lord he is no doubt
a great and mighty God :
A King above all gods throughout,
in all the world abroad.
4 The secrets of the earth so deeps,
and corners of the land :
The tops of hills that are so steep,
he hath them in his hand.

5 The sea and waters all are his,
for he the same hath wrought :
The earth and all that therein is,
his hand hath made of nougat.
6 Come let us bow and praise the Lord,
before him let us fall :
And kneel to him with one accord,
the which hath made us all.

7 For why ? he is the Lord our God,
for us he doth provide :
We are his flock, he doth us feed,
his sheep, and he our guide.
8 To day if ye his voice will hear,
then harden not your hearts
As ye with grudging many a yees
provok'd me in desart.

9 Whereas your fathers tempted me
my power for to prove :
My wondrous works when they did see,
yet still they would me move.
10 Twice twenty years they did me and I to them did say, (grieve
They erre in heart and not believe,
they have not known my way.

11 Wherefore I swear, when that my was kindled in my brest : (wrath
That they shoud never tread the path
to enter in my rest.

Psal. XCVI. J. H.

Sing ye with praise unto the Lord,
new songs with joy and mirth:
Sing unto him with one accord,
all people on the earth.
2 Versing unto the Lord, I say,
praise ye his holy Name:
Declare and shew from day to day
salvation by the same.

3 Among the heathen eke declare his honour round about:
To shew his wonders do not spare,
in all the world throughout.
4 For why? the Lord is much of might,
and worthy praise alway:
And he is to be dread of rights,
above all gods, I say.

5 For all the gods of heathen folk
are idols that will fade:
But yet our God, he is the Lord,
that hath the heavens made.
6 All praise and honour eke do dwell
for ay before his face:
Both power and might likewise excell,
within his holy place.

7 Ascribe unto the Lord alway,
ye people of the world,
All might and worship eke, I say,
ascribe unto the Lord.
8 Ascribe unto the Lord also,
the glory of his Name:
And eke unto his courts do go,
with gifts unto the same.

The second part.

9 Fall down and worship ye the Lord,
within his temple bright:
Let all the people of the world
be fearfull at his sight.
10 Tell all the world, be not afraid,
the Lord doth reign above:
Ye who hath set the earth so far,
that it can never move.

11 And that it is the Lord alone that rules with princely might:
To judge the nations every one
with equity and right.
12 The heavens shall great Joy begin,
the earth eke shall rejoice:
The sea and all that is therein,
shall shout and make a noise.

13 The field shall joy, and every thing
that springeth on the earth:
The wood and every tree shall sing
with gladnesse and with mirth.
14 Before the presence of the Lord,
and coming of his might:
When he shall justly judge the world,
and rule his folk with right.

Psal. XCVII. J. H.

THe Lord doth reign, whereat the earth
may joy with pleasanter voice:
And eke the isles with joyful mirth
may triumph and rejoice.
2 Both clouds and carnes, eke do swell
and round abo: t ^bblue bears.

Yea, right and Justice ever dwelleth,
and bide about his seat.

3 Yes, fire and heat at once do run,
and go before his face:
Which shall his foes and enemies burn abroad in every place. ^(blue) 4 His lightnings eke full bright did
and to the world appear:
Whereas the earth did look and gaze,
with dread and deadly fear.

5 The hills like wax did melt in sight
and presence of the Lord:
They fled before the rulers might,
which gildereth all the world.
6 The heavens eke declare and show
his Justice all abroad:
That all the world may see and know
the glory of our God.

7 Confusion sure will come to such as worship idols vain:
And eke to those that glory much,
dumb pictures to maintain.
8 For all the idols of the world
which they as gods do call,
Shall feel the power of the Lord,
and down to him shall fall.

9 With joy shall Sion hear this thing,
and Juda shall rejoice:
For at thy judgements they shall sing,
and make a pleasant noise.
10 That thou O Lord, art set on high,
in all the earth abroad:
And art exalted wondrously,
above each other god.

11 All ye that fear the Lord do this,
bare all things that are ill:
For he doth save the souls of his
from such as would them spill.
12 And light doth spring up to the just,
with pleasure for his part:
Great joy with gladnes, mirth and lust,
to them of upright heart.

13 Ye righteous in the Lord rejoice,
his holiness proclaim:
Be thankfull eke with heart and voice,
and mindful of the same.

Psal. XCVIII. J. H.

Sing ye now unto the Lord,
a new and pleasant song: (word
For he hath wrought throughout the his wonders great and strong.
2 With his right hand full worthily
he doth his foes devour:
And get himself the victory,
with his own arm and power. ^(blue)

3 The Lord doth make his people
his saving health and might:
The Lord doth eke his Justice show,
in all the heathens fight.
4 His grace and truth to Israel,
in minde he doth record:
That all the earth hath seen right well
the goodnesse of the Lord.

5 Be glad in him with joyfull voices,
all people of the earth:
Give thanks to God, sing and rejoice
to him with joy and mirth.

6 Upon the harp unto blunting,
give thanks to him with psalms :
Rejoyce before the Lord our King,
with trumpets and with psalms :

7 Yes, let the sea with all therein
for joy both roar and swell :
The earth likewise let it begin,
with all that therein dwell.
8 And let the floods rejoyce their fills,
and clap their hands apace :
And eke the mountains and the hills
before the Lord his face.

9 For he shall come to judge and try
the world and every wight :
And rule the people mightily
with justice and with right.

Psal. XCIX. J. H.

T He Lord doth reign, although at It
the people rage full fore :
Vea he on cherubims doth sit,
though all the world doth roar.
9 The Lord that doth in Sien dwell,
is high and wondrous great :
Above all folk he doth excell,
and he aloft is set.

3 Let all men praise thy mighty Name,
for it is fearfull sure :
And let them magnifie the same,
that holy is and pure.

4 The princely power of our King
doth love judgement and right :
Thou rightly rulest every thing
in Jacob through thy might.

5 To praise the Lord our God devise,
all honour to him do :
Before his footstool worship him,
for he is holy too.
6 Mese, Aaron and Samuel,
as priests on him did call :
When they did pray he heard them well,
and gave them answer ill.

7 Within a cloud to them he speaks,
then did they labour still,
To keep such laws as he did make,
and pointed them until. (hear,
8 O Lord our God, thou didst them
and answeredst them again :
Thy mercy did on them appear,
their deeds didst not maintsin.

9 O laud and pralise our God and Lord,
within his holy hill : (world
For why ? our God throughout the
is holy ever still.

Psal. C. J. H.

A ll people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerfull voice :
8 Him serve with fear his praise forth
come ye before him & rejoyce. (tell:

9 The Lord ye know is God indeed, without our aid he did us make :
We are his flock, he doth us feed,
and for his sheep he doth us take.

c Enter then his gates with psalme,
approach with joy his courts unto :
Praise, laud and blesse his Name always,
for it is sanctly so to do.

5 For why ? the Lord our God is good,
his mercy is for ever sure :
His truth at all times firmly stands,
and shall from age to age endure.

Another of the same, by J. H.

I N God the Lord be glad and light,
praise him throughout the earth :
Serve him and come before his sights,
with singing and with mirth.
2 Know that the Lord our God he is,
he did us make and keep :
Not we our soles : for we are his own flock and pasture sheep.

3 Go into his gates slaves,
give thankes within the same :
Within his courts set forth his praise,
and laud his holy Name.

4 For why ? the goodnessse of the Lord,
for evermore doth reign :
From age to age throughout the world,
his truth doth still remain.

Psal. CI. J. H.

I Mercy will and judgement sing,

1 O Lord God unto thee :

2 And wisly do in perfect way,

until thou come to me.

And in the midst of my house walk,

in purenesse of my sprite :

3 And I no kinde of wicked thing,

will set before my sight.

4 I hate their works that fall away,
it shall not cleave to me :
From me shall part the froward heareys,
none evil will I see.

5 Him will I shroy that slandereth,
his neighbour privily :
The lofty heart I cannot bear,
nor him that looketh high.

6 Mine eyes shall be on them within the land that faithfull be :

In perfect way who walketh shall be servant unto me.

7 I will no guilefull person have,

within my house to dwell :

And in my presence he shall not remain that lies doth tell.

8 Betimes I will destroy even all the wicked of the land :

That I may from Gods city cut,

the wicked workers hand.

Psal. CII. N.

O Hear my prayer, Lord, and less

my cry come unto thee,

2 In time of trouble do not hide,

thy face away from me.

3 Incline thine ear to me, make haste

to hear me when I call :

For as the smoke doth fade, so do

my dayes consume and fall.

4 And as an herth my bones are bursted

my heart is smitten dead :

And withers like the grass, that I forget to eat my bread.

5 By reason of my groaning voice,

my bones cleave to my skin :

6 As pelican in wilderness,

such cast now am I in.

And as an owl in desert Israel am I such in ones
7. I wretched am a sparrow on the house top alone,
8. O Lord my God, branchfull will my enemies be, as I mourn
and they boast of my灾害 (change)
9. Against me cast with bread, in bitter I have been and entreated I we my drink with tears
that from my eyes have roll'd 10. Woe unto the day before Lords are wrath and the judgment
For thou hast stoln my sleep,
and cast me down again.

11. Who doest wherein I passe my life,
are like the fleeting blade:
And I am wither'd like the grass,
which cometh up, doth fade.
12. But thou O Lord, for ever dost remain in Gods place:
and thy remembrance ever doth
abide from race to race.

The secon part.

13. Thou art arise and mercy thou to Sion wilt extend:
The time of mercy now the time
foretold is come to end.
14. For ever in the stones thereof
thy servants do delight:
And on the dust thereof they have compassion in their spite.

15. Then shall the heathen people fear
the Lords most holy Name:
And all the kings on earth shall dread
thy glory and thy fame. (God 16. Then when the Lord the mighty again shall Sion rear:
And then when he most nobly in his glory shall appear.

17. To prayer of the desolate, when he himself doth bende
When he shall not disdain unto their prayers to attend.
18. This shall be written for the age
that after shall succeed:
The people yet uncrened
the Lords renown shall spread.

19. For he from his high sanctuary
hath looked down below:
And out of heaven hath the Lord
beheld the earth also.
20. That of the mourning captive he might hear the wofull cry:
And that he might deliver those
that damned are to die.

21. That they in Sion may declare
the Lords most holy Name:
And in Jerusalem set forth
the priests of the same.
22. Then when the people of the lands,
and kings, as with accord,
Shall be assembled for to do their service to the Lord.

The third part.

23. My former force of strength he hath abated in the way;

And shorter he hath cut my dayes,
then I therefore did say:
24. My God, in midit of all my dayes
now take me not away:
Thy years endure eternally
from age to age, I say.

25. Then the foundations of the earth
before all times hast laid:
And Lord, the heavens are the work
which thine own hands have made, 26. Yes, they shall perish and decay,
but thou shalt carry all:
And they shall all in time wax old,
even as a garment will.

(change)
27. Then as a garment fash them and changed they shall be:
But thou doft still abide the same,
thy years do never see.
28. The children of thy servants shall continually indure:
And in the fight their happy feed
for ever shall stand fare.

Psal. C. III. T. 5.

MY soul give laud unto the Lord,
my spirit shall do the same:
And all the secret of my heart,
praise we his holy Name.
2. Give thanks to God for all his gifts,
few not thy self unkinde:
And suffer not his benefits
to slip out of thy minde.

3. That gave thee pardon for thy faults,
and thee restor'd again:
For all thy weak and frail disease,
and heal'd thee of thy pain.
4. That did redeem thy life from death,
from which thou couldst not flee:
His mercy and compassion both
he did extend to thee.

5. That fill'd with goodness thy deserts
and did prolong thy youth:
Like as the eagle casts her bills,
whereby her age reneweth.
6. The Lord with justice doth repay
all such as be opprest: (wrong)
So that their sufferings and their
are turned to the best.

7. His wayes and his commandements to Moses he did shew:
His counsells and his valiant acts
the Israelites did know.

8. The Lord is kinde and mercifull,
when sinners do him grieve:
The slowest to conceive a wrath,
and readiest to forgive.

9. He chides us not continually,
though we be full of strife:
Nor keeps our faults in memory,
for all our sinfull life.
10. Nor yet according to our sins
the Lord doth us regard:
Nor after o'er iniquities
he doth not us reward.

11. But as the space is wondrous great
'twixt earth and heaven above:
So is his goodness much more large
so them that do him love.

12. God

22 God doth remove our sins from us,
and our offences all :
As far as is the sun-rising,
full distant from his fall.

The second part.

23 And look what pike parents dear
unto their children bear :
Like pike bear eth God to such as worship him in fear. (shape,

24 The Lord that made us knows our our mould and fashion just :
How weak and frail our nature is,
and how we are but dust.

25 And how the time of mortall men
is like the withering hay :
Oy like the flower right fair in field,
that fades full soon awsy. (winder,

26 Whose gloomy and beauty stormy
so shortly disgrace :
And make that after their assaults
such blissons have no place.

27 But yet the goodnessse of the Lord
with his shall ever stand :
Their childrens children shall receive his righteousness at hand.

28 I mean which keep his covenant
with all their whole desire ;
And not forger to do the thing
that he doth them require.

29 The heavens high are made the fest
and foot-stool of the Lord :
And by his power imperiall
he governs all the world.

30 Yeangels which are great in powers,
praise ye and blesse the Lord :
Which to obey and do his will,
immediately accord.

31 Ye noble hosts and ministres,
cease not to laud him still :
Which ready are to execute
his pleasure and his will.

32 Yea all his works in every place
praise ye his holy Name :
My heart, my minde, and eke my soul
praise ye also the same.

Psalms. C IIII. 14. R.
MY soul praise the Lord,
speak good of his Name :
O Lord, our great God,
how dost thou appear ?
So passing in glory,
that great is thy fame.
Honour and majesty
in thee shone most clear.
In light as a robe
thou hast thee beclad :
Whereby all the earth
thy greatness may see.
The heaven in such sorte
thou also hast spreades,
That it to a curtain
compared may be.

3 His chamber-beams lig
in the clouds full sure :
Whch as his chariot
are made him to bear.
And there with much swiftnesse,
His course doth indare,

Upon the wings riding
of wicles in the air.
4 He maketh his spirits
as heralds to go :
And lightnings to serve
we see also prest :
His will to accomplish,
they run to and fro,
To save or consume things,
as seemen him best.

5 He groundeth the earth
so firmly and fast,
That it once to move
none shall have such power.
6 The deep a fair covering
for it made thou hast :
Which by his own nature
the hys would devour.
7 But at thy rebuke
the waters do flee :
And to give due place
thy word to obey.
At thy voice of thunder
so fearfull they be,
That in their great raging
they haste soon away.

8 The mountains full high
they then up ascend :
If thou doft but speake
thy word they falill :
So likewise the valleys
most quickie defens,
Where thou them appointest,
remain they do still.
9 Their bounds thou hast set,
how far they shall run :
So that in their rage
not that passe they can :
For God hath appointed
they shall not return,
The earth to destroy more,
which made was for man.

The second part.
10 He sendeth the springs
to strong streams or lakes,
Which run do full swift
among the huge hills.
11 Where both the wilde asses
their thirst oft times slake,
And beasts of the mountaine
thereof drink their fills.
12 By these pleasant springs
of fountains full fair
The fowls of the air
abide shall and dwelle,
Who moved by nature
to hop here and there, Among the green branches
their songs shall excell.

13 The mountins to moist
the clouds he doth use :
The earth with his works
is wholly reper.
14 So as the brute cattell
he doth not refuse :
But grafe doth provide them,
and herb for mans meat.
15 Yea bread, wine and oil
he made for mans sake :
His face to refresh,
and heart to make strong.

16 The cedars of Liban
this great Lord did make :
Which trees he doth nourish
that grow up so long.

17 In these may birds build,
and make there their nests :
In fir-trees the storks remain and abide.
18 The high hills are succours
for wilde goats to rest :
And eke the rocks stony
for conies to hide.
19 The moon then is set
her season to run :
The dayes from the nights
thereby to discern :
And by the descending
also of the sun,
The cold from heat alway
thereby we do earn.

20 When darknesse doth come
by Gods will and power,
Then creep forth do all
the beasts of the wood.
21 The lions range roaring,
their prey to devour :
But yet it is thou, Lord,
whick givest them food.
22 As soon as the sun
is up, they retire :
To couch in their dens
then are they full fain :
23 That man to his work may,
as right doth require :
Till night come and call him,
to take rest again.

The third part.

24 How sundry, O Lords,
are all thy works found !
With wisdom full great
they are indeed wrought :
So that the whole world
of thy prife doth found :
And as for thy riches,
they passe all mens thought.
25 So is the great sea,
which large is and broad :
Where things that creep swarm,
and beasts of each sort.
26 There both mighty ships sail,
and some lie at road :
The whale huge and monstrous
there also doth sport.

27 All things on thee wait,
thou doft them relieve :
And thou in due time
full welf doft them feed.
28 Now when it doth please thee
the same for to give :
They gather full gladly
those things which they need.
Thou openest thy hand,
and they finde such grace,
That they with good things
are filled we see.
29 But sore are they troubled,
if thou turn thy face,
For if thou their breath takes,
vile dust then they be.

30 Again when thy Spirite
from the dorch proceed
All things to appoint,
and what shall ente i Then are they created,
as thou hast decreed :

And doft by thy goodness
the dry earth renew.
31 The praise of the Lord
for ever shall last :
Who may in his works
by right well rejoice.
32 His looks can the earth make
to tremble full fast :
And likewise the mountains
to smoke at his voice.

33 To this Lord and Gods
sing will I awlays :
So long as I live,
my God praise will I :
34 Then am I most certain
my words shall him please
I will rejoice in him,
to him will I cry.

35 The sinners, O Lord,
confuse in thine ire :
And eke the perverse,
them root out with flames
But as for my soul now,
let it still desire,
And say with the faithfull,
praise ye the Lords Name

Psal. CV. N.

Give praises unto God the Lord,
and call upon his Name :
Among the people eke declare his works to spread his fame.
3 Sing ye unto the Lord, I say,
and sing unto his praise :
And talk of all his wondrous works
that he hath wrought awlays.

3 In honour of his holy Name
rejoyce with one accord :
And let the heart also rejoice
of them that seek the Lord.
4 Seek ye the Lord, & seek the strength of his eternall migh :
And seek his face continually,
and presence of his sight.

5 The wondrous works that he hath keep still in mindfull heart :
Ne let the judgements of his mouth
out of your minde depart.
6 Ye that of faithfull Abraham
his servant are the seed :
Ye his ele&, the children that of Jacob do proceed.

7 For he, he onely is, I say,
the mighty Lord our God :
And his most rightfull judgements
through all the world abroad.
8 His promise and his covenant which he hath made to his
He hath remembred evermore,
to thousands of degrees.

The second part.

9 The covenant which he hath made
with Abraham long ago :
And faithfull oath which he hath sworn to Isaac also,

- 20 And did confirm the same for law,
that Jacob should obey :
And for eternall covenant
to Israel for ay.
- 21 When thus he said, Lo, I to you all Canaan land will give :
The lot of your inheritance,
wherein your seed shall live.
- 22 Although the number at that time
did very small appear :
Yet, very small, and in the land
they then but strangers were. (land)
- 23 While yet they walk'd from land to without a sure abode :
And while from sundry kingdoms they did wander all abroad.
- 24 And wrong at no oppresours hand
he suffered them to take :
But even the great and mighty kings
reproved for their sake.
- 25 And thus he said, Touch ye not those that mine anointed be :
Ne do the prophets any harm
that do pertain to me.
- 26 He call'd a dearth upon the land,
of bread he stroid the store :
But he against the time of need
had sent a man before:
- The third part.*
- 27 Even Joseph which had once been
to live a slave in wo : (gold) Whose feet they hurt in stocks, whose
the irons pierc'd also. (soul)
- 28 Untill the time came when his cause
was knowne apparently :
The mighty word of God the Lord
his faultlesse truth did try.
- 29 The king sent and delivered him
from prison where he was :
30 The ruler of the people then did freely let him passe.
- 31 And over all his house he made
him lord to bear the sway:
And of his substance made him have
the rule and all the stay.
- 32 That he might to his will instruct
the princes of the land :
And wisdoms lore his ancient men
mights cause to understand.
- 33 Then into the Egyptian land
came Israel also :
And Jacob in the land of Ham
did live a stranger tho.
- 34 His people he exceedingly
in number made to flow :
And over all their enemies
in strength he made them grow.
- 35 Whose heart he turn'd that they with his people did entreat : (hate)
And did his servants wrongfully abuse with false deceit.
- The fourth part.*
- 36 His faithfull servant Moses then,
and Aaron whom he chose,
He did command to go to them,
his message to disclose.
- 37 The wondrous message of his signes
among them he did show;
- And wonders In the land of Ham
then did they work also.
- 28 Darknesse he sent, and made it dark
in stead of brighter day :
And unto his commission,
they did not disobey.
- 29 He turn'd their waters into blood,
he did their fishes slay : (the place)
- 30 Their land brought frogs even in where their king Pharaoh lay.
- 31 He spake, and at his voice there cam
great swarms of noisom flies,
And all the quarters of the land
were fill'd with crawling lice.
- 32 He gave them cold and stony hall
in stead of milder rain :
And fiery flames within their land
he cast unto their pain.
- (treee.)
- 33 He smote their vines, and all their whereon their figs did grow :
And all their trees within their coasts down did he overthrow.
- 34 He spake, then caterpillars did
and grasshoppers abound :
- 35 Which ate the grasse in all their lee
and fruit of all their ground.
- The fifth part.*
- 36 The first-begotten in their land
eke deadly he did smite :
Yea, the beginning and first fruit
of all their force and might.
- 37 With gold & silver he them brought from Egypt land to passe :
And in the number of their tribes
no feeble one there was.
- 38 Egypt was glad and joyfull then
when they did thence depart :
For terror and the fear of them
was fal'n upon their heart. (heat)
- 39 To shroud them from the parching
a cloud he did display :
And fire he sent to give them light,
when night had hid the day.
- 40 They ask'd, and he caused quails
to rain at their request :
And fully with the bread of heaven
their hunger he represt.
- 41 He opened the stony rock,
and waters gushed out :
And in the dry and parched ground
like rivers ran about.
- 42 For of his holy covenant
ay mindfull was he tho :
Which to his servant Abraham
he plighted long ago. (misib)
- 43 He brought his people forth with
and his cleft with joy,
Out of the cruel land, where they had liv'd in great annoy.
- 44 And of the heathen men he gave
to them the fruitfull lands :
The labours of the people eke
they took into their hands.
- 45 That they his holy statutes might observe for evermore :
And faithfully obey his laws :
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Psalms VI. No

Praise ye the Lord, for he is good,
his mercy dures for ay :
 2 Who can expresse his noble acts,
or all his praise display ? (keep,
 3 They blessed are that judgement
and justly do alway :
 With favour of thy people (Lord)
remember me; I pray.

4 And with thy feeling health (O Lord)
you safte to visit me :
 That I the great felicity
of thine elect may see :
 5 And with thy peoples joy I may
a joyful minde possesse :
 And may with thine inheritance
a gloryng heart expresse.

6 Both we and eke our fathers alle
have sinned every one :
 We have committed wickednesse,
and lowly we have done. (Lord)
 7 The wonders great which thou (O
hast done in Egypt land :
 Our fathers, though they saw them all,
yet did not understand.

Not yet thy mercies multitude
did keep in thankfull minde :
 But at the sea, yea the Red-sea
rebelled most unkinde.
 8 Neverthelesse he saved them
for honour of his Name :
 That he might make his power knowne,
and spread abroad his fame.

9 The Red sea he did then rebukes
and forthwith it was dri'd :
 And as so wildernes, so through the deep he di's them guide.
 10 He sav'd them from the cruell hand
of their despitfull fo :
 And from the enemis hand he did deliver them also.

The second part. (whilm'd,

 12 Then they believ'd his words, and in song they did him give.
 13 But by and by unthankfully
his works they clean forgot :
 And for his counsell and his will
they did neglect to wait.

14 But lustful in the wildernes,
with fond and greedy lust :
 And in the desert temped God,
the day of all their trust.
 15 And then their wanton mindes desire
he suffered them to have :
 But wastyng iemannys therewithall unto their souls he gave. (tents,

16 Then when they lodged in their
at Moses they did grutch :
 Against the holy of the Lord
so did they envie much.
 17 Therefore the earth did open wide,
and Dathan did deuour :
 And all Abirams company
did cover in that hole.

18 In their assembly kindled was the hot consuming fire :.

And waiting Name did then burn up
the wicked in his ire.
 19 Upon the hill of Horeb they
an idol calf did frame :
 And there the molten image they did worship of the same.

20 Into the likenesse of a calf
which feedeth on the grasses,
Thus they their glory turn'd, and all their honour did deface.

21 And God their onely Savione
unkindly they forgot :
 Which many, great, and mighty things
in Egypt land had wrought.

The third part.

22 And in the land of Ham for them
most wondrous works had done :
 And by the Red-sea dreadfull things
performed long agone.

23 Therefore for their so shewing them
forgetfull and unkinde:
 To bring destruction on them all
he purpos'd in his minde.

24 Had not his chosen Moses stood before him in the break,
 To turn his wrath, lest he on them
with slaughter shoud him wreak.

25 They did despise the pleasant land,
that he behight to give :
 Yes, and the words that he had spoke
they did no whit beleeve. (heart,

26 But in their tents, with grudging
they wickedly repin'd :
 Nor to the voice of God the Lord
they gave an hearkning minde.

27 Therefore against them lifte he
his strong revenging hand,
 Them to destroy in wildernes,
ere they should see the hand.

28 And to destroy their seed among the nations with his rod :
 And through the countreyes of the world
to scatter them abroad.

29 To Basile-Poor then they did adjoyn themselves also :
 And ate the offerings of the dead,
se they forsook him tho.

30 Thus with their own inventions
his wrath they did provoke :
 And in his fore unkindele wrath
the plague upon them broke.

31 But Phinhas stood up with zeal,
the sinners vyle to slay :
 And judgement he did execute,
and then the plague did slay.

The fourth part.

32 It was imputed unto him
for righteousness that day :
 And from thenceforth so counted las
from race to race, I say.

33 At waters eke of Meribah
they did him angry make :
 Yes, so far forth, that Moses was then punish'd for their sake. (fore)

34 Because they vex'd his spirit so that in impatienc heat
His lips spake unadvisedly,
his fervourwas so great.

84 Nor as the Lord commanded them, And shew how they fro fote were freed
they flew the people tho : and how he wrought the same.

the guiltyes blood they spilt :

Yes, their own sons & daughters bloods
without all cause of guilt.

Whom they to Canaan idols then offered with wicked hand :

And so with blood of innocents
defiled was the land. (works

39 Thus were they stained with the
of their own filthy way :

And with their own inventions
a whoring they did stray.

40 Therefore against his people was the Lords wrath kindled fore :

And even his own inheritance
he did abhor therefore.

41 Into the hands of heathen men
he gave them for a prey : (they

And made their foes their lords, whom were forced to obey.

The fifth part.

42 Yet, and their hatfull enemies
opprest them in the land :

And they were humbly made to stoop,
as sublett to their hand.

43 Full oftentimes from thensl had he delivered them before :

But with their counsells they to wrath
provok'd him evermore.

Therefore they by their wickednes
were brought full low to lie :

44 Yet when he saw them in distresse,
he hearkened to their cry.

45 He call'd to minde his covenant,
which he to them had swore :

And by his mercies multitude repented him therefore.

46 And favour he them made to finde,
before the sight of those

That led them captive from their land,
when erst they were their foes.

47 Save us, O Lord, that art our God,
save us (O Lord) we pray,

And from among the heathen folk
Lord, gather us away.

48 That we may spread the noble praise
of thy most holy Name :

That we may glory in thy praise,
and sounding of thy fame.

49 The Lord, the God of Israel
be blesst for evermore :

Let all the people say, Amen,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Psal. Cviij. W. K.

G I ve thanks unto the Lord our
for gracious is he : (God,

And that his mercy hath no end,
all mortall men may see.

2 Such as the Lord redeemed hath with thanks shall praise his Name :

And shew how they fro fote were freed
and how he wrought the same.

3 He gathered them forth of the lands,
that lay so far about :
From east to west, from north to south
his hand did finde them out.

4 They wandered in the wilderness,
and strayed from the way :
And found no city where to dwell,
that serve might for their stay.

5 Whose thirst and hunger was so great
in these deserts so void :

That faintnesse did them sore assaile,
and eke their soules anoid.

unto the Lord for aid :
Who did remove their troublous state
according as they prai'd.

(righte,

7 And by that way which was most
he led them like a guide :
That they might to a city go,
and there also abide.

8 Let men therefore before the Lord
confesse his kindness then :
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.

9 For he the empty soul sustain'd,
whom thirst had made to faint :
The hungry soul with goodnesse fed,
and did them eke acquaint.

aristeth in a rage :
And stirreth up the surges so,
that nought can them allswage.
26 Then are they lifted up so high,
the clouds they seem to gain :
And plunging down the depth untill,
their souls consume with pain.
- 27 And like a drunckard to and fro,
now here now there they reel :
As men with fear of wit bereft,
or had of sense no feel.
28 Then did they cry in their distresse
unto the Lord for aid :

32 Let them in presence of the folk with praise extoll his Name :
And where the elders do convent,
there let them do the same.
- 33 For running floods to dry deserts
he doth oft change and turn :
And drieth up as it were dust
the springing well and bourn.
34 A fruitfull land with pleasures deck'd
full barren doth he make,
When on their fins that dwelt therein
he doth just vengeance take.
- 35 Again, the wilderness full rude
he maketh fruit to bear,

which did them sore oppresse :
And likewise caused them to erre
within the wildernes.
- 41 But yet the poor he raiseth up
out of their troubles deep :
And oft times doth their train augment
much like a flock of sheep.
42 The righteous shall behold this sight,
and also much rejoice :
Whereas the wicked and perverse
with grief shall stop their voies.
- 43 But who is wise, that now full well
he may these things record ?
For certainly such shall perceive
the kindness of the Lord.

Psal. CVIII. J. H.

- O God, my heart prepared is,
and eke my tongue is so :
I will advance my voice in song,
and giving thanks also.
2 Awake my viol and my harp,
sweet melody to make :
And in the morning I my self
right early will awake.
- 3 By me among the people, Lord,
still praised shall thou be :
And I among the heathen folk
will sing, O Lord, to thee.
4 Because thy mercy, Lord, is great,
above the heavens hie :
And o'er thy truth doth reach the clouds
within the lofty skie.
- 5 Above the starry heavens high
exalt thy self, O God :
And, Lord, display upon the earth
thy glory all abroad.
6 That thy dearly beloved may be set at liberty :
Help, O my God with thy right hand,
and hearken unto me.
- 7 God is his holiness hath spoke,
whereof my eyes abound a Sicm I will divide, and mete
the vales of Succoth ground.
8 And Gillead shall be mine ows, Manasses mine shall be :
My head-strength, Ephraim, and law
shall Judah give for me.

P'alm Six:

¶ 9 Mock my wash-pot, and my shoe,
on Edom will I throw :
Upon the land of Palestine
in triumph will I go.
10 Who shall into the city strong
be guide to conduct me ?
Or how, by whom to Edom land conveyed shall I be ?

11 Is it not thou, O Lord, which late hadst us forsaken quite ?
And thou, O Lord, which with our hosts
didst not go forth to fight ?
12 Give us, O Lord, thy living aid,
when troubles do assail :
For all the help of man is vain,
and can no whit avail.

and worthy of renown :
He shall subdue our enemies,
yea, he shall tread them down.

P'alm. CIX. N.

IN speechless silence do not hold,
O God, thy tongue always :
O God even thou, I say, that art
the God of all my praise.
2 The wicked and the guilefull mouth
on me disclosed be :
And they with false and lying tongues
have spoken unto me.

to have the upper hand :
At his right hand eke suffer thou
his katefull foe to stand.
7 When he is judged, let him then condemned be therein :
And let the prayer that he makes,
be turned into sin.

8 Few be his dayes, his change also let thou another take :
9 His children let be fatherlesse,
his wife a widow make.
10 Let his off-spring be vagabonds,
to beg and seek their bread :
Wandering out of the wasted place,
where erst they have been fed.

11 Let covetous extortions
catch all his goods and store ;
And let the stranger spoil the fruit
of all his toil before.
12 Let there be none to pity him,
let there be none at all That on his children fatherlesse
will let their mercy fall.

The second part.

13 And so let his posterity
for ever be destroyed :
Their name out-blotted in the age
that after shall succeed.
14 Let not his fathers wickednesse
from Gods remembrance fail ;

And let not thou his mothers sin
be done away at all.

15 But in the presence of the Lord
let them remain for ay :
That from the earth their memory
he may cut clean away.
16 Sith mercy he forgot to shew,
but did pursue with spight
The troubled man, and fought to lay the wofull hearted wight.

17 As he did cursing love, it shall beride unto him so :
And as he did not blessing love,
it shall be far him fro.
18 As he with cursing clad himself,
so it like water shall

deal thou, I say, with me
After thy Name, deliver me,
for great thy mercies be.
22 Because in depth of great distress
I needy am and poor :
And eke within my pained brest
my heart is wounded sore.

The third part.

23 Even so do I depart away,
as doth declining shade :
And as the grasshopper, so I am shaken off and fade.
24 With fasting long from needful
enfeebled are my knees :
And all her fatnesse hath my flesh
enforced been to leese.

25 And I also a vile reproach,
to them am made to be :
And they that did upon me look,
did shake their heads at me.
26 But thou, O Lord, that art my God,
mine aid and succour be :
According to thy mercy, Lord,
save and deliver me.

They shall arise and come to shame,
thy servant shall rejoice.

29 Let them be clothed all with shame
that enemies are to me :
And with confusion as a cloak
eke covered let them be.
30 But greatly I will with my mouth
give thanks unto the Lord :
And I among the multitude
his praiser will record.

31 For he with help at his right hand will stand the poor man by :
To save him from the man that would condemn his soul to die.

Psal. CX. N.

THe Lord did say unto my Lord,
Set thou on my right hand :
Till I have made thy foes a stool,
Whercon thy feet shall stand.
2 The Lord shall out of Sion send
The scepter of thy might :
Amid thy mortall foes be thou
the ruler in their sight.

3 And in the day on which thy reign
and power they shall see :
Then heretofore free-will offerings shall
the people offer thee.
Yes, with an holy worshipping
then shall they offer all :
Thy birth-dew is the dew that doth
from womb of morning fall.

4 The Lord hath sworn, and never will repeat what he doth say :
By th'order of Melchisedech
thou art a priest for ay.

5 The Lord thy God on thy right hand
that Randerth for thy day :
Shall wound for thee the stately kings
upon his wrathfull day.

6 The heathen he shall judge and fill
the place with bodies dead :
And over divers countreys shall
in sunder smite the head.
7 And he shall drink out of the brook
that runneth in the way :
Wherefore he shall lift up on high
his roiall head that day.

Psal. CXI. N.

WIth heart I do accord,
To praise and laud the Lord,
In presence of the just.
2 For great his works are found,
To search them such are bound,
As him do love and trust.
3 His works are glorious
Also his righteousnesse
It doth endure for ever.
4 His wondrous works he would
We still remember shoud,
His mercy faileth never.

5 Such as to him love bear,
A portion full fair
He hath up for them laid :
For this they shall well finde,
He will them have in minde,
And keep them as he said.
6 For he did not disdain
His works to shew them plain,
By lightnings and by thunders :
When he the heathens land
Did give into their hand,
Where they beheld his wonders.

7 Of all his works entw'th
Both judgement, right and truth,
Whereto his statutes tend :
8 They are decreed sure
For ever to endure
Which equity doth end ;
Redemption he gave
His people for to sayt.

9 And hath also required,
His promise not to fail,
But alwayes to prevail,
His holy Name be feared.

Psal. CXVI. N.

I Love the Lord, because my voice,
and prayer heard hath he :

2 When in my days I call'd on him,
he bowed his ear to me.

3 Even when the snares of cruel death
about beset me round :
When paine of hell me caught, and when I wo and sorrow found.

4 Upon the Name of God my Lord,
then did I call, and say.

Deliver thou my soul, O Lord,
I do thee humbly pray.

5 The Lord is very mercifull,
and just he is also :
And in our God compassion
doth plentifully flow.

6 The Lord in safety doth preferre
all those that simple be :

I was in wofull misery,
and he delivered me.

7 And now my soul, sith thou art safe,
return unto thy rest :
For largely, lo, the Lord to thee
his bounty hath exprest.

8 Because thou hast delivered
my soul from deadly thrall :
My moistned eyes from mournful tears,
my sliding feet from fall.

8 Better it is to trust in God,
then in mans mortall seed :
9 Or to put confidence in kings
or priaces in our need.
10 All nations have incloed me,
and compassed me round :
But in the Name of God shall I
mine enemies confound.
11 They kept me in on every side,
they kept me in, I say :
But in the Lords most mighty Name,
I shall work their decay.
12 They came about me all like bees,
but yot in the Lords Name, (fire,
I quench'd their thorns that were on
and will destroy the same.

The second part.

13 Thou hast with force thrust sore at thee I indeed might fall : (me,
But through the Lord I found such help,
that they were vanquish't all.
14 The Lord is my defence & strength
my joy, my mirth, my song ;

He is become for me ladesd,
a Saviour most strong.

(God)

15 The right hand of the Lord our doth bring to passe great things :
He causeth voice of joy and health
in righteous mens dwellings.
16 The right hand of y Lord doth bring most mighty things to passe :
His hand hath the preeminence,
his force is as it was.

17 I shall not die, but ever live
to utter and declare (power)
The Lord his might and wondrous
his works, and what they are.
18 The Lord himself hath chastened,
and hath corrected me :
But hath not given me over yet
to death, as ye may see.

19 Set open unto me the gates of truth and righteousness :
That I may enter into them,
the Lords praise to expresse.

20 This is the gate even of the Lord,
which shall not so be shut :
But good and righteous men alway
shall enter into it.

The third part.

21 I will give thanks to thee, O Lord,
because thou hast heard me,
And art become most lovingly
a Saviour unto me. (among 22 The stone which ere this time
the builders was refus'd :
Is now become the corner stone,
and chiefly to be us'd.

23 This was the mighty work of God,
this was the Lords own fa :
And it is marvellous to behold
with eyes that noble st.
24 This is the joyfull day indeed,
which God himself hath wrought :
Let us be glad and joy therein,
in heart, in minde, and thought.

25 Now help us, Lord, and prosper us :
we will with one accord :
26 Blessed is he that comes to us
in the name of the Lord.
27 God is the Lord that shews us light,
bind ye therefore with cord
Your sacrifice to the altar,
and give thanks to the Lord.

28 Thou art my God, I will confess
and render thanks to thee :
Thou art my God, and I will praise
thy mercy towards me.
29 O give ye thanks unto the Lord,
for gracious is he :
Because his mercy doth indure
for ever towards me.

Psal. CXIX. W. W.

A L E P H.

Blessed are they that perfect are,
and pure in minde and heart :

Whose lives and conversations

from Gods lawe never start.

30 Blessed are they that give themselves
his statutes to observe :
Seeking

Seeking the Lord with all their heart,
and never from him swerve.

3 Doubtless such men go not astray,
nor do no wicked thing :
Which steadfastly walk in his way,
without any wandering.
4 It is thy will and commandment
that with attentive heed
Thy noble and divine precepts
we learn and keep indeed.

5 O would to God it might thee please
my ways so to address :
That I might both in heart and voice
thy laws keep and confess.
6 So should no shame my life attain,
whilst I thus set mine eyes,
And bend my minde alwayes to muse
on thy sacred deccrees.

(hearts,

7 Then will I praise with upright
and magnifie thy Name,
When I shall learn thy judgements just,
and likewise prove the same.
8 And wholly will I give my self
to keep thy laws most right :
For sake me not for ever, Lord,
but shew thy grace and might.

BETH. The second part.

9 By what means may a young man best
his life learn to amend ?
If that he mark and keep thy words,
and therein his time spend.
10 Unfeignedly I have thee sought,
and thus seeking abide :
O never suffer me, O Lord,
from thy precepts to slide.

11 Within my heart & secret thoughts
thy words I have hid still:
That I might not at any time offend thy godly will.
12 We magnifie thy Name, O Lord,
and praise thee evermore :
Thy statutes of most worthy fame,
O Lord, teach me therefore.

13 My lips have never ceas'd to preach,
and publish day and night,
The judgements all which did proceed
from thy mouth full of might.
14 Thy testimonies and thy wyses,
please me no lesse indeed,
Then all the treasures of the earth,
which worldlings make their need.

15 Of thy precepts I will still muse,
and therero frame my talk :
As at a mark so will I aim,
thy wayer how I my walk.
16 My onely joy shall be so fixt,
and on thy laws so fet :
Tost nothing can me so farblinde,
that I thy words forget.

GIMEL. The third part.

17 Grant to thy servant now such grace
as may my life prolong :
Thy holy word then will I keep
both in my heart and tongue.
18 Mine eyes which were dim & shut up,
so open and make bright :
That of thy law and marvellous works
I may have the clear sight.

19 I am a stranger in this earth,
wandering now here, now there :
Thy word therefore to me discloseth
my footsteps for to clear.
20 My soul is ravish'd with desire,
and never is at rest :
But seeks to know thy judgements high,
and what may please thee best.

21 The proud men and malicious
thou hast destroide each one :
And curse, as such as do not thy hefts attend upon. (shame, 22 Lord, turn from me rebuke and
which wicked men conspire :
For I have kept thy covenants
with zeal as hot as fire..

23 The princes great in counsell saty
and did against me speak :
But then thy servant thought how he thy statutes might not break.
24 For why thy covenants are my joys
and my hearts great solace :
They serve in stead of counsellours,
my matters set to passe.

DALETH. The fourth part.

25 I am also as brought to graves,
and almost turn'd to dust :
Restore therefore my life again,
as thy promise is just.
26 My wyses when I acknowledg'd
with mercy thou didn't hear :
Hear now effoon and me instruct thy laws to love and fear.

(know

27 Teach me once throughly for to thy precepts and thy lore :
Thy works then will I meditate,
and lay them up in store.
28 My soul I feel so sore opprest,
that it melteth for grief :
According to thy word therefore,
haste, Lord, to send relief.

29 From lying and deceitfull lips,
let thy grace me defend :
And that I may learn thee to love,
thy holy law me fend. (sure, 30 The way of truth both straignt and
I have chosen and found.
I set thy judgements me before,
which keep me safe and sound.

31 Since then, O Lord, I forsd my feld)
thy covenants to embrace :
Let me therefore have no rebuko,
nor chek in any case.

32 Then will I run with joyfull cheay
where thy word doth me call :
When thou hast set my heart at larges,
and rid me out of thrall.

NUN. The fifth part.

33 I strot me, Lord, in the right trade of thy statutes divine :
And it to keep even to the end,
my heart will I incline.
34 Grant me the knowledge of thy law,
and I shall it obey : (mights
With heart and minde, and all my
I will it keep I say.

35 In the right paths of thy precepts guide me, Lord, I require :

None

- None other pleasure do I wish,
nor greater thing desire.
25 Incline my heart thy laws to keep,
and covenants to embrace :
And from all fit by avarice,
Lord, shield me with thy grace.
- 27 From vain desires and worldly lusts
turn back mine eyes and sight :
Give me the spirit of life and power,
(to walk thy wayes aright.) (Lord,
- 28 Confirm thy gracious promise,
which thou hast made to me :
Which am thy servant, and do love
and fear nothing but thee.
- (fear,
- 39 Reproch and shame which I so
from me, O Lord, expell :
For thou dost judge with equity,
and therein dost excell.
- 40 Behold, my hearts desire is bent
thy laws to keep for ay :
Lord, strengthen me so with thy grace,
that it perform I may.
- V A U. The sixt part.
- 41 Thy mercies great and manifold,
let me obtain. O Lord :
Thy saving health let me enjoy,
according to thy word.
- 42 So shall I stop the fanderous mouths
of lewd men and unjust
For in thy faithfull promises
Hands my comfort and trust.
- (mouth
- 43 The word of truth within my
lēt ever still be prest :
For in thy judgements wonderfull
my hope doth stand and rest. (breath
- 44 And whilst that breath within my doth naturall life preserve :
Lesstill this world shal be dissolv'd,
thy law wil I observe.
- 45 So walk will I in set at large,
and made free from all dread :
Because I sought how to keep
thy precepts and thy read.
- 46 Thy noble acts I will describe
as things of most great fame :
Even before kings I will them blazē,
and shrink no whit for shame.
- 47 I will rejoice then to obey
thy worthy hefts and will :
Which evermore I have lov'd best,
and so will love them still.
- 48 My hands I will lift to thy laws,
which I have dearly fought :
And prafise thy commandements
in will, in deed, in thought.
- Z A I N. The seventh part.
- 49 Thy promise which thou mad'st to thy servant, Lord, remember : (me
- For therein do I put my trust,
and confidence for ever.
- 50 It is my comfort and my joy,
when troubles me assil :
For were my life net by thy word,
my life would soon me fail.
- 51 The proud, and such as God contemn
still made of me a scorn :
Wer would I not thy law forsake,
as he that were forlorn :
- 52 But call'd to minde, Lord, thy grem
shew'd to our fathers old : (work
- Whereby I felt the joy surmount
my grief an hundred fold.
- 53 But yet, alas, for fear I quake,
seeing how wicked men Thy law forsook, and did procure thy judgements upon them.
- 54 And as for me I fram'd my songs
thy statutes to exalt :
When I among the strangers dwelt,
and thoughts gan me assault.
- 55 I thought upon thy Name, O Lord,
by night when others sleep :
As for thy law, also I kept,
and ever will it keep.
- 56 This grace I did obtain, because thy covenants sweet and dear
I did embrace, and also keep,
with reverence and with fear.
- H E T H. The eighth part.
- 57 O God, which art my part and lots,
my comfort and my stay :
I have decreed and promised,
thy law to keep alway.
- 58 Mine earnest heart did humbly sus
in presence of thy face :
As thou therefore hast promised,
Lord, grant me of thy grace,
- 59 My life I have examined,
and tri'd my secret heart,
Which to thy statutes caused me
my feet straight to convert.
- 60 I did not stay, nor linger long,
as they that slothfull are :
But hastily thy laws to keep,
I did my self prepare.
- 61 The cruell bands of wicked men
have made of me their prey :
Yet would I not thy law forget,
nor from thee go astray. (me
- 62 Thy righteous judgements towards
so great are and so high :
That even at midnight will I rise,
thy Name to magnifie.
- 63 Companion am I to all them
which fear thee in their heart :
And never will for love nor dread
from thy commandments start.
- 64 Thy mercies, Lord, most plenteously
do all the world fulfill.
O teach me how I may obey,
thy statutes and thy will.
- T E T H. The ninth part.
- 65 According to thy promise, Lord,
so hast thou with me dealt
For of thy grace in sandy forts
have I thy servant felt.
- 66 Teach me to judge alwayes aright,
and give me knowledge sure :
For certainly believe I do that thy precepts are pure.
- 67 Ere thou didst touch me with thy
I err'd and went astray :
But now I keep thy holy word,
and make it all my stay.
- 68 Thou art both good and gracious,
and giv'st most liberally : (rod

- These ordinances how to keep:
therefore, O Lord, teach me.
(forg'd)
- 69 The proud and wicked men have against me many a lie:
Ver thy commandments still obserue
with all my heart will I. (wealthy)
- 70 Their hearts are swoln with worldly
as gresse so are they fat:
But in thy law do I delight,
and nothing seek but that.
- 71 O happy time, may I well say,
when thou didst me correct:
For as a guide to learn thy law is thy rod did me direk.
- 72 So that to me thy word and laws,
is deare manifold (gold),
Then thousands great of silver and
or ought that can be told.
- J O D. The tenth part.*
- 73 Seeing thy hands have made me,
to be thy creature: (Lord,) Grant knowledge like wise how to learn to put thy laws in ure.
- 74 So that they for thee shall rejoice,
when ever they me see:
Because I have learn'd by thy word,
to put my trust in thee. (plagu'd)
- 75 When with thy rods the world is
I know the cause is just:
So when thou dost correct me, Lord,
the cause just needs be must.
- 76 Now of thy goodnessse, I thee pray,
some comfort to me send:
As thou to me hast promised,
so from all ill me shend.
- 77 Thy tender mercies pour on me,
and I shall surely live:
For joy and consolation both
thy law to me doth give. (pretence)
- 78 Confound the proud; whose false
is me for to destroy i:
But as for me thy hosts to know,
I will my selfe impoy.
- 79 Who so with reverence do thee fear,
to me let them retire:
And such as do thy covenants know,
and them alone desire.
- 80 My heart without all wavering
let on thy laws be bent:
That no confusion come to me,
whereby I should be shent.
- J A P H. The eleventh part.*
- 81 My soul doth faint and crascht not,
thy saving health to crave:
And for thy words like still I trust,
my hearts desire to have.
- 82 Mine eyes do fail with looking for thy word, and thus I say:
O when will thou me comfort, Lord,
why dost thou thus delay?
- 83 As a skin-bottle in the smoke,
so am I parcht and drid':
Yet will I not out of my heart
let thy commandments slide.
- 84 Alas, how long shall I yet live,
before I see the hour,
That on my foes which me torment,
thy vengeance thou wilt pour?
- 85 Presumptuous men have digged
thinking to make me sure: (pits)
Thus contrary against thy law
my hurt they do procure.
- 86 But thy commandments are all true,
and easelesse they me grieve:
To thee therefore I do complain,
that thou mightst me reieve.
- 87 Almost they had me clear destroide,
and brought me quite to ground:
Ver by thy fustures I abode,
and therein succour found.
- 88 Restore me, Lord, again to life,
for thy mercies excell:
And so gall I thy covenants keep,
till death my life expell.
- L A M E D. The twelfth part.*
- 89 In heaven Lord where thou dost
thy word is shalghture: (dwells)
And shall for all eternity
fast graven there indure.
- 90 From age to age thy truth abides,
as doth the earth witnessse: (true) Whoso ground-work thou hast laid to
as no tongue can expresse.
- 91 Even to this day we may well see,
how all things persevere
According to thine ordinace,
for all things thee do fear.
- 92 Had it not been that in thy law
my soul had comfort sought:
Long time ere now in my distresse
I had been brought to nougnt.
- 93 Therefore will I thy precepts ay
in memory keep fast:
By them thou hast my life restor'd
when I was at least cast.
- 94 No wight to me can title make
for I am only thine:
Save me therefore, for to thy laws,
mine ears and heart incline.
- 95 The wicked men do seek my bane,
and thereto lie in wait,
But I the while considered
thy noble works and great.
- 96 I see nothing in this wide world,
at length whch hath not end:
But thy commandments and thy word
beyond all bounds extend.
- M B M. The thirteenth part.*
- 97 What great desire and fervent love
do I bear to thy law?
All the day long I meditate on it with reverent sw. (passie)
- 98 Thy word hath taught me far to my fes in policy:
For still I hold it as a thing
of most excellency.
- 99 My teachers which did me instruct in knowledge I excell:
Because I do thy covenants keep,
and them to others tell.
- 100 In wisdom I do passe also
the ancient men indeed:
And all because to keep thy laws,
I held it by best reed.
- 101 My feet I have refrained etc
from every evill way:
Because

Because that I continually thy word might keep, I say. (ments, 202 I have not swerve'd from thy judge-
nor yet shrank any debt:
Nor why? thou hast me taught thereby,
to live godly and well.

103 O Lord, how sweet unto my taste finde I thy words alway!
Doubtless no honey in my mouth feel ought so sweet I may!
104 Thy laws have me such wisdom
that utterly I hate (learn'd
All wicked and ungodly ways,
In every kind or rate.
N U N. The fourteenth part.
105 Even as a lantern to my feet,
so doth thy word shine bright:
And to my paths where ever I go,
it is a flaming light. (form 106 I have both sworne and will per-
my promises doubtlesse,
That I will keep thy judgements just,
and them in life expresse.

that dangers me affest:
Yet do I not thy law forget,
nor it to keep will fall. (nets, 110 Although the wicked laid their
to catch me at a bay:
Yet did I not from thy precepts
once swerve or go astray.

111 Thy law I have so claim'd alway,
as mine own heritage:
And why? for therein I delights,
and set my whole courage:
112 For evermore I have been bent
thy statutes to fulfill:
Even so likewife unto the end
I will continue still.

S A M E C H. The fifteenth part.
113 The crafty thoughts and double
I do alwayes detest: (hearts
But as for thy law and precepts,
I love them ever best.
114 Thou art my hid and secret place,
my shield of strong defence:
Therefore have I thy promises
look'd for with patience.

115 Go to therefore ye wicked men,
depart from me anon:
For the commandments will I keep
of God my Lord alone.
116 As thou hast promis'd, so perform,
that death me not affest:
Nor let my hope abuse me so,
that through distrust I quall.

117 Uphold me, and I shall be safe,
for ought they do or say:
And in thy statutes pleasure take will I both night and day.

118 Thou hast trode such under thy as do thy statutes break: (see
For nought avails their subtilty,
their counsell is but weak. (one

119 Like drose thou casts the wicked
where ere they go or dwell
Therefore can I as thy statutes
love nothing half so well.
120 My right alas is taken with fear,
as though it were benumb'd:
For when I see thy judgements straight
I am as one astor'd.

A N. The sixteenth part.

121 I do the thing that lawfull is,
and give to all men right:
Resigne me not to them that would,
oppress me with their might.
122 But for thy servant surely be in that thing which is good:
That proud men give me not the foll
which rage as they were wood. (blinde,

123 Mine eyes with waiting are now
thy health so much I crave:
And eke thy righteous promise, Lord,
whereby thou wilt me save.
124 Intreat thy servant lovingly,
and favour to him shew:
Thy statutes of most excellency,
teach me also to know.

125 Thy humble servant (Lord) I am,
grant me to understand,
How by thy statutes I may know
best what to take in hand.
126 It is now time (Lord) to begin
for truth is quite decaid:
Thy law likewise they have transgrest
and none against them said.

127 This is the cause wherefore I love
thy law better then gold,
Or jewels fine which are esteem'd
most costly to be sold. (soft, 128 I thought thy precepts all most
and so them laid in store:
All crafty and malicious wayes
I do abhor therefore.

P E. The seventeenth part.

129 Thy covenants are most wonder-and full of things profound: (full
My soul therefore doth keep them sure,
when they are tri'd and found

when they it read or heay. (breath'd

131 For joy I have bath gap'd and to know thy commandment:
That I might guide my self thereby,
I sought what thing it meant.
132 With mercy and compassion, Lord,
behold me from above:
As thou art wont to behold such,
as thy Name fear and love.

133 Direct my foot steps by thy words,
that I thy will may know:
And never let iniquity thy servant overthrow. (harmo

Let shine on me, and by thy law teach me what to clewhe. (out 136 Out of mine eyes great floods gush
of dreary tears that fail :
When I behold how wicked men
thy laws keep not at all.

T Z A D I . The eighteenth part.

137 In every point; Lord, thou art just,
the wicked though they grudge :
And when thou dost sentence pronounce,
thou art a righteous Judge. (guile 138 To render right, and flee from
are two chief points most high;
And such as thou hast in thy law
commanded us straightly.

(sum'd,

139 With zeal and wrath I am con-
and even pin'd away :
To see my foes thy word forget,
for ought that I do may.
140 So pure and perfect is thy word,
as my heart can deem :
And I thy servant nothing more
do love or yet esteem.

141 And though I be nothing set by,
as one of base degree :
Yet do I not thy laws forget,
nor shrink away from thee. (just,
142 Thy righteousness (Lord) is most
for ever to endure :
Also thy law is truth it self,
most constant and most pure.

143 Trouble & grief have seiz'd on me,
and brought me wondrous low :
Yet do I still all thy precepts delight to hear and know. (ments

144 The righteousness of thy judge-
dost last for evermore :
Then teach them me, for even in them
my life lies up in store.

K O P H . The nineteenth part.

145 With fervent heart I cald and crld's,
now answer me, O Lord :
That thy commandments to observe,
I may fully accord.
146 To thee, my God, I make my suit
with most humble requests :
Save me therefore, and I will keep thy precepts and thy tests.

147 To thee I cry, even in the morn,
before the day wax light :
Because that I have in thy word
my confidence whole nighe. (night, 148 Mine eyes prevent the watch by
and ere they call, I wake :
That by devising on thy word,
I might some comfort take.

(voice,

149 Incline thine ears to hear my
and pity on me take :
As thou wast wont, so judge me, Lord,
lest life should me forsake.
150 My foes draw neer, and do procure
my death maliciously !

Which from thy law are far gone back,
and straid from it lewdly.

(neer,

151 Therefore, O Lord, approach thou
for need doth so require :
For all thy precepts true they are,
then help I thee desire. (learn'd 152 But thy commandments have I not now, but long ago :
That they remain for evermore,
thou hast them grounded so.

R E S H . The twentieth part.

153 My trouble and affliction
consider and behold :
Deliver me, for of thy law
I ever take fast hold. (cante,
154 Defend my good and righteous
with speed some succour send :
From death (as thou hast promised)
Lord, keep me, and defend.

155 As for the wicked, far they are
from having health and grace :
Whereby they might thy statutes know,
they enter not the trace. (grants, 156 Great are thy mercies, Lord, I
what tongue can them attain ?
And as thou hast me judg'd ere now,
so let me life obtain.

157 Though many men did trouble me,
and persecute me sore :
Yet from thy laws I never shrunk,
nor went awry therefore.
158 And truth it is, for grief I die,
when I these traitours see :
Because they keep no whit thy words,
nor yet seek to know thee.

159 Behold, for I do love thy laws,
with heart most glad and fain :
As thou art good and gracious, Lord,
restore my life again.

160 What thy word doth decree, must be,
and so it hath been ever :
Thy righteous judgements are also most true, and decay never.

S C M ! N . The xxz. part.

161 Princes have sought by cruelty,
causleſſe to make me crouch :
But all in vain, for of thy word
the fear did my heart touch.
162 And certainly even of thy word
I was more merry and glad,
Then he that of rich spoils and prey,
great store and plenty had.

163 As for all lies and falſities,
I hate most and detest :
For why t thy holy law do I above all things love best. (Lord, 164 Seven times a day I praise the singeing with heart and voice :
Thy righteous acts and wonderfull,
so cause me to rejoice.

165 Great peace and rest shall all find
as do thy statutes love :
No danger shall their quiet state impair or once remove.

166 My only health & comfort, Lord,
I look for at thy hand :
And therefore have I done those things
which thou didst me command.

167 Thy

- 157 Thy laws have been mine exercise,
 which my soul most desir'd :
So much to them my love was bent,
 that nought else I requir'd.
158 Thy statutes and commandements,
 I kept (thou know'st) aright :
For all the things that I have done,
 are present in thy sight.

T A U. The xxii. psalm.

- 159 O Lord, let my complaint and cry
 before thy face appear :
And as thou hast me promise made,
 so teach me thee to fear.
160 Mine humble supplication,
 oward thee let finde access :
And grant me, Lord, deliverance,
 for so is thy promise.

(speak,

- 171 Then shall my lips thy praises
 after most ample fort :
When thou thy statutes hast me taught,
 wherein stands my comfort.
172 My tongue shall sing & preach thy and in this wise say shall : (word, Gods famous sas and noble laws
 are just and perfect all.

(speak,

- 173 Stretch out thy hand, I thee be-
 and speedily me save :
For thy commandments to observe chosen, O Lord, I have.
174 Of thee alone, Lord, I crave health,
 for other I know none :
And in thy law and nothing else
 I do delight alone.

(speak,

- 175 Grant me therefore long dayes to
 thy Name to magnifie :
And of thy judgements mercifull
 let me the favour try.
176 For I was lost and went astray,
 much like a wandring sheep :
O seek me, for I have not fail'd thy commandments to keep.

Psal. CXX. T. S.

- IN trouble and in thrall
 Unto the Lord I call,
 And he doth me comfort.
2 Deliver me, I say,
 From liars lips siaway,
 And tongues of false report.

- 3 What vantage or what thing
 Ger'st thou thus for to sting,
 Thou false and flattering liar ?
4 Thy tongue doth hurt I ween,
 No leese then arrows keen,
 Or hot consuming fire.

- 5 Alas, too long I flack
 Within these tents so black,
 Which Cedars are by name,
By whom the flock elect,
And all of Isaacs seed
 Are put to open shame.

- 6 With them that peace did hate,
 I came a peace to make
 And set a quiet life.
7 But when my tale was told,
 Cawleffe I was contred
 By them that would have strife.

Psal. CXXI. W. W.

- ILift mine eyes to Sion hill,
 From whence I do attend
That succour God me send.
2 The mighty Godme succour will,
 Which heaven and earth framed,
 And all things therein named.

- 3 Thy foot from slip he will preserve,
 And will thee safely keep,
For he will never sleep :
4 Lo he that doth Israel conserue,
 No sleep at all can him catch :
 But his eyes shall ever watch.

- 5 The Lord is thy warrant alway,
 The Lord eke doth thee cover,
As at thy right hand ever.

- 6 The sun shall not thee parch by day,
 Nor the moon nor half so bright,
Shall with cold thee hurt by night.

(treble)

- 7 The Lord will keep thee from ill,
 And will thy life sure save :
And thou shalt also have 8 In all thy busynesse good success :
 Where ever thou goest in or out,
God will thy things bring about.

Psal. CXXII. W. K.

- ID in heart rejoices
 To hear the peoples voices,
 In offering so willingly :
For let us up, say they,
And in the Lords house pray :
 Thus spake the folk full lovingly.

- 2 Our feet that wondred wide,
 Shall in thy gates abide,
 O thou Jerusalem full fair :
3 Which art so seemly set
 Much like a city neat,
 The like whereof is not elsewhere.
- 4 The tribes with one accord,
 The tribes of God the Lord
 Are thither bent their way to take.]
So God before did tell
That there his Israel
 Their prayers should together

- 5 For there are thrones erea,
 And that for this respect,
 To set forth justice orderly :
Which thrones right to maintain,
To Davids house pertain,
 His folk to judge accordingly.

- 6 To pray let us not cease
 For Jerusalems peace,
 Thy friends God prosper mightily !
7 Peace be thy walls about,
 And prosper thee throughout
 Thy palaces continually.

- 8 I wish thy prosperous states
 For my poor breathens sake,
 that comfort have by means of them
9 Gods house doth me assure,
 Thy wealth for to procure,
 So much always as lies in me.

- Psal. CXXIII. T. S.
O Lord, that heaven doth possess,
 I lift mine eyes to thee ;

EVD

Even as the servants ill-treat his

As handmaids watch their mistress
some grace for to achieve :
So we behold the Lord our God,
till he do us forgive.

3 Lord, grant us thy compassion,
and mercy in thy sight :
For we are fill'd and overcome with hatred and despise. (buke,

the rich and worldly wise
Do make of us their mocking stocks,
the proud do us despise.

Psal. (XXVIII. W.W.

Now Israel
may say, and that truly :
If that the Lord
had not our cause maintain'd :
2 If that the Lord
had not our right sustain'd,
When all the world
against us furiously
Made their upbraids,
and said we should all die.

3 Now long ago
they had devour'd us all :
And swallowed quick,
for ought that we could deemed :
Such was their rage,
as we might well esteem.
4 And as the floods
with mighty force do fall :
So had they now
our lives even brought to thrall.

5 The raging streams
most profound and roaring noise,
Had long ago
overwhelm'd us in the deep.
6 But loved be God,
which doth us safely keep
From bloody teeth,
and their most cruel voices
Which as a prey,
to eat us would rejoice.

7 Even as a bird
out of the fowlers grin Escapes away,
right so it fares with us :
Broke are their nets,
and we have escaped thus.
8 God that made heaven
and earth is our help then :
His Name hath sav'd
us from these wicked men.

Psal. (XXV. W.W.

Such as in God the Lord do trust,
As mount Sion shall firmly stand,
And be removed at no hand. (just :
The Lord will count them right and
So that they shall be sure
For ever to induce.

9 As mighty mountains huge and great Jerusalem about do close :
So will the Lord do unto those,
Who on his godly will do wait :
Such are to him so dear,
They never need to fear.

3 For though the righteous try doth he,
By making wicked men his rod : (God,
Let they through grief forsake their
It shall not as their lot still be.
4 Give, Lord, to us thy light,
Whose hearts are true and right.

5 But as for such as turn aside,
By crooked ways which they out-sought,
The Lord will surely bring to nought :
With workers vile they shall abide :
But peace with Israel
For evermore shall dwell.

Those that do put their confidence
Upon the Lord our God only,
And flee to him for their defence,
In all their need and misery :
Their faith is sure, still to endure,
Grounded on Christ the corner-stone,
Mov'd with none ill, but standeth still,
Stedfast like to the mount Sion.

And as about Jerusalem,
The mighty hills do it compass,
So that no enemies come to them,
To hurt that town in any case :
So God indeed in every need,
His faifthfull people doth defend,
Standing them by assuredly, (end,
From this time forth world without

Right wise and good is our Lord

O Lord, defend world without end
Thy Christian flock through thy good.

O Lord do good to Christians all,
That stedfast in thy word abide :
Such as willingly from God fall,
And to false doctrine daily slide,
Such will the Lord scatter abroad,
With hypocrites thrown down to hell,
God will them send pains without end :
But, Lord, grant peace to Israel.

Glory to God the Father of mighty,
And to the Son our Saviour,
And to the holy Ghost, whose light

That the right way from day to day
We may walk, and him glorifie :
With hearts desire all that are here
Worship the Lord, and Amen cry.

Psal. (XXVI. W.W.

When that the Lord (brings again his Sion had forth From bondage great,
and also servitude extrem :
His work was such (thought,
as did surmount mans heart and So that we were

and therefore can confess no lesse :
Wherefore to joy,
we have good cause as we begun.
4 O Lord go forth,
thou canst our bondage end :
As to deserts

that they which sow in tears in-

They grow in strength and avenesse,
In perfour and in comelinetesse :
So that a shaft shot with courage,
Of one that hath a most strong arm,

Psal. CXXVIII. T. S.

lessed art thou that fearest God,
and walkest in his way :
2 For of thy labour thou shalt eat,
happy art thou, I say.
3 Like fruitfull vines on thy house side,
so doth thy wife spring out :
By children stand like olive plants,
thy table round about.

4 Thus art thou blest that fearest God,
and he shall let thee see 5 The promised Jerusalem,
and her felicity.

ord, to thee I make my moan,
when dangers me oppresse :
I call, I sigh, plain and groane,
trusting to finde release.
2 Hear now, O Lord; my request,
for it is full due time:
And let thine ears ay be prest,
unto this prayer mine.

3 O Lord our God, if thou weigh
our sins, and them peruse :
Who shall then escape and say,
I can my self excuse ?
4 But, Lord, thou art mercifull,
and turn'st to us thy grace :
That we with hearts most carefull
should fear before thy face.

5 In God I put my whole trust,
my soul waits on his will :
For his promise is most just,
and I hope therein full.
6 My soul to God hath regard,
waiting for him always,
More then they that watch and wait
to see the dawning day.

7 Let Israel then boldly
in the Lord put his trust ;
He is that God of mercy,
that his deliver must.
8 For he it is that must save ;
Israel from his sin :
And all such as surely have their confidence in him.

Psal. CXX. I. N.

Lord, I am not putt in mindes
I have no scornfull eye :
I do not exercise my self
in things that be too hig.
2 But as the childe that weaned is even from his mothers breast

Psal. CXXIXII. M.

Remember David's troubles, Lord,
how to the Lord he swore;
And vowed a vow to Jacob's God,
to keep for evermore:
1 I will not come within my house,
nor climb up to my bed;
Nor let my temples take their rest,
nor the eyes in my head;

4 Till I have found out for the Lord
a place to sit thereon:

5 An house for Jacob's God to be in habitation.

6 We heard of it at Ephrata;
there did we hear this sound;
And in the fields and fore's there,
these voices first were found.

7 We will assay, and go in unto his tabernacle there

Before his footstool to fall down,
and worship him in fear.

8 Arise, O Lord, arise, I say,
into thy resting place:
Both thou and the ark of thy strength,
the presence of thy grace.

9 Let all thy priests be clothed, Lord,
with truth and righteousness;

Let all thy saints and holy men
sing all with joyful noise.

10 And for thy servant David's sake
refuse not, Lord, I say,
The face of thine anointed, Lord,
nor turn thy face away.

The second part.

11 The Lord to David shone in truth
and will not shrink from it:

Saying, The trout of thy body
upon thy seat shall sit.

12 And if thy sons my covenant keep,
that I shall learn each one:

Then shall thy sons for ever sit upon thy princely throne.

13 The Lord himself hath chose Sions
and loves therein to dwell:

Saying, This is my resting place,
I loves and like it well.

14 And I will bleefe with great increase her viuals every where:

And I will satiate with bread
the needy that be there.

(priests)

15 Yea, I will deck and clothe her
with my salvation:

And all her saints shall sing for joy
of my protection.

16 There will I surely make the horn
of David for to bud:

For there I have ordain'd for mine
a lantern bright and good.

17 As for his enemies, I will clothe with shame for evermore:
But I will cause his crown to shine
more fresh then heretofore.

Psal. CXXIXIII. W.W.

O how happy a thing it is,
and joyfull for to see

Brotheren together fast to hold the band of amity!

2 It calls to minde that sweet perfume,
and that costly ointment,
Which on the sacrificers head
by Gods precept was spear.

It was not Aarons head alone,
but drench his beard throughoue,
And finally it did run down
his rich attire about.

3 And as the lower ground doth draine
the dew of Hermon hill:
And Sion with her silver drops
the fields with milk doth fill;

4 Even so to the Lord doth pour on them
his blessing manifold. (guile)
Whose hearts and minds without all this shal do keep and hold.

Psal. CXXIXIV. W.W.

Behold and have regard,
ye servants of the Lord:

Watch in his house by night do watch;
praise him with one accord.

2 Lift up your hands on high,
unto his holy place:
And give the Lord his praises due,
his benefits embrace.

3 For why? the Lord who did
both earth and heaven frame, Doth Sion bleefe, and will conferre
for evermore the same.

Psal. CXXV. N. his.
O praise the Lord, praise him, praise
praise him with one accord:

Or praise him still all ye that be
the servants of the Lord.

2 O praise him ye that stand and be in the house of the Lord:
Ye of his court and of his house,
praise him with one accord.

3 Praise ye the Lord, for he is good;
sing praises to his Name:
It is a comely and good thing,
alwayes to do the same.

4 For why? the Lord hath Jacob chose;
to be his own ye see:
And he hath chosen Israel,
his treasure for to be.

5 For this I know and am right sure,
the Lord is very great:
He is indeed above all gods,
most easie to intreat.

6 For whatsoever pleased him,
all that full well he wrought
In heaven, in earth, and in the sea,
which he hath made of nought.

Psal. CXXXVII. M. M.

V Hen as we sit in Babylon,
The rivers round about,
And in remembrance of Sion,
The tears for grief burst out:
6 We hang'd our harps and instruments
The willow trees upon:
For in that place men for their use
had planted many a one,

(xxxvii)

- 7 Then they to whom we prisoners
said to us tauntingly:
Now let me hear your Hebrew songs,
and pleasant melody.
8 Slave said we who can once frame
his sorrowful heart to sing,
The praises of our loving God
Abus under a stunge king?
- 9 But yet if I Jerusalem
out of my heart let hide:
Then let my fingers quite forget
The wailing harp to guide.
10 And let my tongue within my mouth,
Be tied for ever far,
If that I joy before I see thy fullid avengance past.

11 Therefore (O Lord) remember now
the cursed noife and cry
That Edoma done aginst us made,
When they raz'd our city,
Remember Lord their cruel words,
when as with one accord
They cri'd, On, on, and raz their walls
in despite of their Lord.

- 12 Even so shall thou, O Babylon,
at length to dust be brought:
And happy shall that man be cal'd,
that our revenge hath wrought.
13 Yea, blessed shall that cause be cal'd,
that takes thy children young,
To dash their bones against hard stones
that lie the Greeks among.

Psal. CXXXVIII. N.

M Hee will I praise with my whole
I my Lord my God always: (xxxviii)
Even in the presence of the gods
I will advance thy praise,
2 Toward thy holy temple I will look and worship thee, End praised in my thankful sound
thy holy Name shall be.

- Even for thy loving kindnessesse sake,
and for thy truth withall:
For thou thy Name hast by thy word
Advanced over all.
3 When I did call, thou heardeft me,
and thou hast made alio
The power of increased strength within my soul to grow.

- 4 Yes all the kings on earth they shall give praise to thee, O Lord:
For they of thy most holy mouth
have heard the mighty word.
5 They of the wayes of God the Lord,
in singing shall intreat:
Because the glory of the Lord,
is exceeding great.

6 The Lord is high and yet he doth behold the lowly spirit :
But he (contemning) knows afar
the proud and lofty wight.
7 Although in mid of trouble I do walk, yet shall I stand:
Renewed by thee : O my Lord,
thou wilt stretch out thine hand.

Upon the wrath of all my foes,
and saved shall I be.
By thy right hand : the Lord God will perform his work to me.
8 Thy mercy, Lord, endures for ever,
Lord, do me not forsake :
Despite me not nor that am the work which thine own hand did make.

Psalms XXXIX. N.

O Lor, when hast me left & known,
my failing thou dost know,
2 And rising cheare my thoughts if汝
thou understand'st also.
3 My pathes yes, and my lying down
thou compassest alwaies
And by famillie custom art
expansed with my waies.

4 My word is in my tongue: O Lord,
but know n it is to thee?
5 Then com behinde hol'it and before,
then lay't thin' hand on me.
6 Too wonderfull above my reach,
Lord, is thy cunning skill;
7 It is to high that I the same cannot attain until.

7 From sight of thy all-feeling Spirit,
Lord, whither shall I go ?
Or whither shall I flee away,
thy presence to escape fro ?
8 To heaven if I mount aloft,
so thou art present there;
In hell if I lie down below,
even there thou doest appear.

9 Yes, let me take the morning wings,
and let me go and hide
Even there where are the farthest parts,
where flowing feadeth slide :
10 Yet, even thither also shall
thy reaching hand me guide :
And thy right hand shall hold me fast,
and make me to abide.

11 Yes, if I say the darkness shall yet through me from thy sight :
Lo, even also the darkest night
about me shall be light.
12 Yea, darkness hideth not from thee,
but night doth thine as day :
To thee the darkness and the light,
are both alike alway.

The second part.

13 For thou possessed hast my reins,
and thou hast covered me,
When I within my mothers womb
inclosed was by thee.
14 There will I praise, made fearfully,
and wonerously I am :
Thy works are marvellous, right well
my soul doth know the same.

15 My bones they are not hid from although in secret place
I have been made, and in the earth
beneath I shaped was.
16 When I was formless then thinges
few me for in thy book
Were written all, nought was before,
last after fashion took.

17 The thoughts therefore of thee
how dear are they to me !
And of them all how passing great
the endlesse number be !
18 If I should count them, lootheth me
more then the sand I see :
And whersoever I shalke,
ver am I full with thee.

19 The wicked and the bloody men
Other thou wouldest say :
Even those, O God, to whom despis desire from me, I say.
20 Even those of thee, O Lord, my husbands full wickedly :
Therefore are lifted up in vain
being enemies to thee.

21 Note I not them that hate thee,
and that in earnest wile
Com of I not against them all,
against thee that arise ?
22 I hate them with unfeigned hate,
even as my utter foes :
23 Try me (O God) and know my heart
my thoughts prove and disclose.

24 Consider, Lord, if wickednesse
in me there any be :
And in thy way (O God my guide)
for ever lead thou me.

Psalms CXL. N.

J Or, save me from the evil man,
and from the cruell wight Deliver me which evill do
imagine in thine sprite.
2 Which make on me continual woe,
their tongues to have they wher
2 Like serpents, underneath their lips
to adders polson set.

4 Keep me (O Lord) from wickednesse, preserve me to abide Free from the cruell man, that mean
to cause my steps to slide.
5 The proud have laid a snare for me,
and they have spread a net
With cords in my path-way, and glos
for me eke have they set.

6 Therefore I said unto the Lord,
thou art my God alone :
Hear me, O Lord, O hear the voice
wherewith I pray and mone.
7 O Lord my God, thou only art
the strength that saveth me :
My head in day of barell hath been covered still by thee.

8 Let not (O Lord) the wicked have the end of his desire :
Perform not his ill thoughts, lest he
with pride be set on fire.
9 Of them that compass me about,
the chiefest of them all,

Lord, let the mischief of their lips
upon themselves befall.

And in the presence of the Lord
my trouble did declare.

30 Let coals fall on them, let him cast
them in consuming flame;
And in deep pits, so as they rosy
not rise out of the same.
31 For no backbiter shall on earth
be set in stable plights;
And evil to destruction still shall haunt the cruel wight.

3 Although perplexed was my spirit,
my path was known to thee:
In way where I did walk, a thine
they truly laid for me. (hands)

4 I look'd and strew'd on my right
but none there would me know;
All refuge failed me, and for my foul gone care did show.

32 I know the Lord thyself will revenge and judge the poor; 33 The just shall praise thy Name, and dwell with thee forever. (Psalm)

5 Then cri'd I, Lord, to thee; and failed
my hope thou only art:
Thou in the land of living art
my portion and my part.

Psal. CXLI. N.
O Lord upon thee do I call,
Lord, haste thee unto me;
And hear us, Lord, unto my voice,
when I do cry to thee.

6 As incense let my prayers be directed in thine eyes;
And the up-lifting of my hands
as evening sacrifice.

6 Hear to my cry; for I am brought full low; I deliver me
From them that do me persecute,
for me too strong they be.

7 My Lord, for guiding of my mouth,
set thou a watch before;
And also of my moving lips,
O Lord, knock thou the door.
8 That I should wicked works commit,
incline thou not my heart;
With ill men of their delicacies
Lord, let me eat no pat.

7 That I may praise thy Name, my soul
from prison, Lord, bring out:
When thou art good to me, the just shall praise me round about.

Psal. CLXIII. N.

1 Lord, hear my prayer, hear the cry that I do make to thee: (psalm) Lord, in thy native truth, and in thy justice answer me.
2 In judgement with thy servant, Lord;
O enter not at all;
For justified be in thy sight,
not one that liveth in ill.

3 But let the righteous smite me: Lord,
for that is good for me;
Let him reprove me, and the smite
a precious oil shall be.
Each smiting shall not break my head,
the time shall shortly com;
When I shall in their misery
make prayers for them all.

3 The enemy hath purst my soul,
my life to ground hath thrown;
And laid me in the dark like them
that dead are long agone.

4 Within me in perplexity
was mine accumbered sprit;
And in me was my troubled heart;
amaz'd and affright.

5 Then when in stony places down
their judges shall be cast;
Then shall they hear my words, for then
they have a pleasant taste.
6 Our bones about the graves mouth,
so scattered are they found:
As he that heweth wood, or he
that diggeth up the ground.

5 Yet I record time past, in all thy works I meditate;
Yes, in thy works I meditate,
that thy hands have crease.

6 To thee, O Lord, my God, to thee,
do stretch my crating hands;
My fool desirèth after thee,
as do the thridy lands. (Psalm)

7 But, O my Lord, my God, mine eyes
do look up unto thee;
Is thee is all my trust, let not my foul forsaker be.
8 Which they have hid to catch me in,
Lord, keep me from the snare;
And from the subtle gries of them
that wicked workers are.

7 Hear me with speed, my spirit doth hide not thy face me fro; Els shall I be like them that down into the pit do go.

8 Let me thy loving kindness in the morning hear and know i For in thee is my trust, few are the way where I shall go.

9 The wicked into their own nets
together let them fall;
While I do by thy help escape
the danger of them all.

9 For I lift up my soul to thee;
O Lord, deliver me
From all mine enemies, for I have hidden me with thee.

Psal. CXLII. N.
Before the Lord God with my voice
I did send out my cry;
And with my sturzine voice unto
the Lord God prayed I.
10 My meditation in his sight
to you I did not spare;

10 Teach me to do thy will, for thou
thou art my God, I say;
Let thy good Spirit into the land
of mercy me convey.

(Grace)

11 For thy Name'sake with quicke-someallye do thou me make.

D 3: And,

And out of trouble bring my soul,
even for thy justice sake.
12 And for thy mercy slay my foes;
O Lord, destroy them all
That do oppresse my soul, for I,
thy servant am, and shall.

Psal. CXLIII. N.

B Left be the Lord my strength; that
B instruc^t my hands to fight: (doubt)
The Lord that doth my fingers frame
to battell by his might.
2 He is my goodness, fort and towers,
deliverer and shield:
3 In him I trust, my people he subdues to me to yeard.

2 O Lord, what thing is man, that him
thou holdest so in pise:
Or son of man, that upon him
thou thinkest in such wise?
4 Man is but like to vanity,
so passe his dayes to end,
5 As fleeting shade. Bow down, O Lords
the heavens and descend.

(stroke) 6 The mountains touch-ende they shall
call forth thy lightning flame, 7 scatter them: thine arrows shoot,
confuse them with the same.
7 Send down thine hand even from above.
O Lord, deliver me: (above.)
Take me from waters great, from land
of strangers make me free.

B Whose subtill mouth of vanity,
and fondnesse doth iastre: (stroke)
And their right hand is a right hand
of falsehood and deceit.
9 A new song will I sing, O God;
and singing will I be On violi, and on instrument
ten-stringed unto thee.

10 Even he it is that onely gives deliverance to kings:
Unto his servant David help
from hurtfull sword he brings.
11 From strangers have me save and whose mouth talks vanity: (stroke),
And their right hand is a right hand
of guile and subtillity.

12 That our sons may be as the plants,
whom growing youth doth rear:
Our daughters as carv'd corner-stones,
like to a palace fair.
13 Our garners full, and plenty may with sundry foris, be found.
Our sheep bring thousands in our streets,
ten thousands may abound.

14 Our oxen be to labour strong,
that none do us invade:
Where be no goings out, nor eries
within our streets be made.
15 The people blessed are that with such blessings are so stor'd:
Wee blessed all the people are,
whose God is God the Lord.

Psal. CXLV. N.

I Her will I sing my God and King,
and blisse thy Name for ev.

2 For ever will I praise thy Name,
and blisse thee day by day. (psalm) 3 Great is the Lord, most worthy his greatness none can reach:
4 From race to race they shall thy works
praise, and thy power preach.

5 I of thy glorious majesty
the beauty will record:
And meditate upon thy works
most wonderfull, O Lord.
5 And they shall of thy power, and of thy fearfull acte declare:
And i to publish all abroad,
thy greatness will not spare.

7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodness great:
And I aloud thy righteousness
in singing shall repeat.
8 The Lord our God is gracious,
and mercifull also:
Of great abounding mercy, and
to anger he is slow.

9 Yes, good to all, and all his works
his mercy doth exceed: (stroke)
10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee,
and do thy honour spread.
11 Thy saints do blisse thee, & they do
the kingdoms glory shew:
12 And blaze thy power to ev'rytis
of men thy power to know.

The second part.

13 And of his mighty kingdom to
to spread the glorious praise:
Thy kingdom, Lord, a kingdom is that doth Indure alwayes:
And thy dominion through eache age
Indures without decay.
14 The Lord upholdeth them that in their sliding he doth stay:

15 The eyes of all do wait on thee,
thou doft there all relieve:
And thou to each suff'ring food
In fesoar doft give.
16 Thou openest thy plenteous hand,
and bountifully doft fill
All things whatsoever do live,
with gifts of thy good will.

17 The Lord is just in all his wayes,
His works are holy all:
18 Near all he is that call on him,
in truth that on him call.
19 He the desires which they requeis,
that fear him will fulfill:
And he will hear them when they cry,
and save them all he will.

20 The Lord preserves all those to that bear a lovingheast:
But he them all that wicked are,
will utterly subvert. (stroke)
21 My thankful mouth shall gladly
the praises of the Lord:
All soch to praise his holy Names
for ever shall accord.

Psal. CXLVI. J. H.

M Y soule praiseth thee & Lord alwayes,
my God I will confesse:
a Wh-

6 Trust not in worldly princes then ;
though they abound in wealth :
Nor in the sons of mortall men,
in whom there is no health. (part,

4 For why ? their breath doth soon die :
to earth anon they fall :
And then the counsels of their heart
decay and perish all.
5 O happy is that man, I say,
whom Jacobs God doth aid :
And he whose hope doth not decay,
but on the Lord is staid.

(deep,

6 Which made the earth and waters
the heavens high withal :
Which doth his word and promise keep
in truth and ever shall.
7 With right always doth he proceed,
for such as suffer wrong :
The poor and hungry he doth feed,
and loose the fettters strong.

(right,

8 The Lord doth send the blinde their

The Lord (I say) doth love the right,
and just man exceeding.
9 He doth defend the fatherlesse,
and stranger fad in heart :
And quit the widow from distresse,
and ill mens wayes subvert.

10 Thy Lord and God eternally,
O Zion still shall reign :
In time of all posterity,
for ever to remain.

Psalm XLVII. N.

Praise ye the Lord, for it is good
unto our God to sing :
For it is pleasant, and to praise,
it is a comely thing.
1 The Lord his own Jerusalem,
he buildeth up alone :
And the dispersit of Israel
doth gather into one.

2 He heals the broken in their hearts,
their forces up doth he binde :
4 He counts the number of the stars,
and names them in their kinde.
5 Great is the Lord's greatness is his power,
his wisdom infinite. (throws

6 The Lord relieves the meek : and to ground the wicked right.

7 Sing unto God the Lord with praise,
unto the Lord rejoice :
And to our God upon the harpe,
advanc your singing voice. (for 8 He covers heaven with clouds, and the earth prepresteth rain :
And on the mountaine he doth make
the grasse to grow again.

9 He giveth to beasts their food, and to young ravens when they cry :
10 His pleasure not in strength of horse,
nor in mans leg, doth lie :
11 But in all those that fear the Lord,
the Lord hath his delight :

The second part.

12 O praise the Lord, Jerusalem,
thy God, O Zion, praise :
13 For he the basis hath forged strong,
wherewith thy gates he stayes.
14 Thy children he hath blest in thee,
and in thy borders he Doth settle peace, and with the flous
of wheat he filleth thee.

15 And his commandement upon
the earth he sendeth out :
And eke his word with speedy course
doth swiftly run about.
16 He giveth snow like woolly-hair-froth
like shes he doth spread :
17 Like morfells castis his ice, thereof
the cold who can abide ?

18 He sendeth forth his mighty word,
and melteth them agaia :
His winde he makes to blow, and then
the waters flow remain.
19 The doctrine of his holy word
to Jacob he doth shew :
His statutes and his judgements be gives Israel to know.

20 Whi every nation hath he not desir, nor have they known His secrete judgements, ye therefore praise ye the Lord alone.

Psalm XLVIII. J. M.

Give laud unto the Lord,
From heaven that is so high :
Praise him in deed and word,
Above the starry skie :
2 And also ye,
His angells alle,
Armies roiall,
Praise him with glee.

3 Praise him both moon and sun,
Which are so cleare and bright :
The same of you be done,
Ye glistering stars of light :
4 And eke no lesse,
Ye heavens fair,
5 And clouds of th' air,
His laud expresse.

6 For it his word they were,
All formed as we see :
At his voice did appear
All things in their degrees,
Which he set fast,
To them he made
A law and trade
For ayre to last.

7 Extoll and praise Gods Name,
On earth, ye dragons fell :
All deeps do ye the same,
For it becomes you well.
8 Him magnifie,
Fire, hails, ice, snow,
And storms that blow
At his decree.

9 The hills and mountains all,
And trees that fruitfull are,
The cedar great and tall,
His worthy praise declare.
10 Beasts and carolls,
Yes, birds flying,
And worms creeping,
That on earth dwelt.

11 All kings both more and lesse,
With all their pompos train,
Princes and all judges,
What in the world remain,
Exalt his Name.
12 Young men and maides,
Old men and babes,
Do ye the same.

13 For his Name shall we prays
To be most excellent,
Whose praise is far above
The earth and firmament.
14 For us he shall Reft with stiffe
The horn of his,
and help them all.

15 His saints all shall forth tell
The prays and worthinesse
The children of Israel,
Each one both more and lesse,
16 And also they
That with good will
His words fulfill
And him obey.

Psal. CXLIX. N.

Sing ye unto the Lord our God,
A new rejoicing song,
And let the praise of him be heard
his holy saints among.
2 Let Israel rejoice in him,
that made him of nothing,
And for the feed of Sion make
be joyfull in their King.

3 Let them sound praise with voice or gate his holy Name s

4 And with the timbrell and the harp
Sing praises of the same.
5 For why? the Lord his pleasure all hath in his people set;
And by deliverance he will raise the meek to glory great.

6 With glory and with honour now
let all his saints rejoice,
And now aloud upon their beds
advance their singing voice:
7 And in their mouths set be the shs
of God the mighty Lord:
And in their hands let them bear
the double edged sword.

8 To plague the heathens and terrife
the people with their hands:
9 To blinde their dexter eyes in chains,
other hands in iron bands.
9 To execute on them the doom
that is writ before:
This honour all his saints shall have,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Psal. CL. N.

1 Praise unto God the mighty Lord
His prays in his sanctuary.
And praise him in the firmament
that shew his power on high.
2 Advance his Name, and praise him as his mighty acts always,
According to his excellency
or greatness give him prays.

3 His praises with the princely noise
of sounding trumpets blow:
Praise him upon the roll, and upon the harp alto. (2016)
4 Praise him with timbrell and with organs and virginals: (him)
5 With sounding cymbals praise ye praise him with loud cymbals.

6 What ever hath the benefit of breathing, praise the Lord:
To name the Name of God the Lord
is sweet and one accord.

5. Certain godly prayer.

Morning prayer.

Almighty God, and most merciful Father, we do not present our selves here before thy Majesty, trusting in our own merits or worthinesses but in thy manifold mercies, which hast promised to hear our prayers, and grant our requests which we shall make to thee in the name of thy beloved Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who hath also commanded us to assemble our selves together in his Name, with full assurance that he will not only be amongst us, but also be our Mediator and Advocate towards thy Majesty that we may obtain all things which shall seem expedient to thy blessed will, for our necessities. Therefore we beseech thee (most mercifull Father) to turn thy loving countenance towards us, and impute not unto us our manifold sins and offences, whereby we justly deserve thy wrath and sharp punishment: but rather receive us to thy mercy, for Jesus Christ's sake, accepting his death and passion as a just recompence for all our offences, in whom onely thou art pleased, and through whom thou canst not be offended with us. And seeing that of thy great mercies we have quietly passed this night, grant (O heavenly Father) that we may before this day wisely in the service, so that all our thoughts, words, and deeds may redound to the glory of thy Name, and good example to all mens who seeing our good works, may glorify thee, O heavenly Father, and forsooth as of thy mere favour and love, thou hast not only created us in thine own similitude and likeness, but also hast chosen us to be heirs with thy dear Son Jesus Christ, of that immortall kingdom, which thou preparedst for us before the beginning of the world; we beseech thee to increase our faith and knowledge: and to lighten our hearts with thine holy Spirit, that we may in the mean time live in godly conversation and integrity of life, knowing that idolaters, adulterers, covetous men, contentious persons, drunks, gluttons, and such like, shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

and because thou hast commanded us to pray one for another, we do not onely make request (O Lord) for our selves, and them that thou hast already called to the true understanding of thine heavenly will, but for all people and nations of the world; who as they know by thy wonderfull works that thou art God over all, to them may be instreded by thine holy Spirit to believe in thee their onely Saviour and Redeemer. But forsooth as they cannot believe except they hear, nor cannot hear but by preaching: and none can preach except they be sent: therefore (O Lord) raise up faithful distributors of thy mysteries, who setting apart all worldly respects, may both in their life and doctrine onely seek thy glory. Contrarily, confound Satan, Antichrist, with all hirelings and Papists, whom thou hast already cast off into a reprobate sense, that they may not by fleshly selffisness, heresies and errours disquiet thy little flock. And because (O Lord) we be fallen into the latter dayes, and dangerous times, wherein ignorance hath gotten the upper hand, and Satan by his ministers seeks by all means to quench the light of thy gospel; we beseech thee to maintain thy cause against those ravening wolves, and strengthen all thy servants whom they keep in prison and bondage. Let not thy long suffering be an occasion either to increase their tyranny, or to discourage thy children, neither yet let our sins and wickednesse be an hinderance to thy mercies; but with speed (O Lord) consider their great misery. For thy people Israel many times by their sins provoked thine anger, and thou punishmentst them by thy just judgement; yet though their sins were never so grievous, if they once returned from their iniquity, thou receivest them to mercy. We therefore, most wretched sinners, bewail our manifold sins, and earnestly repent us for our former wilfulness and ungodly behaviour towards thee: and whereas we cannot of our selves perchase thy pardon, yet we humbly beseech thee for Jesus Christ's sake, to shew thy mercies upon us, and receive us again to thy favour. Grant us (dear Father) these our requests, and all other things necessary for us and thy whole church, according to thy promise in Jesus Christ our Lord. In whose Name we beseech thee, as he hath taught us, saying, [Our Father which art, &c.]

Evening prayer.

O Lord God, Father everlasting, and full of pity, we acknowledge and confess that we be not worthy to lift up our eyes to heaven, much less to present our selves before thy Majesty, with confidence that thou wilt hear our stayers, and grant our requests, if we consider our own deservings. For our consciences accuse us, and our sins do witness against us, and we know that thou art an upright Judge, which doest not justify the sinners and wicked mens, but punishmentst the faults of all that do transgresse thy commandments. Yet most mercifull Father, since it hath pleased thee to command us to call on thee in all our troubles and adversities, promising even then to help us, when we feel our selves (as it were) swallowed up of death and desperation, we utterly renounce all worldly confidence, and flee to thy sovereign bounty as our onely stay and refuge: Beseeching thee not to call to remembrance our manifold sins and wickednesses whereby we continually provoke thy wrath & indignation against us : either our negligence and unkindness towards thee, or we worthy esteemed, nor in our lives sufficiently expressed the sweet comfort of thy gospel revealed unto us : but rather to accept the obedience and death of thy son Jesus Christ, who by offering up his body to sacrifice once for allshew made a sufficient recompence for all our sins. Have mercy therefore upon us, O Lord, and forgive us our offences. Teach us by thine holy spirit, that we may rightly weigh them, and earnestly repent for the same : and so much the rather, O Lord, because that the reprobate and such as thou hast forsaken, cannot praise thee, nor call upon thy Name ; but the repenting heart, the sorrowfull minde, the conscience oppressed, hanging and thirsting for thy graces, shall ever set forth thy praise and glory.

And albeit we be but worms, and dullye thou art our Creatour, and we be the work of thine hands : yea, thou art our Father, and we thy children : thou art our Shepherd, and we thy flock : thou art our Redeemer, and we the people whom thou hast bought : thou art our God, and we thine inheritance. Corral us not therefore in thine anger (O Lord) neither according to our deserts punish us, but mercifully chastise us with a fatherly affection, that all the world may know, that at what time soever a sinner doth repente him of his sins from the bottom of his heart, thou wilt put away his wickednesse out of thy remembraunce, thou hast promisid by thine holy prophet.

Finally, forasmuch as it hath pleased thee to make the night for man to rest in, as thou hast ordained him the day to travell in, grant (dear Father) that we may so take our bodily rest, that our soule may continually watch for the time that our Lord Jesus Christ shall appear for our deliverance out of this mortall life : and in the mean seafon that we, not overcome by any vanituous dreams, or other temptations, may fully set our mindes upon thee, love thee, fear thee, and rest in thee : furthermore, that our sleep be not excessive or overmuch, after the intable desires of our flesh, but onely sufficiant to content our weak nature, that we may be the better disposed to live in all godly conversation, to the glory of thine holy Name, and profit of our brethren. So be it.

A prayer to be said at all times,
[O]ur and praise be given to thee, O
[E]lme God almighty, most dear Father of heaven : for all thy mercies and loving kindnesses shewed unto us, in that it hath pleased thy gracious goodness, freely, and of thine own accord to elect and chuse us to salvation before the begining of the world. And even his continual thanks be given to thee, for regenerating us after thine own image, for redeeming us with the precious blood of thy dear Son, when we were utterly lost : for sanctifying us with thy holy Spirit, the revelation and knowledge of thy holy word : for helping and succuring us in all our needs and necessities : for saving us from all dangers of body and soul : for comforting us so fatherly in all our tribulations and persecutions : for sparing us so long, and giving us so large a time of repentance. These benefits, O most mercifull Father-like as we acknowledge to have received them of thy only goodnesse, even so we beseech thee, for thy dear Son Jesus Christ's sake, to graunt us always thy holy Spirit, whereby we may continually grow in thankfulness towards thee, to be led into all truth, and comforted in all adversities. O Lord, strengthen our faith, kindle in more ferventnesse and love towards thee, and our neighbours for thy sake. Suffer us not, most dear Father, to receive thy word any more in vain : but grant us alwayes the assistance of thy grace and holy Spirit, that in hearts word and deed, we may sanctifie and do worship to thy Name, help to amplify and increase thy kingdom, and whatsoever thou sendest us, we may be herein well content with thy good pleasure and will. Let us not like the thing (O Father) without the which we cannot serve thee : but blesse thou to all the works of our hands, that we may have sufficient, and not be chargeable, but rather helpefull unto others. Be mercifull, O Lord, to our offences : and seeing our debt is great, which thou hast forgiven us in Jesus Christ, make us to love thee and our neighbours so much the more. Be thou our Father, Captain and Defender in all temptations : hold thou us by thy mercifull hand, that we may be delivered from all inconveniences and end our lives in the sanctifying and honouring of thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord and onely Saviour.

Let thy mighty hand and our-streched arm (O Lord) be still our defence : thy mercy and loving-kindnesse in Jesus Christ thy dear Son our salvation, thy true and holy word our instruction, thy grace and holy Spirit our comfort and consolation, unto the end, and in the end, So be it.
